O'Leary and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. George Bernard, of O'Leary have returned home from an enjoyable visit at Hunter's River.

Mrs. L. G. Dewar has returned to O'Leary on Friday after attending the funeral of a relative in Moncton.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Webb and Mr. Elmer Knollin of Howland are visiting in Bellisle Creek, N. B. They are expected to return home about Friday of this week.

The Brae United Church Young Peoples Union held a pleasant evening on Thursday at the Coleman Hall when an evening of National Film Board films was shown to a large audience. The collection was for the Missionary and Maintenance Fund of the Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Therin Ellis (nee Miss Shirley Gorrill) have returned from an enjoyable visit to Mulgrave, N. S. where they were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. George Fraser (nee Miss Norma Campbell of O'Leary). Dr. and Mrs. Fraser are newly-weds, being married in August of this year.

Mrs. W. G. Dickson and Mrs. Herbert Vatcher and the following G. S. of the O'Leary Canadian Girls in Training attended the C. G. I. T. Conference in Kennington United Church on Saturday Nov. 18th.—Sherla Ellis, Lillias MacGregor, Susanne Wedge and Betty MacKinnon.

The Unionvale and the Knutsford Women's Institutes held two very successful Pantry Sales in O'Leary on Saturday, Nov. 18th. One was held in Jelly's Dept. store and the other in the Co-Op store, both in O'Leary. The lovely articles on display soon found ready purchasers.

The annual chicken supper of the Knutsford Baptist congregation was held on Tuesday evening, Nov. 21 in the new Legion Hall in O'Leary. Despite inclement weather the supper was very largely patronized and the ladies served very appetizing meals. Proceeds were for the Baptist Church.

A beautiful family monument has just been installed by Mr. Russell Rogers in the Brae United Church cemetery. It is a thing of beauty and makes a worthy addition to the appearance of God's Acre where so many of the pioneers of the Church and the community are resting.

Miss Mildred Delaney who has spent the past several months at her home in Brae, has left for Montreal and Toronto where she will visit relatives and also where she will be employed. During her stay at home she was an active member of the Brae United Church Young Peoples Union.

Rev. Quincy Stairs of the Pentecostal Church in Charlottetown conducted a service on Monday night Nov. 20th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Cameron, O'Leary. He was the guest that night of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dignan of Woodstock. Mrs. Dignan has been a frequent contributor to the Pentecostal program heard over CFCY Charlottetown on Saturday mornings.

Prince Edward Island is certainly having very mild weather during the usual blustery and cold month of November. Miss Alice Boyles of West Devon says that the poplar trees near her home are in bud and that pussy willows are bursting out everywhere. The warm weather is a boon to the farmers as the cattle may be still let out to pasture and it is a big saving on fuel.

Last week the ratepayers of Howland School section held a very successful supper in St. Anthony's Hall in aid of the Howland school. It was very largely patronized and a fine supper was held and a most encouraging amount was realized for the use of the Howland school, which has recently had a great deal of improvement and renovations. It is now one of the finest school sections in the district and is a distinct credit to the people.

Mr. Robert McNaught, Carleton Lot 6 celebrated his eightieth birthday on Sunday, November 19th. Members of his family who were living close by attended a special dinner, and he was congratulated by members of the Brae and West Devon United Church congregations and their minister, Rev. W. G. Dickson. Among the members of his family who were unable to be present were his sons Mr. Watson MacNaught, M. P. Parliamentary Assistant to the Minister of Fisheries who is with a party of government officials visiting in Australia and New Zealand and another son, Rev. Roy MacNaught who is stationed in San Salvador in Central America. Mr. MacNaught's legion of friends wish him God's richest blessing and many more happy birthdays.

COCA-COLA AT YOUR PARTY

There was a very successful "Pot-luck" supper on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Colin MacKay in Coleman. It was very largely patronized and the proceeds were for the Coleman Church of Scotland. The ladies served a bountiful supper with plenty of good things of all descriptions.

On Wednesday afternoon Nov. 15th the funeral service for the late Mrs. Fraser MacPhee who passed away in Brae at the home of her son Curtis was held. It was very largely attended by friends, neighbors and loved ones and was conducted by her Minister Rev. W. G. Dickson who brought a comforting message on the words "For me to live is Christ: to die is gain". A fine solo was sung by Mrs. Watson Silliker of O'Leary. Interment was in Brae United Church cemetery. Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved.

