

Failing To Stop Results In Fine

Charged with failing to stop at the scene of an accident, Vernon MacKay, Charlottelewn, was fined $50 and costs on 20 days in Queens County magistrate's court yesterday.

Magistrate James B. Johnston, QC, adjourned the case of Newton MacKay, Parkdale, charged with failing to make his books and records available for inspection, under the Unemployment Insurance Act. The case was adjourned because of the accused's illness until Wednesday, when a date for hearing will be set.

Fines of $20 and costs or 30 days each were imposed on three accused for having in their possession liquor in a place other than their respective residences.

Driver Is Fined In S'side Court

SUMMERSIDE — Ernest Warren, Summerside East, was fined $100 and costs in police court yesterday after pleading guilty to a charge of operating a motor vehicle while his ability was impaired by alcohol or a drug. The alternative was seven days in jail.

Alan Rogers, Summerside, was fined $10 and costs on a nuisance charge of "fire screeching" which occurred Saturday night around 11.15.

Magistrate Richard S. Hinton, QC, presided.

Cases Adjudged In Police Court

Winston H. MacRae, Charlottelewn, charged with assault, was remanded to April 10 with bail set at $200 by H. Bert Campbell clerk of the court, who presided in the absence of Magistrate A.J. Haslam.

Two drunk and incapable were remanded to April 10 also, without bail. For unlawfully having in his possession a quantity of liquor in a place other than his residence, another man was remanded to April 10 with bail set at $20.

A motorist was fined $5 and costs or two days for failing to stop at a stop sign, completing the docket.

Veteran Baptist Pastor Dies In New York

NEW YORK (CP)—Rev. Gordon Harrington Baker, 85, pastor of Lenox Road Baptist Church in Brooklyn and one of the oldest ministers in active service in the American Baptist Convention, died in Long Island College Hospital Sunday after a short illness.

Baker had been a prominent figure in Baptist circles in the New York metropolitan area for nearly 40 years.

He was a past president of the Protestant Ministers Conference; former board member of the New York Baptist City Society; director of the Protestant Council of New York, Brooklyn division; moderator of the Long Island Baptist Association and director of the Baptist Children Home of Brooklyn. He had served the Lenox Road church for 23 years.

A native of Tanook, N.S., he married Louise Hayden Harlow of Sable River, N.S., Sept. 19, 1900. On their 50th and 60th anniversaries the Lenox Road church celebrated the occasion with a party and reception which also honored Mr. and Mrs. William McKeachie, members of the church, who were married in Southboro, Mass., on the same day.

GRADUATED FROM ACADIA Acedia University in Wolfville, N.S., from which he was graduated in 1904, awarded him a doctorate of divinity in 1930. He also held degrees from Rochester-Colgate Divinity School and Northern Baptist Theological Seminary, Chicago.

Mr. Baker began his preaching career in 1886, while a student. He was ordained into the Baptist ministry in 1905.

He was pastor of Point St. Charles Church in Montreal 1907-09, and founder in 1907 and pastor of Temple Church, Montreal, until 1917, when he became general superintendent of the Sunday School Association of the Province of Quebec.

In 1920 he resigned to become pastor of the First Baptist Church in Schenectady, N.Y. WENT TO NEW YORK

Mr. Baker came to New York City in 1928 as pastor of the then Washington Heights Baptist Church which he served until 1932, when he entered evangelistic work. He joined the Lenox Road church in 1940.

He was one of the founders in 1925 of Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Philadelphia. He served the seminary as secretary of the board for 19 years and at the time of his death was secretary emeritus.

Besides his wife, Mr. Baker is survived by a brother Bert, Rochester, N.H., and two sons, Gilbert Harlow Baker of Manhattan, and James Harrington Baker of Jackson Heights, N.Y.

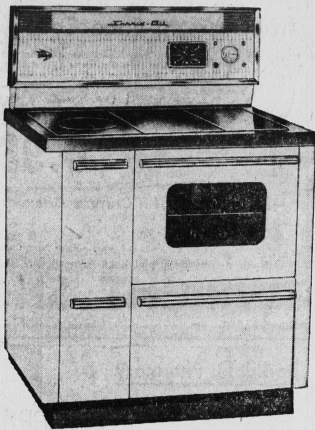

PLANT DESTROYED
MONTREAL (CP)—Fire that raged for three hours Monday night destroyed a plastics factory and catering supplies firm in north-end Montreal. Several firemen were overcome by smoke and treated at the scene. The blaze broke out in the Vibraltic Plastic Company and spread to the Newman's Banquet and Catering Supply Company.
