The guarantee by the colony of the notes of the failed Newfoundland banks is justified on the ground that desperate cases need desperate remedies, and Newfoundland's case was desperate enough. The people had no currency; and without currency there can be no general trade. The action of the Legislature will give the island a medium of exchange, and so improve the situation. The terms of the law in the case of the Commercial Bank are such, however, that they will be certain to cause dissatisfaction. The guarantee only covers 20 per cent. of the face value of the notes. This is what the poor holders will receive, while there is a possibility that those who can afford to hold bills will get more by waiting for liquidation, and that will make the poor note-holders complain.

The canals were a main subject of recommendation in Governor Morton's message to the New York Legislature. The increased competing power of the railroads and the threatening competitive power of the enlarged Canadian canals, make it necessary, in Governor Morton's mind, for New York to immediately enlarge the Erie canal to a depth of nine feet, which will be three feet less than the capacity of the St. Lawrence artificial waterway. If the new canals Canada is constructing have an influence equal to the apprehension they are creating in the United States mind, things will be busy in the port of Montreal before long.

FREEMAN'S CASE.

One Particularly Interesting to Women as it Deals with Their Troubles.

LEAMINGTN, Jan. 7.—It has been a cause of wonder to many people why women will neglect the first symptoms, and continue to suffer from ill health, and from debility, when the means of relief can so readily be obtained. Before a cure can be effected the work of the kidneys must be renewed, the blood cleansed of poisonous material, and the ligaments and muscles strengthed and invigorated. The history of the case of Miss Nettie Freeman, of this village, whose life was saved by Dodd's Kidney Pills, has had one beneficial effect in that it has roused scores of other women in this locality from the false modesty they were manifesting and as a result the sales of Dodd's Kidney Pills have been enormous, and the resultant good commensurate therewith.

Vicar (severely, to his cook)—Mary, you had a soldier to supper last night.

Cook—Yes, sir, he's my brother.

Vicar—But, you told me you had no brother.

Cook—So I thought, sir, until you preached last Sunday and told us we were all brothers and sisters.

With Invalids.

Yes! with invalids the appetite is capricious and needs coaxing, that is just the reason they improve so rapidly under Scott's Emulsion, which is as platable as cream.

Chappie—Did you have a pleasant tete-a-tete with Miss Smilax?

Cholly—Stupid; I sat there all the evening and she never offered to kiss me.

Kidney Facts.

In Jan., 1892 my son was taken with Kidney disease. Though attended by three physicians, and change of climate he grew worse and by '93 had fallen from 195 lbs to 95 lbs. In 10 days from starting to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills we were able to move him home. In 4 months he gained 50 lbs. and was fully restored to health by the use of this medicine. Jno. S. Hastings, 23 St Paul St., Montreal.

Irate visitor (after a few remarks)—Well I don't want anybody to lie about me and I wont have it.

That tickling cough is instantly relieved by using Hawker's balsam of tolu and wild cherry.

Knew the sex; First tramp—Let's wait here till that picnic is over, and then go and get what they leave behind.

Second tramp (faintly)—My stummick is so empty that cake and canny 'ud make me sick.

First tramp—You wont find any of that. What they'll leave will be the roast beef and tongue, and chicken, and bread, and such things. It's a girl's picnic.

No one need pity you if you die of consumption, without having tried Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, "the kind that cures" coughs, colds, bronchitis and all pulmonary diseases Every bottle warranted. No oily taste like others. In big bottles, 50c. and $1.00, at druggists.

A Company Chair: Visitor—The maid says your mamma will soon be in, so I will wait for her. Wont you sit down and talk to me, my little man?

Little man Yes'm; I likes to talk.

Visitor—Well, take this chair by my side.

Little Man—Oh, no. That's too uncomfortable to sit in long. That's for visitors.

That stuffed up feeling in the head is instantly relieved by using Hawker's catarrh cure.

When not busy finding fault, a man is usually engaged in making suggestions.

"Why, Jimmy, my darling boy, you've got the medal for good behavior this week," said the fond mother, noting the little silver medal on her son's vest.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

N.B. TRADE MARK THE VARNISHED BOARD ON WHICH THE GOODS ARE WRAPPED.

Priestley's Dress Goods

A good name is more potent than thrones and kingdoms. In business a good name is vital. The name of Priestley is a synonym for what is delicate, durable and beautiful in Black Dress Goods. In England it is a household word. Priestley's dress fabrics are worn by the well dressed women of Great Britain, while on this side, they have attained to general favor. Ladies should buy no other black dress goods till they have seen Priestley's. They add to an unequalled durability, a beautiful draping quality. Women of taste understand what that means in the success of a costume.

See that the goods you buy are stamped "every five yards" with "Priestley's name." No others are of their manufacture.

Harper's Magazine
IN 1895.

"The Simpletons," a new novel by Thomas Hardy, will be begun in the December Number, 1894, and continued to November, 1895. Whoever may be one's favorite among English novelists, it will be conceded by all critics that Thomas Hardy stands foremost as a master artist in fiction, and "The Simpletons" may be expected to arouse enthusiasm not inferior in degree to that which has marked Trilby—the most successful story of the year. Another leading feature will be the Personal Recollections of Joan of Arc, by the Sieur Louis de Conte, her Page and Secretary under which guise the most popular of living American magazine writers will present the story of the Maid of Orleans. In the January Number will appear a profusely illustrated paper on Charleston and the Carolinas, the first of a series of Southern Papers.

Northern Africa is attracting more attention than at any other time since it was the seat of empires The next volume of Harper's Magazine will contain four illustrated articles on this region and three of them will depict the present life there. Julian Ralph will prepare for the Magazine a series of eight stories, depicting typical phases of Chinese life and manners. Besides the long stories, there will begin in the January Number the first chapters of a three-part Novelette, by Richard Harding Davis—the longest work yet attempted by this writer. Complete short stories by popular writers will continue to be a feature of the Magazine.

Send for illustrated prospectus.

The Volumes of the Magazine begin with the Numbers for June and December of each year. When no time is mentioned, subscriptions will begin with the Number current at the time of receipt of order. Cloth cases, for binding, 50 cents each—by mail, post-paid. Title page and index sent on application.

Remittances should be made by Post Office Money Order or Draft, to avoid chance of loss.
