Following the meeting, the Rainbow Club members and guests of the Lodge were treated to a delicious salad supper.

Western Presbytery Of Y.P.U. Meets

The second Lenten conference of the Western Presbytery of Young Peoples Unions was held in the Montrose United Church on Friday, March 29th, with afternoon and evening sessions. Theme of the conference was "Focus on Essentials in the Life of Paul."

The afternoon session opened with worship service by Elmsdale Y. P. U. with hymn "The Church's One Foundation" Scripture reading was the 17th chapter of Acts. Prayer was offered by Rev. N. R. Green. The hymn "The King of Love My Shepherd is" brought the worship service to a close.

The president then welcomed visiting clergy, also Mr. Ernest Murphy, Faith and Evangelism Convener for the Maritime conference and all members of visiting union.

After reading of minutes by secretary those present were devided into groups for the study of the following topics: The churches in Jeruslem, Judea, Samaria and Antioch which was led by Rev. Kean; Paul's Missionary Journeys which was led by Rev. Norman R. Green and Paul in Jerusalem, his arrest and journey to Rome which was led by Mr. Hudson Pridham. After the study periods a delicious buffet supper was served by the ladies of the Montrose W. A.

The evening session opened at 7.30 with a sing song led by Mr. Robert McAssey. Offering was received and dedicated. Members of Brae YP.U. then conducted the worship service which opened with hymn. "Jesus Calls Us" Scripture Reading was from acts 17: 22-29 and Acts 2:-14-15 a brief meditation was then presented by girls. Hymn "Take My Life" brought the worship service to a close.

This was followed by a duet, "The City of Gold", by Mrs. Isaac Dunbar and Mrs. Archie Barbour. After reading of minutes and roll call of Unions the president called on Rev. Heber Kean who gave a brief outline of afternoon's studies. He also commended Mr. Earnest Murphy for his outline of service for this Lenten conference.

In his summary Rev. Mr. Kean compared the missionary work of the church today with that of early church and said "It is our duty to carry on the work started by Peter, Paul Stephen and others."

He also thanked all for coming in spite of very bad roads and hoped they had received much benefit from the worship and discussions. Hymn "The Lord's My Shepherd" was then sung following which Rev. Mr. Kean introduced Mr. Ernest Murphy, who gave a showing of slides on the first and second missionary journeys of Paul, also one on the final weeks Christ spent on earth and his ascension. These were very much enjoyed.

The president then thanked the leaders of the study groups, also Rev. Mr. Kean for his summary, Mr. Ernest Murphy for his showing of slides, The Ladies of the Montrose W.A. for their delicious supper; Mrs. N. R. Green for flowers; Elmsdale and Brae Y.P Unions for the worship services.

Rev. Mr. Kean then on behalf of all present expressed thanks to the president and secretary for the planning and carrying through of this conference.

Session then came to a close with the singing of the hymn "Faith of Our Fathers" and Benediction by Rev. N. R. Green.
