Gordon Bennett Elected Abegweit Club President; Annual Meeting Held

At the annual meeting of the Charlottetown Abegweit Amateur Athletic Club held at the City Hall last evening, Mr. Gordon Bennett was elected president for the coming year.

The meeting was presided over by the retiring president, Lt.-Col. W. J. MacDonald.

Other officers elected for the coming year, including four new directors for a three-year term of office, are as follows:— Vice-President—George Francis; Secretary—W. H. Beaton; Treasurer—W. E. Massey (re-elected); Directors—W. E. Massey, W. E. Scantlebury, Bert Croken and Elmer Blanchard. Making his annual report as president for the past year, Lt.-Col. MacDonald spoke of the fine history and tradition of the Abegweit Club in their support and activity in all fields of athletics. He complimented the excellent work and extensive activities carried on by the executive members and chairmen and members of the various committees during the past year.

"The Abegweit Club," he stated, "has done a wonderful job in carrying on in the field of athletic endeavour during past years, and I feel that it will continue to develop and encourage amateur sport in the same successful manner in the years to come." He thanked the Club Executive for their fine co-operation and assistance through the past year, and said he felt sure that they would extend this same co-operative spirit to the incoming president, Col. MacDonald also extended special thanks to the press for their publicity and coverage in all sporting events stating, "I don't know how we could get along without the assistance of the two local newspapers."

Following the president's report the annual reports on the Club's sporting activities were given by the committee chairmen: Hockey—Jack Kane; baseball—Bert Croken; track and field—George Walters; football—Ceren Bennett. All these reports were presented in a detailed manner that reflected much credit on the chairmen and their committees for the splendid way the various sporting activities were carried out throughout the year. The reports in themselves were proud reminders of the success that was attained by the various branches of the Charlottetown Abegweit Club in the field of amateur athletics during the past year.

The financial report, given by Club treasurer W. E. Massey, was also one that spoke well for the excellent management of Club affairs during the season and was received with much approval by the executive and the meeting in general.

At a meeting of the executive, following the adjournment of the regular meeting, Mr. Gordon Bennett was elected president for the coming year. Taking over the chair, President Bennett stated that it was "an unexpected honor to receive such an appointment to such an old and respected club as the Abegweits. It will be a new experience for me," he stated, "and I will be depending a great deal on the assistance and experience of

THE GUARDIAN, CHARLOTTETOWN

NOVEMBER 30, 1950

Hammering offensive onslaughts by the Islanders, outstanding goal tending by Les Colvin and excellent refereeing were the three predominating features of Tuesday night's game when the Islanders decidedly outplayed their Moncton Hawks opponents but had nevertheless only a 5-3 margin on the scoring. It was a game that produced plenty of action despite the fact that the Lamoureux-coached locals held the greater control of the play.

They weren't able to control the stellar game-work of Hawks' goalie Les Colvin, however, which was probably one of the reasons why the Moncton crew averted what might have been one of their worst trouncings of the season, turning aside 16 shots in the first frame, 14 in the second and 10 in the final session for a total of 40 shots on the night's play. It was nothing short of miraculous the way Colvin kept goal-hungry Islanders forwards at bay throughout three stormy sessions.

With rubber being fired at him from all angles, Colvin was picking them off in mid-air with stick, hands and feet and from the prone position was smothering and blocking pucks that were coming at him three and four in succession. Goalties often come up with such performances in one or two periods of a game, but when they do that sort of thing consistently for three frames, then one is obliged to doff the hat in respect to the goalie in question. In fact a hat did come into the picture, the one donated by Henderson and Cudmore of Charlottetown for the most outstanding player on the ice which went to Colvin for his sensational performance.

The Moncton custodian has come up with demonstrations like that in other games this season, but the fine officiating over Tuesday night's game by referee Bradshaw and linesmen Jackie Kane and Art Perry was something new to fans here this season. Everywhere one went yesterday where "post mortems" on Tuesday night's game were being held, compliments were being passed freely on the splendid and efficient way the tilt was handled.

There is good reason for these bouquets being passed around. Making his first appearance on Charlottetown ice, Bradshaw caught the fancy of the crowd right from the start of the game with the business like but impartial manner he went about his job. He was right on top of the play at all times and never missed a thing that was going on around him. Although few, when an infraction was committed he never lost any time in letting the offending player know about it in a direct and authoritative manner that left no doubt in anybody's mind as to what it was all about.

