Whim Road Farm Forum Meets

On November 24 the members of the Whim Road Farm Forum met at the home of Mr. Lester MacDonald. As it was a review night, for the first series of topics of the 1952-53 season, there was no discussion.

The secretary of the forum, Mr. William Finlayson, invited the group to his home for the next meeting. There were 12 members present at this meeting on December 1st, and all engaged in a lively discussion of the topic, 'Why Price Supports?'

The following questions for discussion, the forum submitted their answers: Question one asked for the views of the groups on this statement, 'Farm prices should be left to the open market'. The reply was in the negative. Some members felt that some other means than floor prices and subsidies should be used to control markets.

After discussion, it was decided that both floor prices and subsidies, together with other methods such as quota systems, had a place in controlling markets.

To question 2: 'Does the consumer, as well as the producer, benefit in a farm price support program?' The answer was in the affirmative. It was pointed out that the greater amount of purchasing power assured to the farmers by a support program would make for greater prosperity in the community as a whole.

The support price would also help to supply produce to the markets in a steadier flow at more reasonable price levels than would be the case if prices were allowed to fluctuate as they most certainly would on a wide open market.

To question 3: 'Do efficient farmers need price support?' The forum felt that the more efficient the farmer was, the less need he would have for price supports, but that price supports helped to increase his efficiency.

Mr. Robert Campbell invited the group to his home for the next meeting.

It is here that Christian education can save us, individually and nationally," he said in a speech prepared for delivery.

It was in this field of teaching which Laval had served so long and so well, sending out graduates with the qualities of tolerance and patience and steadiness and integrity.

Education based on the humanities also teaches us to beware of glib and easy solutions for complicated and difficult problems. I hope I may be pardoned for adding that as my experience in the field of international affairs increases, I become more and more conscious of the value of this caution.

The temptation "to forget fundamentals, to replace thoughts by impulse as the source of action, and to insist that there must always be a quick, categorical and clean-cut answer to every question is particularly strong on this continent."

Former Prime Minister Mackenzie King once had told him that in history "more good has been done and more progress achieved by preventing wrong actions than doing right ones."

Canada's growth was made more solid by the deep roots it had in French traditions and its national unity was strengthened and given a richer meaning by diversity.

He hoped that Canadians would learn as Canada moves ahead "to cling to the things that, in spite of all changes, remain eternally righteous and without which movement is merely being carried by a rushing stream and progress, merely movement."

New Perth Man Injured While At Work In Woods

Mr. Oswald Collins, New Perth, was taken to the King's County Hospital yesterday as a result of an accident when his horse fell on him while he was taking lumber from his woods to his farm.

The horse Mr. Collins was driving became excited while crossing a swampy area, and turned almost around on the narrow roadway.

Mr. Collins, who is 70 years of age, was trapped in the narrow triangle of the front hitching section of the wagon, where the horse fell on him injuring his chest severely.

He was taken to the hospital where he received immediate medical attention. His condition last evening was described as improving slightly.

Hampton and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Melville Bell have returned from an enjoyable trip to Boston, combining business with pleasure.

Mrs. Edwin Bell and young daughter, have returned from an enjoyable visit among relatives and friends in Cavendish.

Miss Betty MacDonald, assistant p. m. at Bonshaw, made a brief week-end visit to relatives and friends in Hampton.

Mrs. George Villett, has as her welcome week-end guest, Miss Basler from Summerside.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey MacEachern and children were among the welcome week-end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Marchison MacEachern.

Church attendance at the various churches throughout the field on Sunday, November 30th, was unusually good and "The Word" in sermon and song received a close hearing.

Mr. John MacDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon MacDonald, has arrived home for a brief holiday period, from his duties in the Province of Newfoundland, where he has been employed for a number of months. While visiting relatives and friends, he will be the guest of his parents.

A full house greeted local talent, and participated in the beautiful luncheon held in DeSable Lodge Rooms on Friday evening, November 28th, provided by the W. A. of DeSable Church in aid of church improvements.

It is pleasing to learn that the change of damp chilly weather, to that of clear frost, has had a beneficial effect upon the cases of sickness prevailing in many families throughout the district.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie MacNevin are now residing in Somerville, Mass., where they are enjoying an extended visit among relatives and friends, and will return to resume their occupation at their home in Argyle Shore in the springtime.

On Saturday evening, November 20th, Santa Claus made his appearance at Waddell Bros. store to be greeted by a packed audience consisting of young and old, children in the majority, accompanied by their parents. A well-stocked toy department soon became depleted, and happy hearted kiddies bade Santa "Au Revoir, till we meet again."