A "Hymn Festival" is planned for Dec. 17th in the O'Leary United Church. This was one of three hymn festivals which was suggested by Rev. L. M. Murray of Kennington who conducted a very successful Organists and Choir Members school in the O'Leary United Church on Monday Nov. 13th. The other two suggested was one for the Alberton area and one for the Bideford-Tyne Valley area. In O'Leary it is expected that the following choirs will participate:—Knutsford Baptist; The Church of England at O'Leary Corner; the Bloomfield United and the O'Leary United.

Among those from O'Leary who attended the opening of the new United Church at Borden on Sunday Nov. 19th were Mr. and Mrs. John Morhead. The guest speaker was Rev. Dr. W. S. Godfrey of Sackville, N. B. Superintendent of Missions and President of the Maritime Conference of the United Church of Canada. Rev. L. M. Murray of Kennington was the speaker in the afternoon. Various Ministers assisted at the services. The minister Rev. W. B. Crowe and his congregations are to be complimented on their fine new church edifice.

The Brae Young People's Union of the United Church met on Monday night November 20th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oulton. Plans were made for attendance at the Western Young Peoples Rally which will be held in the Alberton United Church on Wednesday afternoon and evening Nov. 22nd. At this fall rally the Brae Y. P. U. will give the evening devotion. The worship service was conducted by the Vice President Mrs. F. W. MacLeod. The organist was Mrs. Mort Casey. The study was "The Church" and was given by the minister, Rev. W. G. Dickson. There were twenty-two present. The minutes were read by the secretary Mrs. Lorne MacNevin. After the meeting was concluded by the Missaph Benediction, delicious refreshments were served.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Emma MacPhee was held from her home in Brae last Wednesday and was conducted by her minister Rev. W. G. Dickson. Favorite hymns were sung and a solo "Will the Circle be unbroken" was sung by Mrs. Watson Silliker. The pallbearers were: Horace MacNevin, Lorne MacNevin, Fred MacKinnon, Warren Leard, Joshua McArthur, Lorne MacLean. The interment was in the Brae cemetery beside her husband who predeceased her over twenty years ago. Left to mourn are her two daughters, Mrs. William MacDonald of the Locke Road; Mrs. Kenneth Ellis, O'Leary and one son Curtis at Brae besides four grandchildren and eight sisters: Mrs. John Murphy, McNeill's Mills; Mrs. James Blair, Truro; Mrs. Harry MacKinnon, Brae; Mrs. Allan McNevin, Coleman; Mrs. Waldron Leard, Coleman; Mrs. Thomas MacKinnon, McNeill's Mills; Mrs. Hesi MacGregor, Portage; Mrs. Alton MacCullough, of Truro. Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved.

The West Prince Ministerial Association met in Bideford on Monday afternoon Nov. 20th at the home of Rev. R. H. and Mrs. Baxter. The devotions were led by Rev. Mr. Wilcox the new minister of the Nazarene Church in Elmisdale who spoke on "Jesus of Nazareth, a great friend." The speaker pointed out that Jesus is always a friend to the friendless, to the suffering and to the sinful. The members then enjoyed a splendid discussion on a variety of topics including: Faith Healing, Sacrament of Holy Communion, the great need of an adequate faith etc. Preliminary plans were made for the Week of Prayers services which will be the first full week of the New Year. The minutes were read by the secretary Rev. W. G. Dickson and were adopted. The next meeting, the last before the spring which will be held about the middle of April or later will be on Monday December 4th in O'Leary and the members will be the guests of Rev. W. G. Dickson. Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. R. H. Baxter then served delicious refreshments to the ministers and present and hearty vote of thanks was extended to her and to Rev. Mr. Baxter who is the President of the West Prince Ministerial Association for their hospitality and for the refreshments. The West Prince Ministerial Association embraces all the Protestant Ministers in West Prince. Present at the meeting were: Rev. P. A. Fitzpatrick and Rev. G. B. Cunningham of Alberton; Rev. Mr. Wilcox and Rev. J. M. Sheen of Elmisdale; Rev. W. G. Dickson of O'Leary; Rev. R. H. Baxter of Bideford.