Bradshaw's frequent use of the official signals denoting icing the puck, delayed whistles and penalties, etc., not only made it easier for his two assisting linesmen Perry and Kane to carry out their duties, but gave the fans a clear picture of the particular situation which added much interest to the game. He had complete control of the game at all stages and on the one or two occasions that small on-ice incidents occurred, Bradshaw was right in the middle of the trouble and breaking it up before anything serious started. If the incident warranted a penalty, there was no uncertainty or hesitation about directing the offenders to "sinners row" post haste.

Some of his antics on the ice were also a source of amusement to some of the fans. His ability to virtually climb the wire mesh at either end of the rink when the occasion demanded it, was a feat that appealed to the fans in particular. Many believed that it was an act of self-preservation, but to those who were in a better position to see what was going on, it could readily be seen that his climbing feat was serving a less personal purpose. By pulling himself up on the screen, he was avoiding any possibility of interfering or blocking the puck which might nullify the opportunity of a player holding or regaining possession.

There were times, however, when all his decisions or actions were not approved by cash customers and players, but any referee in hockey, or in any sport for that matter, who could accomplish that, is certainly not of this world, and wouldn't be re-

Opening Of Curling Season Recalls Past History Of Local Club

When the Charlottetown Curling Club commences activities next week for the 1950-51 season, it will be entering its 64th year of operation, and for the first time in years officially admitting ladies to its membership.

Curling started in Prince Edward Island in the Capital City of Charlottetown in the year 1887 when the club was organized. Since then three additional clubs have been established, Summerside, Montague and Alberton. The four clubs are linked in the Prince Edward Island Curling Association, which, in turn, is affiliated with the Dominion Curling Association.

The Charlottetown Curling Club had an original strength of 36 members and began curling activities by leasing playing periods, at first from the Excelsior Skating Rink on Kent Street, and later from the Hillsboro Rink on Fitzroy Street.

Records reveal that interest began to wane in 1891, and there was very little curling activity from that year until 1913, when the Curling Rink was built on lower Grafton Street. The Club opened operations in the new rink in 1914 but, as a result of the First Great War, interest again lagged, and it was not until 1919 that a satisfactory increase in membership was secured.

The Grafton Street Rink was used until 1938 when the Club moved into a new rink on Euston Street with comfortable social quarters in connection.

The Province's affiliation with the Dominion Curling Association in 1934, and representation in the Dominion playdowns since 1936, gave a great stimulus to the game and both membership and interest in the Charlottetown Curling Club greatly increased. At the beginning of 1948, the club installed an up-to-date artificial ice plant for its four sheets. This has rendered playing conditions much more satisfactory and a vast improvement in the standard of curling has resulted.

The club has well over 150 playing members besides a number of associate members.

In addition to the lady curlers this season the Club executive plans to promote interest in the game among High School and College students. This was successfully launched last year. Club officers are, President, H. R. Carruthers; Vice-President, George Hawkins; Secretary, James Burden; and Treasurer, D. L. O'Rourke. The Club Executive includes F. R. McLaine, Dr. Wendell MacDonald, Ralph Jones and W. R. Jenkins.

Marty Marion Named To Coach St. Louis Cardinals

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 29 (AP)—Shortstop Marty Marion was named player-manager of St. Louis Cardinals today. He immediately predicted the club would cause trouble for the other National League teams in 1951.

Marion's appointment was announced at a press conference today by owner Fred Saigh, who said he settled on Marty this morning.

The long, lanky shortstop has signed a contract for one year, Saigh said. Financial terms were not disclosed.

Twenty five men had been interviewed for the job left open by the resignation of Eddie Dyer, who threw in the sponge in October after a dismal season. The Redbirds wound up the year in fifth place. It was the first time they had finished out of the first division since 1938.

Reports earlier today said the field of potential candidates had been narrowed to Marion and Johnny Keane, manager of Rochester in the International League the last two seasons.

Keane's name was not mentioned at today's press conference. Marion, who will be 33 years old in two days, will be the youngest manager in the major leagues. He has been with the Cardinals organization 15 years, 11 of them with the St. Louis club.

For the last four seasons the man known as "Mr. Shortstop" has refereed in this quarter, if he was.

Referee Bradshaw hails from Toronto. He has been officiating in the Ontario Hockey Association circuit and Toronto Mercantile League for several years. Previous to that he handled the whistle in the Cape Breton Senior Hockey League. Bradshaw was appointed to the Big Four staff ten days ago to replace George Mallinson following his resignation from the league. He made his first appearance in the M. S. H. L. at Saint John on November 20th in the game against Halifax that was called off when linesman Bill Gulliver died of a heart attack in the latter stages of the first period.