A large gathering of relatives and friends, and neighbors, converged on the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher MacEachern, Rice Point, on Friday evening, November 28th, to do them honour, and wish them all good wishes for many more years of happy married life, as they celebrated at this time, the 25th milestone on life's journey. Following a beautiful supper, and an enjoyable evening's entertainment, all guests departed, with expressions of best wishes and the desire to meet again under similar circumstances.

Funeral services in the churches on Sunday afternoon for the late Mrs. C. E. Lowther and for the late Mrs. Jabez Lea, were very largely attended by relatives and friends of these two widely known and highly respected lady residents of Crapaud and Victoria, each of whom had been active in church, school, and community work for many years, and had passed the four score milestone on life's journey. Services for Mrs. Lowther were conducted at St. John's Church and Cemetery by the Rev. G. R. F. Ebsary, and for Mrs. Lea, at Victoria United Church and Tryon Cemetery by the Rev. Mr. Baxter and the Rev. T. H. B. Somers.

SALVAGE RAILS LONDON — (CP) — London's change from street-cars to motor buses now is complete. In the next few months some 40,000 tons of steel will be recovered by the removal of the abandoned trap-way tracks.

U. K. imports from U. S. for the 19 months ended last June totalled 1,234,700 bushels. Imports from Canada totalled 1,011,800. Canada's total crop in 1951 amounted to 12,800,000 bushels.

"Increasing competition from U. S. apples may be expected in the future," said Mr. Marshall. "Under the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, the preference accorded to Commonwealth apples was abolished during the period Aug. 16-April 15 when entry is free."

"This, with an export subsidy, enabled the U. S. to capture the second largest share of the market in 1952. The comparative prices realized indicate that the U. S. apples will offer the Canadian grower his most serious competition. For comparable grades, U. S. apples in some instances realized slightly more per box than similar Canadian varieties."

Mr. Marshall noted that before Britain closed her doors, the U. S. got a bigger share of the U. K. apple market than did Canada.

2. Take steps to increase the number of doctors, dentists and nurses—which he said were necessary to a health scheme—by scholarships or other means.

Mr. MacInnis and Douglas Harkness (PC-Calgary East) appealed for removal of the means test on pensions for the blind.

Mr. Harkness criticizing government farm policy, said it "would appear to be the deliberate policy of this government to destroy the hog industry."

Government floor prices for hogs now were so low the farmer couldn't make a profit. He would be taking an even bigger loss when the floor was reduced next January.

The government should slap a quota on imports of Cuban refined sugar to protect the Canadian sugar beet industry.

New Rate Hearing To Open Monday

By John LeBlanc OTTAWA, Dec. 9 (CP) — A new freight rate increase sought by the railways to meet expected higher wage costs will be opposed by a group of provincial governments on two main grounds.

These are: 1. That the railways' application to the Board of Transport Commissioners for a nine-per-cent rate boost is premature.

2. That any increase should not be on a flat percentage basis across the board but should allow exceptions for certain types of traffic.

All provinces except Ontario and Quebec will oppose the increase, which the railways applied for Nov. 28 on accepting the majority report of a conciliation board recommending a 16-cents-an-hour wage increase for their 144,000 non-operating employees.

The provinces will open fire on the $2,000,000-a-year rate application when hearings start before the Transport Board next Monday.

Preliminary submissions filed by some of them indicate that their "premature" argument will be based on the fact that the railways and their unions have not yet signed a wage agreement to replace the one that expired last Sept. 1.

Tough Competition For Canadian Apples In U. K.

OTTAWA, Dec. 9 (CP) — A federal trade official says that even if Britain throws her import doors wide open, Canadian producers will have a tough time recapturing their traditional apple market overseas.

D. A. Bruce Marshall, Canadian commercial secretary at London, says there will be many complications, but among the most serious will be "increasing competition" from the United States.

His views were contained in the current issue of "Foreign Trade," the official weekly publication of the Federal Trade Department.

Britain, for a number of years, made large purchases of apples in both Canada and the U. S., but in the latter part of this year halted imports from the dollar countries because of a dollar shortage.

"Increasing competition from U. S. apples may be expected in the future," said Mr. Marshall. "Under the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, the preference accorded to Commonwealth apples was abolished during the period Aug. 16-April 15 when entry is free."

