

Cases Heard Before Pensions Appeal Board

Eight cases were heard before the Canadian Pensions Appeal Board here yesterday, presided over by Mr. H.A. Bridges of Ottawa. The other members of the board were Dr. J.F. Bates and Mr. J.M. Forman, D.F.C. Mr. A.H. Peake, pensions advocate for the veterans, presented the cases for the medical history of the appellants was given by Doctors R.G. Lea, G.J. Houston, D. Campbell, P.A. Creelman, J.S. Jenkins. Correspondence was read from Drs. R.F. Seaman and J.W. MacKenzie who were unable to be present at the hearings. The board, which travels across Canada hearing such appeals as were heard yesterday, came from Ottawa and left immediately for Halifax. Judgement in all cases was received, and the veterans will learn the outcome of their appeals within two to three weeks. Some of the cases heard yesterday dated back to 1918. In most instances the difficulty in establishing a claim arose out of failure on the part of the serviceman to report his disability of injury at the time of its occurrence. In such cases it was the job of the pensions advocate to connect the chain of events which took place during that time and make convincing to the man's condition previous to it, or in some cases previous to his enlistment. It was brought to light in the case of one veteran, that although he was actually suffering from a coronary condition while in the services, through lack of proper diagnosis he was being treated for indigestion since the pain he was experiencing was in the chest area. This man was serving in an isolated area where proper medical facilities for making such diagnosis were not available. Other instances showed that the patient attempted to draw attention when he should have. An interested witness to the proceedings was Major John A. McDonald, Cardian representing the Dominion Command of the Canadian Legion.

Monthly Meeting Of City Council Held Yesterday

Speaks At Rotary On Korean Service

A special extra five-year guarantee regarding the streets has been given City authorities by the Warren Paving company. It was reported last night at a regular meeting of the Council, well attended by all Councilors out of the city. The business tax, applicable to this city, was given third and final reading at the regular meeting of the City Council last night. There were no dissenting votes when it was read and Mayor Stewart called for the "aye" and the "nay". Councilor J. Frank Storey also said in answer to questions from the Council that the paving company would pay approximately $10 per hour for the use of the plant which the city owned for paving purposes. He also said the company found this arrangement considerably cheaper than installing a plant of their own which might cost them up to $10,000 to erect. Councilor Storey also believed that the reason for the condition of lower Dorchester street would be better explained as to would require 24 inches of a build-up and could not be done this year.
To Attend Meeting
It was suggested by Councilor Johnstone that the Mayor, Councilor Farmer and the City Clerk should all attend the annual meeting of Mayors. It had been decided that Mayor and Mr. Farmer should go, but it was the unanimous feeling of the Council that the City Clerk, Mr. James Fullerton, should be present in view of his vast experience in civic taxation matters.
Other Business
Among the many matters considered by the Council were those of erecting catch basins to relieve the load presently carried by the basins on Queen Street; dredging or filling in completely Government Pond; and a disjunction of a certain premises on Pownall Street which it was felt might be condemned due to lack of adequate toilet facilities. Councilor Johnstone also brought up the matter of licensing booths which are annually built outside the Exhibition Grounds for Old Home Week. The Council expressed its proper disapproval of the other Councilors of their ability to collect from those within the Grounds even though the City line did cross the area where many of them were set up. Another matter was the question of spraying Dead Man's Pond, to kill mosquitoes, and the need of a tree inspector. Councilor Keele in reply to Councilor MacDonald expressed the belief that it would cost $50,000 to properly pipe Government Pond. The need for new toilet facilities in Victoria Park was brought up and the general feeling of the Council was that there were several areas where this was necessary with Councilor Keele reporting that it would cost $58,000 to install the three that were planned. Councilor Storey thought there were at least four sections where they were needed and suggested that before any plans were made an overplan should come into effect. The matter of frequent power interruptions due to storms was mentioned and some Councilors felt that the lines and electric equipment of the Maritime Electric Company were shoddy and inadequate and that this contributed to a great extent to the many power failures. It was suggested that companies supplying power should be asked to submit a report as to the condition of their wires and other necessary items. Mayor J. D. Stewart felt that perhaps the supplying companies were paying too much attention to rural areas. He suggested that instead of worrying about the four users per mile they might give greater consideration to the practically 100 per cent users they had in this city. The Council also unanimously passed a resolution supporting the erection of a television station here by Lieut. Col. K. S. Rogers of the Island Broadcasting Company.