Chicago Comes From Behind To Tie Rangers 1-1

NEW YORK, Nov. 29 (CP)—Jim Conacher's third-period goal gave Chicago Black Hawks a 1-1 tie with New York Rangers tonight before 6,103 fans—smallest crowd to see a National Hockey League game here in more than 10 years.

The tie gave Chicago sole possession of third place in the League's standings over the idle Montreal Canadiens.

Conacher's tying goal came late in a rough-and-tumble third period after New York had led early in the first session. Hawk captain Jack Stewart and Roy Conacher teamed up with the young forward, just up from Milwaukee, to produce the tally from close in.

New York scored its goal at the 4:43 mark of the first period when defenceman Eddie Kulkman took a pass from Zello Toppanzini from around behind the nets and had a clear shot on the Hawk nets from about five feet out.

Boston Bruins Defeat Detroit Red Wings 6-3

BOSTON, Nov. 29 (CP)—Hitting real scoring stride for the first time this National Hockey League season, Boston Bruins packed five goals in the third period to defeat Detroit Red Wings 6-3 tonight at the Boston Garden. The Wings had to play the last five minutes without their coach, Tommy Ivan, who was ejected from the Detroit bench for arguing with referee Hugh McLean.

Ivan's ire was aroused when McLean imposed a penalty against Terry Sawchuk, the Detroit goalie, for tripping Dunc Fisher while the Bruins were in the midst of their five-goal rally. After George Gee went into the box for Sawchuk, Ivan's heated protests resulted in his ousting.

Fisher assisted on half of the Boston tallies, two of which were made by rookie Lorne Ferguson and the others by Woody Dumart, Vic Lynn, Pete Horek and Captain Milt Schmidt, much to the delight of a 6,084 crowd, the smallest of the season.

The Wings' attack was sparked by Jimmy McFadden, who scored twice, before and after defenceman Bob Goldham counted without assistance.

Among the other 11 penalties were a major and a 10-minute misconduct against Ted Lindsay after he had high-sticked Paul Ronty during the second session.

This Boston triumph, the Bruins fourth in 20 games and their second of the home season, enabled them to pull into a fifth-place tie with New York Rangers.

SUMMARY

1—Detroit, McFadden (Peters, Goldham)

Penalties — Abel, Kelly. 18:05

Louis Wins 10-Round Decision Over Brion

CHICAGO, Nov. 29 (AP)—Joe Louis hit the comeback trail with an unimpressive but unanimous 10-round decision over Cesar Brion, Argentine champion, in the Chicago Stadium tonight.

The former world heavyweight champion, who ruled the division for 11 years with 22 knockouts in 25 title defenses, outboxed the 23-year-old South American aspirant, but failed to show any trace of his one-time bombs that formerly laid his opponents low. There were no knockdowns but Brion's face was a bloody smear at the finish. He had a cut over the left eye and a cloy nose.

The verdicts of referee Frank Gilmore and the two judges were in almost complete accord. The judges voted 55 to 45 for Louis, with referee Gilmore balloting 56 to 44 for the former titleholder.

It was Louis' second comeback attempt, and at the finish old Joe's head was bowing low. Louis used a piston like jab that sometimes showed flashes of his old time steam to hold command over Brion. But his famed brown bombers failed to explode. He didn't come close to scoring a single knockdown against a slow-moving target.

Louis appeared sluggish and tired. His most violent fury came in the closing minutes of the 10th round when he opened up with a two-fisted charge which had the South American laid in retreat.

Louis had a 20-pound weight edge, scaling 216 to 196 for Brion. This was two pounds under the notch Louis sealed when champion Ezzard Charles gave him a sound lacing in their 15-round title bout in New York City last Sept. 27.

Expect Crystal Rink To Re-open

It looks as if the Summerside Crystal Rink, descript as it is, is going to have another winter of active life. It was learned last evening that it has been leased by Messrs. Charles Hogan and Gordon MacKay. Mr. MacKay will be the manager and Mr. Hogan will act in a supervisory capacity.

Wrecking the interior of the rink is a regular indoor amusement every summer for a certain group of the population, and apparently they carry on this activity without hindrance of any kind. This fall, it is reported things have reached a peak of destructiveness. As an example the office has been almost demolished even to the extent of ripping up the floor boards.

The new management has already commenced repairs and the building should be ready in time for the skating season. There is a possibility that the newly organized Legion Band may be persuaded to play for skating on some nights during the winter and this would certainly be a delightful change.—S.
