The Future.

For us whatever's undergone,
Thou knowest, wilest what is done,
Though our dark days go on.
Perhaps the cup was broken here,
That heaven's new wine might show more clear.
So let the days go on.

I praise thee while my days go on,
I love thee while my days go on.
The day-spring cometh on.
Through dark and dearth, through fire and frost,
With emptied arms and treasure lost,
My days are going on.

—Mrs. Browning.

Home After Business Hours.

The road along which the man of business travels is not a macadamized one, nor does it ordinarily lead through pleasant scenes and by well-springs of delight. On the contrary, it is a rough and rugged path, beset with "wait-a-bit" thorns, and full of pitfalls, which can only be avoided by the watchful care of circumspection. After every day's journey over this worse than rough turnpike road the wayfarer needs something more than rest; he requires solace and he deserves it. He is weary of the dull prose of life and athirst for the poetry. Happy is the husband who can find that solace and that poetry at home. Warm greetings for loving hearts, fond glances from bright eyes, the welcome shouts of the children, the many thousand little arrangements for our comfort and enjoyment that silently tell of thoughtful and expectant love, the gentle ministrations that disencumber us into an old an easy set before we are aware of it; these are like tokens of affections and sympathy constitute the poetry which reconciles us to the prose of life.

Think of this, ye wives and daughters of business men! Think of the toils, the anxieties, the mortifications and wear that fathers undergo to secure for you comfortable homes, and then compensate them for their trials by making them happy by their own firesides.

A Sensible Wife

"Talking about sensible women," said the drummer, "I've got one of 'em. My wife is the most sensible woman that ever lived. I'll back her against all creation. When I go home and tell her of my little flirtations out on the road she takes the liveliest kind of an interest in them, and laughs at them as much as I do. She keeps a hired girl, and the last girl we had was a very comely lass. Now, you needn't laugh at me, but my wife once caught me kissing the girl, or the girl kissing me—I don't know which it was. It broke the poor girl all up. She went up to her room and got her things together, and was about to leave the house, when my wife asked her where she was going. The girl snivelled and said that after what had happened she had better go.

"'Nonsense,' said my wife; 'take off your things and stay right here. You are just the girl I want. If both of us together can give him enough kisses to please him and keep him home evenings I shall be happy.'

"The girl stayed, and that is what I call a sensible kind of a wife, don't you? Chicago Herald.

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites is not only very palatable, but the remedial power of these valuable specifics is greatly increased, and as a remedy for consumption, scrofula, emaciation, or where there is loss of flesh and nerve power, it is remarkable in its results. Take no other.

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and not one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Samples bottles to try, sold at 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers, in the United States and Canada.

The value of a human life, estimated from life assurance and wage statistics, is $11,600. The value, however, is not realized without work and growth. Young men should remember this.

PARSONS' PILLS

These pills were a wonderful discovery. No others like them in the world. Will positively cure or relieve all manner of disease. The information around each box is worth ten times the cost of a box of pills. Find out about them, and you will always be thankful. One pill a dose. Parsons' Pills contain nothing harmful, are easy to take, and cause no inconvenience. One box will do more to purify the blood and cure chronic ill health than $5 worth of any other remedy yet discovered. If people could be made to realize the marvelous power of these pills, they would walk 100 miles to get a box if they could not be had without. Sent by mail for 25 cents in stamps. Illustrated pamphlet free, postpaid. Send for it; the information is very valuable. I. S. JOHNSON & CO., 33 Custom House Street, BOSTON, MASS.