Annual Dinner Of Ch'town Jr. League

A gift was presented to Mrs. Gerald Johnston who is leaving Charlottetown. It was decided to give a donation of $25 to the Catholic Girls Scholarship Association. The coming Hospital Bazaar was discussed and members were urged to have as many knitted articles as possible completed by the end of the previous week. A lively discussion took place on ways and means for the coming year. Committees were appointed for the activities of the year and a special committee was chosen to convene a dance to be held in October.

Features Dutch Family's Journey To This Province

The Boelhouwers, recent arrivals at the 500 acre farm of Hughie Campbell of Graham's Road, P.E.I., are the stars of the latest release, No. 53, in the National Film Board's "Eye Witness" series. Now playing at the Prince Edward Theatre the film gives a graphic account of family life on a Dutch farm and of preparations for their emigration to Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Boelhouwer accompanied by their six daughters and one son were the guests of Mr. George Walters, Manager of the Prince Edward Theatre last night and after being introduced to the audience, were accorded the unusual experience of seeing in film form their trip from Holland to P. E. Island. The daughters are Jriana, Cornelia, Teutje, Johana, Wouterina and Joertje and the son, Johannes. Immigration films have hitherto concentrated mainly on arrival in this country and difficulties faced and overcome. Eye Witness 53 captures the skillful lens of N. F. B. cameraman Grant McLean on the farm life these immigrants left behind and on their reasons for seeking a new life in Canada. Cornelis Boelhouwer, his wife, six daughters and son, who all appear in the film, were happy in Holland, but competent farmer though he was, Cornelis never found an overworked land he would never own his neat farm outright. Unwilling to remain in a land working someone else's land all his life, he makes the big move and his eye witness as Hughie Campbell welcomes him to Prince Edward Island area.

Close co-operation with Canadian and Dutch immigration authorities was essential to make the film a success. The Holland footage had, of necessity, to be shot some months before that depicting the arrival in Canada. Cameraman McLean, who had no language difficulties in Holland since an interpreter was always present, travelled with the Boelhouwers to their P. E. I. destination after they docked at Halifax. He discovered then that Cornelis needed all his knowledge of English and Grant his smattering of Dutch in order to make directions about travel in the New World clear. However, a journey's end, Cornelis and Hughie found quickly that animals and crops are two things farmers have little trouble discussing, whatever the language used.

Trinity Afternoon Auxiliary Meets

The afternoon auxiliary of the W.M.S. of Trinity United Church met on Thursday Sept. 10 at 3 p.m. for their regular session. The President, Mrs. L.W. Saunders presided and led the devotional period which opened with the hymn "I know not what the future hath," followed by scripture reading and prayer. A short business period followed, the various secretaries giving their reports. Mrs. Bustin read a timely and thought-provoking letter from Miss Louise Calbeck, Presbyterian temperance and Christian citizenship Secretary urging that the temperance study course be adopted. Mrs. Allison Tait, Presbyterian literature secretary then reviewed the study books for the year. She said they contained a wealth of information and advised the auxiliary to form several study groups for more careful study and meditation. Mrs. Tait then gave a most comprehensive resume of her ten days at Berwick Camp. Her vivid portrayal of the 82nd session in these hallowed surroundings was most informative, interesting and inspirational. The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction. Collection for the evening amounted to $105.

