U.K., Russia To Re-convene Laos Conference

LONDON (Reuters) — Arrangements have been agreed in Moscow between the Soviet Union and Britain for reconvening the Geneva conference on Laos, a foreign office spokesman announced here.

Invitations to the conference will be delivered jointly by Soviet and British representatives to other governments concerned in their various capitals today, the spokesman added. Canada is a conference member.

At the last meeting of the Geneva conference Jan. 20 it was agreed that the two co-chairmen — Britain and the Soviet Union — would decide on the date of the next meeting.

Bel-Tightening Advice Is Heard

LONDON (CP) — The Evening News says Canadians must "pull in their belts and work out their own salvation."

The editorial says Britain, long accustomed to currency crises, will be generally sympathetic to Canadians, facing heavy pressure on their dollar.

But it says the loan to Canada from the International Monetary Fund is only a rescue operation and "the world will look to the Canadian government . . . to pull its finances in order."

"The increased tariffs on imports must affect this country to some extent for we have an important stake in the Canadian market."
