The Giants Collapse

IF San Francisco Giants win the National League pennant this season, those comeback teams of 1951 and 1962 are going to look like pikers.

Right now the Giants are going a breeze—in reverse— and their hopes of retaining the senior circuit flag are dim indeed. They are in anything but good shape as they enter this final month of league play.

At the moment, it doesn't look as though the Giants can finish any higher than third. They trail league-leading Los Angles Dodgers by nine and one-half lengths and are three and one-half paces behind those amazing St. Louis Cardinals.

Indeed it is questionable if the Giants will finish in the first division. At the time of writing, sixth-place Chicago and Cincinnati (they are tied) are one and one-half lengths back.

THE Giants collapse is the talk of the baseball world and there will be many explanations put forth to show the cause. Of late their hitting has been poor and their pitching mediocre. That's not exactly the kind of a combination that's needed to get into a world series.

Last Thursday, the Giants and their supporters were talking confidently on the eve of their big four-game series with the Dodgers. The spread was five and one-half games and a sweep by the Giants would close the gap to one and one-half lengths. That series is over and the Giants lost it 3-1. Indeed Dodgers nearly made the sweep. They led 3-1 in the seventh of the third game and it took Giants 12 innings to snare a 4-3 decision.

Monday Chicago Cubs came into windy Candlestick Park and proceeded to beat the Giants in a twin bill. It looked indeed like the final blow to San Francisco's pennant hopes. While Giants were losing two, Cardinals beat Pirates twice and Dodgers subdued Houston Colts in both ends of a twin bill.

The Amazing Cardinals

AND now it would seem that St. Louis is the only club the Dodgers need worry about the rest of the distance. The Red Birds have been playing terrific ball and are surely making Johnny Keane look great as a manager. Keane is getting the utmost out of his players and right now they are possessed with the idea that they can win the pennant. The odds are definitely against them but with their great 'win' spirit you can't discount them for a moment. When a team shows the desire that the Cardinals are exhibiting, you should never once forget that they are in the race.

Undoubtedly a large number of basefall fans would welcome the opportunity of seeing the Red Birds in a world series again. Some of the younger fry may have the idea that St. Louis never won pennants. If they scan the record books for the 1920's, 1930's and 1940's they'll find how wrong they are St. Louis had some of the most colorful clubs ever to play in a world series. Remember the great pitching of Alexander in the 1926 classic. Remember the Deans winning all four games for the Cards over the Tigers in 1934. Remember the great pitchers like Grimes, Haines, Pollet, Brecchen, Cooper just to mention a few. Then there were the Durochers, the Frischs, the Terry Moores, the Slaughters, the Musials, the Medwicks, the Walker Coopers.

Oh yes, don't let anyone ever entertain the thought that these Cardinals always were the bridesmaids. They stole the show on numerous occasions and are doing a fair job of stealing it right now. Folks surely would like to see Stan Musial in one more world series. If he doesn't make it in 1963, then he will never make it unless he is manager or coach of some pennant-winning club.

It's A Rough Road

HOWEVER, it's a tough road to the pennant for St. Louis. In front of them by six full games are those Los Angles Dodgers who of late have been getting great pitching from a staff headed by Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale. These Dodgers are determined not to blow another chance, the way they did in 1962. Their rough treatment of San Francisco last week shows how serious they are about winning this 1963 flag. They want in that world series with the Yankees. They figure they have a score to settle with the New Yorkers and there's no argument there. Only once, in 1955, did the Dodgers conquer Yankees in a fall classic.

And so it should be strictly a two-team battle the rest of the distance in this National League with the Dodgers heavy favorites to go against the Bombers in the series which opens in New York on Wednesday October 2.

SCORES WINNING TOUCHDOWN

Somewhere under this pile of players is Hamilton Tiger-Cat fullback Jamie Caleb who made a two-yard dive for the only touchdown of the game against Toronto Argonauts Monday in Hamilton. The touchdown and subsequent convert by Dave Viti came after Ti-Cat halfback Garney Henley intercepted an Argo pass and ran it back 59 yards. Hamilton won the game 7-1.

St. Louis Cardinals Edge Closer With 10-5 Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

St. Louis' high-flying Cardinals kept the pressure on in the National League race Tuesday, combining Pittsburgh errors, 10 walks and some lusty hitting for their sixth straight victory.

The Cards whipped the Pirates 10-5 and inched to within 5½ games of first-place Los Angeles Dodgers, who had a night game at home against Houston.

Another hot NL club, Milwaukee Braves, played Philadelphia in the majors' only other game under the lights.

St. Louis gave away four unearned runs to the Pirates but also scored three unearned runs. The Cards tied the game at 5-5 in the sixth on losing pitcher ElRoy Face's error, went ahead on Jim Pagliaroni's passed ball, and got another run in the inning on Bill White's double. White also counted a homer among St. Louis' 12 hits, and Tim McCarver connected with two in the eighth for the final Card burst.

Bobby Shantz was the winning pitcher with three perfect relief innings.