Gaudet, two city residents were fined $75 and costs each for operating motor vehicles while their faculties were impaired by alcohol. A city resident who failed to stop at a stop sign at Broadbent was fined $5 and costs or 10 days and a resident of Tracadie for running an overloaded cab near Dunstons was fined $1 and costs or five days. A speeder from Summerside was fined $10 and costs or 10 days as was also one from West Royalty for a similar offence. A resident of Milton was fined $20 and costs or 30 days for having intoxicating liquor in a place other than his residence, and for being intoxicated in a public place. Gives Outline Of Progress In Scout Movement

The progress made in all Provinces by the Boy Scout movement was emphasized yesterday by Mr. R. C. Stevenson, O.B.E., C.A., who is in the city for the first time to attend the annual convention of the Provincial Superintendents of Insurance. Mr. Stevenson made mention of the splendid welcome extended here to Maj. Gen. D. C. Spry who is retiring from his post here to take over the direction of the International Bureau of Scouting with headquarters in London, England. He pointed out that when Gen. Spry came to Scout Headquarters in Canada the membership was approximately 97,000 and on his leaving it had risen to 150,000. He stated that the general was now going to a most important position as Scouting is very active in 57 different countries and has a world membership of over 5 million. The visitor was highly pleased with the progress of the movement in Canada and was particularly enthused over the showing in Prince Edward Island. He wished to express his appreciation to the officers of the Provincial organization for their exceptional co-operation with those in command of the Canada-wide organization. Mr. Stevenson was particularly grateful for the support local Scout and Club leaders had given him as chairman of the executive committee while they were delegates at meetings in various parts of Canada.

In closing, Mr. Stevenson said he wished to express his confidence that the Scout movement in Canada would continue to progress and he felt assured beyond doubt of the continuing co-operation of Scouting officials in Prince Edward Island. He also made particular note of the high quality of Scouting here and he believed this was largely due to the unswerving loyalty of Scout and Club Masters who were giving so much of their time and knowledge to teach boys in the Scouting way they should go.

Landry-Bryenton Wedding

A pretty fall wedding took place in St. Dunstan's Basilica on September 12, when Margaret Geraldine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Lea, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Joseph Anthony Landry, son of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Landry, Halifax, N. S. The marriage ceremony and Nuptial Mass was celebrated by Rev. Francis Corcoran. The soloist, Francis MacPhail, was accompanied by Mrs. Joseph Dougan as organist. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of lace. The fitted taffeta lined bodice was designed with long sleeves coming to points over the wrists, a small stand-up collar and was buttoned down the front with small lace covered buttons. The skirt was bouffant and designed with tiers of lace flouncing. Her fingertip veil was of tulle illusion flowing from a tiara of matching lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of white shasta mums. The bride was attended by Misses Patricia Soper and Joyce Priddy as maid of honor and bridesmaid respectively. Their floor length gowns were fashioned of rust and green tulle taffeta with matching headresses. They carried nosegays of rust and yellow mums. The groom was attended by Don MacNeill of Grace Bay. The ushers were John Landry and Jack Grey, brother and brother-in-law of the groom. The bride's mother wore a pale blue dress with navy accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations. The groom's mother wore a beige dress with green accessories. Her corsage was of yellow mums. Following the wedding a reception was held at The Charlottetown Hotel. The toast to the bride was proposed by Dr. W. H. Soper, uncle of the bride, responded to by the groom. The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake, with a rust mums and white tapers.

Good Cucumber Crop This Season

Indications are that the cucumber growers of this province will experience one of the best seasons since the growing of that crop on the Island became prevalent a few years ago. Due to such a rainy summer, the plants did not develop quite so rapidly as was noted during other years. The last spell of reasonably dry weather however has brought them to maturity very quickly. The crop this year is thus far, entirely free from spot rot and mosaic, and it is hoped that the danger from these diseases has passed. The hurricane of a week ago did little damage to the cucumber crop, except to knock off a good many blossoms. The only result of this is to delay the cucumbers from maturing earlier. A nemesis of the cucumber crop has always been early frost, and growers are keeping their fingers crossed in this respect. Mr. Gordon, manager of Matthew and Wells, states that he received cucumbers last year as late as October 12th. He remarks that although they have had a bigger volume of cukes in other years, the quality and grade of this season is unsurpassed.
