

Island Labor Unions Approve Merger Idea

The merger of two brother unions, the National Union of Public Employees (NUPE) and the National Union of Public Service Employees (NUPSE), was the topic under discussion at a special meeting held Saturday night at the Community Centre on Stewart Street.

All unions of the Island division of the NUPE were in attendance and gave their unanimous support to the merger proposal.

Although the NUPSE has no

Beaches Popular Over Weekend

The beaches on all sides of the Island were bright, pleasant playgrounds this weekend as a weather basked in 80 degree weather for the third straight day.

The beaches in the National Park area were especially lively as Islanders and summer visitors thronged to the warm salt water and long stretches of sand.

Traffic jams are reported to have developed in the Brackley and Stanhope areas but they were not of a serious nature.

Province are expected to be more heavily used as visitors begin to realize that the campsites in addition to those in the National Park are available and excellently equipped for their needs.

Racial violence flared in outlying provinces. Police said an East Indian was killed when a grenade exploded in his hand just as he prepared to toss it at a Chinese home. Looting of Negro homes by East Indians was reported also in the same Windsor Forest area west of Georgetown.

Ships using the St. Lawrence Seaway may travel at six miles an hour in sailing 1,400 miles into the heart of the continent.

Coalition Seen Remote Change

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana—A coalition regime appeared remote in British Guiana Sunday despite agreement by Premier Cheddi Jagan and his political foe, Forbes Burnham, to discuss their differences.

Racial violence flared in outlying provinces. Police said an East Indian was killed when a grenade exploded in his hand just as he prepared to toss it at a Chinese home. Looting of Negro homes by East Indians was reported also in the same Windsor Forest area west of Georgetown.

British Colonial Secretary Duncan Sandys flew to Georgetown last week hoping to work out a special price for the diamonds that could bring a measure of stability to the colony and pave the way for its independence.
