

Kiesinger Backs France In United Europe Policy

CHANCELLOR Kurt Kiesinger said his new West German government plans to work with France for a united Europe.

But he told the Bundestag (lower house) both the West German government and that President de Gaulle of France believe solid ties between a united Europe and the United States are indispensable.

"We are convinced that the economic and political union of Europe is as much in the interest of the United States as it is in the interest of the European peoples," Kiesinger said in his introductory speech.

The co-operation between Germany and France that we desire is not directed against any other nation. It is the result of a policy whose goal is a union of Europe. (Such a policy) is indispensable if Europe is to become a responsible partner.

The decisive role for the future of Europe revolves on the development of German-French relations.

Kiesinger, two weeks ago succeeded Ludwig Erhard as chancellor at the head of a coalition of his Christian Democratic Party and Willy Brandt's Social Democrats.

He also stressed West Germany's close association with the U.S.

His government will work toward strengthening and further developing ties with the U.S. within and outside the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The United States has been drawn into commitments on all continents since the Second World War "almost against its will," he said.

"We should not forget this, and consider how we take over responsibility for the preservation of a world peace more decisively than hitherto."

VIETNAM NOT MENTIONED
He did not mention the war in Vietnam.

The keystone of Kiesinger's statement was that his government wishes to work with France under the French-German co-operation treaty which Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and de Gaulle signed in January, 1963. Under Adenauer, who succeeded Adenauer in October, 1963, the two countries drifted apart.

Kiesinger stressed that, unlike France, West Germany has no wish to become a nuclear power.

Kiesinger also promised to improve and develop relations with Israel and expressed hope that diplomatic relations with the Arab states can be resumed.

"We would especially welcome the participation of Britain and other countries of the European Free Trade Association in the European community (such as the Common Market). We want to develop and deepen progressively our relations with Britain."

Canada's Wheat Drive Shifting To Geneva

LONDON (CP) — Canada's campaign for a better deal on wheat exports shifts at least temporarily to trade talks in Geneva following a decision by the International Wheat Council to postpone action on a new price agreement.

The 49-nation council completed its semi-annual review session Tuesday after deciding to give Geneva negotiators another chance to produce a wider agreement covering trade in all cereal grains under the General Agreement Tariffs and Trade.

The present wheat agreement, drawn up in 1962 for three years, has been extended twice for a year while awaiting progress in the Kennedy round of GATT negotiations, which aims to get freer trade in both food and manufactured products.

Deadline for completion of the American-inspired Kennedy round is next June 30. The International Wheat Agreement expires one month later.

One council source said that if a satisfactory Geneva agreement appeared to be emerging, the council would meet again early in the spring when it should be known whether a GATT cereals agreement is likely to emerge in time to replace the expiring wheat treaty.

However, Canada agreed with the United States and others that it would be unwise to attempt negotiating agreements in both Geneva and London at the same time.

Failure by GATT to reach agreement in the next few months would leave the wheat council little time to negotiate a new pact. Canada is opposed to further extension of the present wheat agreement.

GRANDMA

POOR GRANDMA IS ALL BENT OVER... BUT SHE'S BEEN WORKING TOO HARD AGAIN.

WE CAN STOP BY TOMORROW... LET HER REST TODAY.

H-M... WHERE ARE THEY GOING?

I WAS GONNA ASK 'EM TO HELP ME LOOK FOR THE QUARTER I LOST A FEW MINUTES AGO.

SEE... IT SHOULD TOTAL $180 INSTEAD OF $195... RIGHT?

I'M SORRY, MY MISTAKE, SISTER...

ALSO, THREE COINS AT 10¢ SHOULD BE 48¢ NOT 54¢... RIGHT, I'LL BRING 'EM.

AID I RETURNED EIGHT SOUVENIR BOTTLES AT 5¢ EACH... THAT GIVES ME A CREDIT OF 40¢... RIGHT?

SURE, ARE YOU SURE YOUR GRANDMA'S GLASSES DON'T NEED CHECKING?

OH! YESTERDAY HE WAS TELLING ME YOU USUALLY GET 5¢ IN ARITHMETIC.