MacArthur Asked For Korean Plan

By Don Whitehead BOARD USS HELENA EN ROUTE TO HAWAII, Dec. 9 (AP) — President-elect Eisenhower has exchanged cables with Gen. Douglas MacArthur and has asked for MacArthur's plan for ending the Korean war.

James C. Hagerty, Eisenhower's press secretary, told correspondents aboard this cruiser bound for Hawaii:

"Since Gen. Eisenhower left Korea, he has exchanged cables with General MacArthur. Of course, the President-elect wants Gen. MacArthur's views and thinking on Korea."

Asked if MacArthur has yet submitted his plan, Hagerty replied: "He did not. It was an exchange of cables."

MacArthur said in a speech last Friday before the National Association of Manufacturers that he had such a plan but would give it to Eisenhower only if the President-elect asked for it.

It is understood that when this news reached Eisenhower, he sent a message to MacArthur in New York City expressing a deep interest in the plan.

Mystery Blast Wrecks Bus

LOUISEVILLE, Que. Dec. 9 (CP) — A mysterious blast, believed to have been caused by dynamite, wrecked an unoccupied bus early today as tension increased in a lingering strike of 500 workers at the Associated Textiles Limited.

No one was injured in the blast, which blew out about 200 windows in nearby buildings and caused damage estimated at $4,000.

Police said the bus, a sales demonstration model bearing Ontario licence plates and bound for Quebec, had nothing to do with the strike. They suggested strikers may have thought it was to be used by police simply because the driver was seen talking to police while asking the way yesterday.

The vehicle was parked overnight on a street in this town, about 10 miles from Three Rivers, when the explosion occurred about 2 a. m. EST.

Meantime, workers hired in recent months at the textile plant found 200 picketers around it today when they arrived for work. One man, O'Brien Grenier, was arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace by blocking the street.

The increase in tension followed announcement that talks aimed at ending the strike, which began last March, had failed.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear Husband,

H. LODGE BIRT Peakes Station, P. E. I. who passed away December 10th, 1949.

I have lost my life's companion, A life linked with my own, And day by day I miss you more As I walk through life alone.

I often stand beside your grave, With heart still crushed and sore, And seem to hear your dear voice say, Not dead—just gone before.

I miss you Lodge, and always will Your vacant place no one can fill. Down here I mourn, but not in vain For up in Heaven some day we'll meet again.

Sadly Missed and Lovingly Remembered by His Wife.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our Father,

H. LODGE BIRT, Peakes Station, P. E. I. who passed away December 10th, 1949.

In a graveyard softly sleeping, Close beside a country road, Lies the one we love so dearly, Gone from us to his abode.

Dearest Father thou has left us Thy sufferings are now o'er, At thy dear old home no longer Can we gather as before.

Our hearts still ache with loneliness Our eyes shed many a tear, God alone knows how we miss you, As it ends another year.

Lovingly Remembered by His Family.

Mr. James Mills To Observe 100th Birthday

"A pleasing incident took place on Sunday, December 7th, at the regular morning service of the Annandale United Baptist Church. During the period of the announcements the officiating minister Rev. E. J. Barras, reminded the congregation that Deacon James Mills, Little Pond, who for 70 years had been a valued member of the church, would on Friday, December 12th, celebrate his 100th birthday.

Following the remarks of the minister it was moved by Mr. Roy Howlett and seconded by Mr. John Jenkins that the church extend to Deacon James Mills its heartfelt congratulations on his approaching 100th birthday and its very best wishes for his continued health and strength in the years that may yet be his.

This resolution passed unanimously by a standing vote of the congregation. Following the service the pastor went to the home of Deacon Mills to pass on to him the unanimous vote of the church and found him in well high perfect health and reading the latest issue of "The Maritime Baptist," without the aid of glasses.

series of deportation orders going out this year as they were tracked down.

Meanwhile, two employees on the Montreal staff resigned and one was fired; one official in Rome and one in Karlsruhe were fired.

It was understood the Immigration and Justice Departments have not yet finally decided whether the court charges will be those of bribery under the Immigration Act or conspiracy under the Criminal Code.

According to information made public earlier, some Canadian farmers were used as purported potential employers of immigrants wanting to come to Canada.

Agents of a Montreal travel agency paid them $50 or $100 to sponsor the "farmhands."

In Italy and Germany, it was alleged employees gave visas to persons who did not submit to the usual immigration tests. At Montreal, it was claimed employees expedited the entry of the favored immigrants.

No action is being taken against the man alleged to have been involved in the German end of the racket, it was learned, because he has not returned to Canada after resigning his job.
