ALBERTON AND VICINITY

Mrs. Frank MacAlduff and Alva were visitors to Summerside last week.

Miss Dolly Schrader, New Glasgow, N.S., was a welcome guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Matthews last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Dixon, Summerside, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Weeks last week.

Mrs. Frank McNeill is a patient in the Charlottetown Hospital undergoing treatment preparatory to an operation.

Mrs. Laura McLellan is a patient in the Western Hospital.

Mrs. Alfred Powers of Alberton, South is undergoing treatment in the Western Hospital.

Members of the C. W. L. recently held a card party at the home of Mrs. John P. Wallace in Alma. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Alton O'Brien and the gents by Mr. J. P. Wallace. Consolation prizes were presented to Mrs. Ben Gavin and Cpl. M. Hagen. Mrs. Wallace was assisted in serving by her daughters, Mrs. Alton O'Brien and Miss Catherine Wallace and by Mrs. James O'Brien.

A Ladies' Curling Club has been organized in Alberton with the following officers: - President - Mrs. Herbert Matthews, Vice-President - Mrs. J. C. Proffitt; Secretary - Katherine Malley. Treasurer - Beth Waugh. Committees are: Entertainment - Bertha Bowness, Mrs. Erskine Campbell and Mrs. Collins; Membership - Mrs. R. E. MacDonald, Mrs. M. Hagen and Mrs. D. Nicolson; Games - Beth Waugh, Mrs. Bertha Wade, Mrs. Maurice Perry, Sr., Ice - Mrs. John Rochford, Helen Hardy and Mrs. Everett Shea. Although the ice is not yet ready for curling the ladies have gone into action and as a result the Curling Clubroom has been cleaned and redecorated in cream and black.

Several rinks from the Alberton Curling Club participated in the Bonspiel at Summerside last week. On Tuesday and Wednesday three rinks entered competition for the Curran and Briggs trophy and attended the banquet Tuesday evening. Rinks were as follows: Heber Ramsay, first stone; Erskine Campbell, second stone; Ernest Hardy, mate; Herbert Matthews, skip. Herbert Clark, first stone; J. C. Proffitt, second stone; Maurice Perry, Sr., mate; J. C. Matthews, skip. Frank Bryan, first stone; R. E. MacDonald, second stone; Arthur Wilkie, mate; J. H. Myrick, skip. On Thursday only one rink competed for the Capitol Theatre trophy: C. W. Hayes, first stone; Lloyd Wilkie, second stone; Ernest Hardy, mate; Fred Millman, skip. On Friday one team entered competition for the R. C. A. F. shield: Charles Gordon, first stone; M. Hagen, second stone; George O'Connor, mate; Cedric Hunter, skip. While none of the trophies were brought home, we feel that congratulations are due J. C. Matthews' rink who made a very creditable showing.

Miss Beth Waugh was hostess to the United Church Guild on January 8. Twelve members and one visitor were present at the January meeting. Devotions were led by Mrs. J. W. Waugh. Annual reports read by Mrs. Arthur Wilkie, secretary, and Mrs. H. D. Corbett, treasurer, showed that the past year had been a successful one. The Visiting Committee reported two hospital and seven home calls. Reports were received from the sunshine bags and the annual bazaar. Mrs. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Arthur Wilkie were appointed to the Visiting Committee. On behalf of the choir, Miss Annie Leard thanked the Guild for new collars for the choir gowns. An interesting program of contests and "Twenty Questions," directed by Mrs. Arthur Wilkie, was enjoyed. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Wesley Hardy with Mrs. C. F. Hunter as assistant hostess. Mrs. Coffin will lead the worship and Miss Helen Hardy will have charge of the program. Following the meeting, delicious refreshments were served by Miss Waugh and Mrs. R. E. MacDonald.

The January meeting of the Presbyterian W. M. S. was held at the Manse. The final chapter of the study book, "Stranger than Fiction," was presented by Mrs. F. J. Carpenter. Letters of thanks were received for a box sent to the Port Worker in Halifax for distribution to displaced persons arriving in Canada, and from a shut-in who had been remembered at Christmas. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. G. Lawson with Mrs. C. W. Hayes leading the worship and Mrs. Helen Kerr in charge of the study. Mrs. Lloyd Wilkie and Mrs. F. J. Carpenter were appointed to the visiting committee. The worship was led by members of the Saturday Girls' Club. Mary Ellen

O'Leary and Vicinity

Young Peoples Union and the Hall was packed to the very doors.