Marichal, 20-8, allowed all three Cub rus and four of their five hits in the first two innings and left after seven, with Billy Hoeft finishing up.

Three errors by Cub third baseman Ron Santo and six singles helped the Giants to their seven runs in the second. Orlando Cepeda, Felipe Alou and Tom Haller added home runs later.

Also in the NL, Joe Nuxhall pitched a three - hitter while Marty Keough drove in three runs with a homer and single in a 5-5 victory for Cincinnati over New York Mets.

Rookie George Smith broke a string of 11 hitless trips to the plate with a single in the 15th inning that gave Detroit a 3-2 decision over New York's American League leading Yankees. Smith's liner was only the fifth hit for the Tigers, held scoreless for 10 innings before breaking through against Bill Kunkel in the 15th on two walks and the single.

HOMERS BREAK IT UP

Jim Bunning blanked the Yanks through seven innings, but Joe Pepitone homered in the eighth and John Blanchard tied it with a homer in the ninth. Terry Fox was the winning pitcher in the four hour, seven minute affair - Detroit's fourth 15-inning game this season.

Singles by Manny Jimenez and Charley Lau and Ed Charles' sacrifice fly produced an eighth-inning run that gave Kansas City a 3-2 squeaker over Minnesota. Harmon Killebrew his his 35th homer for the Twins, with one on in the seventh for a 2-2 tie.

Lovell Coleman Is Setting Pace

REGINA (CP)—Lovell Coleman, 25-year-old import fullback with the league-leading Calgary Stampeders, has set the early pace for individual rushing honors in the Western Football Conference.

Official league statistics released Tuesday show Coleman, a 195-pounder from the University of Western Michigan, galloped for 498 yards in Stampeders' first five games.

He was 65 yards ahead of Willie Fleming, 24-year-old halfback with second-place British Columbia Lions, who had 433 yards in four games.

Coleman piled up his yardage in 104 attempts compared to 42 carries for Fleming, a five-year veteran from the University of Iowa.

The statistics are for all games through Aug. 29.

WAS TOP RECEIVER

Canadian Bobby Taylor, 24, a three - year veteran halfback with Calgary, was the top pass receiver. He caught 26 passes for 357 yards and a comfortable lead over end Farrell Funston of Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Funston, a 27-year-old graduate of the College of Pacific in his fifth year with the defending champion Blue Bombers, caught 18 passes for 226 yards.

Calgary quarterback Eagle Day, who joined Stampeders in 1961 after seeing action with Washington Redskins of the National Football League and the University of Mississippi, was the top passer. Day, 30, completed 76 of 123 attempts for 1,076 yards, four touchdowns and a percentage of 61.8.

Canadian Don Getty of Edmonton was second-best with 38 completions in 73 attempts—good for 565 yards, four touchdowns and a 52.0 completion percentage.

S'side Raceway Presents Program

Summerside Raceway presents a good looking race program tonight.

There are eight dashes on this attractive card and every race gives indications of being highly competitive. It's the kind of a program that should give the experts plenty of trouble picking winners.

The first class, dashes four and eight, find six classy pacers fighting it out. They are Echo Ridge Eddy, Lizzie Clegg, Cathy's Girl, Chet Lynn Roya, Donnaway and Princess Spangler. The Princess raced to her record last Monday night in Charlottetown and will bear plenty of watching tonight.

Races three and seven have another half dozen looking for top honors. Junior Chappell takes Mr. Duggan away on the rail the opening mile and supplying the oppoisition will be Roger Parlay, Port Hill Boy, Gliding Billy, The Gladiator and Rio Grande. Here again are the type of dashes that surely should supply the maximum in race entertainment.

Mutuel pays at Summerside Raceway have been really choice of late and there's a good chance that tonight's winners will reward their backers in the same handsome fashion.

Races get going at 8 o'clock sharp.

Argos Pick Up Sandy Stephens

TORONTO (CP)—Toronto Argonauts of the Eastern Football Conference added a fifth quarterback to their roster Tuesday when they claimed Sandy Stephens shortly after he was placed on waivers by Montreal Alouettes.

Stephens, recently suspended by Montreal when coach Jim Trimble said he refused to reduce to 210 pounds, was placed on waivers after weekend negotiations with the team by Stephens and his lawyer, Sam Greenblatt.

Toronto purchased Stephens for the waiver price of $350. He is due in Toronto today to discuss a contract with his new team.

Argonaut coach Nobby Wirkowski said Tuesday night he doesn't know what he'll do with Stephens. "I have no ideas yet," he said, but agreed with Argo general manager Lew Hayman that Stephens has a lot of football talent. He didn't rule out Stephens as a possible halfback.

If he signs a contract, and Hayman said he expects no problems, Stephens will join a team rich in quarterback depth. The others are Jackie Parker, Don Fuell, Lynn Amadee and Dick Norman.

However Stephens, as well as Parker and Fuell, is not confined to playing quarterback. Cleveland Browns of the National Football League, who had him on their negotiation list, had intended to try Stephens as a running halfback.