Rev. Blair B. Cochrane of Springfield West was a visitor to O'Leary on Thursday Jan. 11th.

Former residents of Prince Edward Island met at the Halifax Board of Trade and formed the Prince Edward Island Club. The officers are as follows: - President - A. A. MacLeod, Kinross; Vice President - Mrs. W. Gordon Schwartz, Charlottetown; Secretary-treasurer - Weldon C. Matthews, O'Leary; Chairman of the program committee - Adele LePage, Charlottetown; Publicity Director - Helen Champion, O'Leary.

The first meeting for the New Year of the Bloomfield Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society was held in the Church with Mrs. A. W. Craswell presiding. She read a poem and gave a short meditation on the New Year. Fourteen members answered the roll call with a New Year's thought and resolution. One associate member and one visitor was present. Three changes were made in the slate of officers for 1951: - Mrs. John Lewis was appointed Christian Steadfastness secretary; Mrs. Arthur Methersall will be the Mission Band Superintendent, and Mrs. Erol Stetson was appointed Associate Helpers Secretary. Plans were made for the World's Day of Prayer on Feb. 9th 1951. The Treasurer reported that the Missionary Society had exceeded their allocation of $300. by over $50. Mrs. W. G. Dickson conducted the worship service assisted by Mrs. A. W. Craswell. The beautiful installation service of the W. M. S. followed. The meeting closed by the Benediction.

The annual meeting of the O'Leary United Church Young Peoples Union was held in the Church on Thursday night Jan 11th with the minister Rev. W. G. Dickson presiding. The Y. P. U. decided to forward $25. to the Church Treasurer for Church purposes. A fine financial report was read by the treasurer, Miss Eva J. MacLennan. This showed that the group has had a fine year. The following officers were all re-elected by ballot: - President - Hester Boates; Vice President - Harold MacNeill; Secretary - Olive Jelly; Treasurer - Eva J. MacLennan. The Conveners were all re-appointed. The minister spoke of the fine service of the officers and their devotion and loyalty to the Y. P. U. Next Thursday Jan 18th the O'Leary Y. P. U. will combine with the Bloomfield Y.P.U. to see beautiful colorful moving pictures of the R. C. M.P. and a short lecture of Canada Northland by Constable Keefe of the Alberton detachment of the R. C. M. P. who spent several years in the North. The President, Miss Boates, concluded the meeting with a short devotional service after which the Missaph Benediction was pronounced.

Skerry presided and Scripture was read by Dorothy MacNevin and Lorraine Campbell. Ladies and girls then joined in a season of prayer, followed by Lord's Prayer. Evelyn Carpenter, secretary of the Club, read minutes of a typical meeting and also gave a summary of the Club's activities during the past year. Evelyn also rendered a recorder solo. A reading, "Thoughts for the New Year", was given by Mrs. Kerr. At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Cunningham was assisted in serving by members of the Club.

The annual congregational meeting of the Presbyterian Church was held on Tuesday evening, January 9. The minister, Rev. G. B. Cunningham, opened the meeting with a short devotional service. On motion Rev. Mr. Cunningham was elected chairman of the business meeting.

Reports from the various organizations of the church were read and general satisfaction expressed over the accomplishments noted in the past year. The following reports were read and adopted: Minutes of last annual meeting and financial statement by the secretary-treasurer, Miss Margaret Forsyth; W. M. S. by Mrs. F. J. Carpenter; Ladies' Aid and Sunday School by Mrs. Lloyd Wilkie; the Saturday Girls' Club by Mrs. G. B. Cunningham; the Mill River Y. P. S. by Mrs. R. G. Haywood; Board of Managers by V. J. Campbell; Session by Fred Clark. Roy Haywood was nominated to fill a vacancy on the Board of Managers, while Erskine Clark and Kentford Horne were appointed to replace the two retiring members. The Board of Managers with term of office is as follows: For three years: Erskine Clark and Kentford Horne; for two years: V. J. Campbell and Roy Haywood; for one year: Lloyd Wilkie and James Gard.

On motion, Kentford Horne was appointed a trustee to fill a vacancy on that Board. Since the congregation will celebrate its one hundred and twentieth anniversary next July, a committee was appointed to make arrangements for this event. It will be comprised of the members of session, V. J. Campbell, Mrs. Howard Clark, Mrs. C. W. Hayes, Mrs. R. G. Haywood and Mrs. Lloyd Wilkie. The secretary-treasurer, Miss Margaret Forsyth, was re-appointed