Hamilton Tiger - Cat coach Ralph Sazio, who feels that Stephens will definitely help the Argos, said Tuesday night that "he could be the big fullback the Argos are looking for."

Toronto, which has floundered this season while losing four of its first five games, hopes Stephens can add zest to the team's attack. Hayman and Wirkowski feel he can, and Sazio agrees.

"I think he could step in right now and play quarterback for Toronto," he said in Hamilton.

Sazio thinks Stephens and Parker could operate well in the same backfield, either one playing at halfback or quarterback. "They complement each other," he said.

STARRED AT MINNESOTA

Stephens, an all-America at quarterback with the University of Minnesota, came to Montreal for the 1962 season, trying to fill the shoes of Sam Etcheverry who went to the NFL.

He had a hot-and-cold record last season and was at the controls when the Als were thumped in their first two games this season. Since his suspension, they have won twice under quarterback Bubba Marriott.

Trimble said Stephens was suspended because he refused to get his weight down, but Stephens said this was just an excuse to get rid of him.

Argo publicity director Ken Brown said he talked to Stephens on the phone after he was acquired by Toronto. "He wants to play football," said Brown. "He'll even run back kicks, he told me."

There has been no explanation as yet on the agreement reached between Stephens and the club on the remainder of his three year contract, which expires after the 1964 season.

Hayman explained that Argos paid only the $350 waiver price and will not have to purchase Stephens' hefty salary from Montreal. The three-year contract was believed to have been for at least $100,000.

"We have no obligations at all as far as his previous arrangements were with the Montreal team," said Hayman. "We will simply deal with him as we would with any newcomer."

He indicated the Argos were pleased with the opportunity to give Stephens a try.

"He's just a young boy, turning 23. We think he has potential and we want to have a look at him."

Mt. Stewart Into Finals

Mount Stewart beat Cardigan 8-3 Sunday to end their King's County Baseball League semi-final round.

Art Coffin was the winning pitcher. He fanned 13 and allowed eight hits.

MacIntyre worked for the losers. He yielded 14 base knocks and struck out 10.

Mount Stewart led 4-0 after four innings, scoring one run in each inning. After a scoreless seventh and eighth, Mount Stewart scored four in the ninth to put the game out of reach.

Top batters of the day for Cardigan were Andy Gardiner with three for four and Lawrence McIntyre two for four.

Mount Stewart's top sluggers were Gary Clark 3 for 5, M. Crane, R. Mitchell, E. Handrahan, F. Handrahan and E. Crane all two for five.

Lyman McInnis was plate umpire at the Cardigan-Mount Stewart game.

MacLean Hurls No-Hitter As Stars Crush Dodgers

Donnie MacLean pitched a five-inning no-hitter last night as the Stars crushed the Dodgers 12-0.

The game was halted due to darkness after the fifth inning was completed to give the Stars their victory. They will now advance into the finals against the Rovers for the City Baseball League Championship.

MacLean hurled almost perfect ball as he only allowed two walks while striking out six.

The closest thing to a safe hit was a hard ground ball hit by Wayne MacDougall that went between first baseman Allan Connelly's legs. It was ruled an error.

Len Ellsworth started the game for the Dodgers but only lasted one period of an inning. Pat Sherran was then called in to relieve him but the Stars soon had him out of there too. He went two and one third innings. Jack Kane finished up the remaining two and one third innings.

The Stars collected eight hits off their combined offerings but this combined with eight walks, three errors and seven stolen bases resulted in a large amount of runs that crossed the plate.

Shortstop Joe Gallant had two singles in three tries while centrefielder Emmett Ellsworth picked up a double and a single in two appearances to lead the winners attack.

The Stars scored nine times in the first frame and added three more markers in the third inning to round out the scoring.

McKinley Still Going Strong

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—Top - seeded Chuck McKinley carried his aching back past another pole Tuesday as a spindly legged California collegian and a darkhorse schoolboy from Brazil blew two big holes in the seeded ranks of the U.S. tennis championships.

McKinley, hitting harder, moving better and occasionally unleashing his murderous service, cut down Alexander Wood, an intense South African, in a match played in swirling. gusty wind, 6-1, 6-4, 8-6.

Chuck ripped a back muscle in his first match last Saturday.

The day's upsets came off the flashing rackets of Dave Sanderlin, 20-year-old student at UCLA in Los Angeles, and Thomas Koch, an 18-year-old schoolboy from Porto Alegre, Brazil.

Koch stunned a large gallery hanging on the green fences of one of the outside courts by beating seventh-seeded Eugene Scott of St. James, N.Y., just named to the U.S. Davis Cup squad, 4-6, 6-4, 6-3, 6-4.

The skinny Sanderlin, No. 4 player on the potent UCLA team, whipped 30-year-old Ham Richardson, Davis Cup stalwart of a few years ago, and seeded No. 8, 1-6, 8-6, 4-6, 6-3, 6-3.
