Guide Patrol Leaders Hold S' Side Training Conference

A training conference for patrol leaders and second of Guide Companies of Prince County was held in Summerside at Epworth Hall on Saturday. Fifty-two Guides attended in uniform and had a full afternoon and early evening of sessions of training games, discussions, exchange of ideas and singing. A good number of Blue Guides were also on hand to observe and benefit by the training. Guide companies are active in Summerside (three), Slemont Park, Wellington, Miscouche, Kensington, Alberton, Bloomfield and Tignish.

The afternoon's activities opened with registration handled by Mrs. W.A. Smith, executive secretary, after which the Guides formed into patrols and elected patrol leaders.

Mrs. Ralph Dumont welcomed the gathering, explaining the purpose of the conference and introducing her successor as P.E.I. training commissioner, Mrs. B.W. Patterson. This was followed by the Guide prayer.

Mrs. William Wood, district guide, Charlottetown, carried on two sessions of training during the afternoon, one dealing with outdoor activity which took the guides outside for a kim's game and the other session dealing with first class hike.

"Let's look at first class" was the theme of a talk given by Mrs. Fred Pickard, Charlottetown.

Following this, Mrs. Harry Cudmore, provincial commissioner led a discussion on the patrol leader and what it means to be a patrol leader.

After a break and a snack of milk and cookies, the patrols resumed guiding activities with a game on knots conducted by Miss Suzanne MacKinnon, division trainer for King's and Queens Counties. Miss MacKinnon, then gave instruction on ceremonial, particularly the horseshoe formation and the carrying of colors.

During the horseshoe formation the enrollment of two Summerside Guide recruits were held. Mrs. John Ellis district commissioner enrolled Mrs. Richard Steelt and Mrs. James Arsenault.

At the supper the following badges were awarded: Mrs. Eldon Hickey, captain of Third Company presented second class badges to Aileen Brophy, Betty Jean Callaghan, Lydia Gaudet and Joanne McNally.

Mrs. Ferno Rogers, captain of 1st and 4th Companies presented the knitters badge to Ann Dickie and the little house emblem to Pat Pickard.

Mrs. Wilfred Perry, captain of Second Company presented first aid badges to Mary Driscoll, Delphine Arsenault, Kathryn Perry and Elizabeth Ann Gallant.

The Holman trophy for company progress, based on a point system, was awarded by Mrs. El-

ALBERTON

Mr. and Mrs. William Albert left Alberton last week to join their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edlow Albert, in London, Ont.

Mrs. James Miller has returned to her home in Pictou after spending part of last week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. V. J. England, Alberton.

The Alberton Fire Dept was called out Saturday afternoon to extinguish a fire at the home of Mrs. Lyman Leard on Church Street. The blaze, thought to have started from a chimney spark, was quickly brought under control.

Jean Arthur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Arthur, Alberton, had the misfortune to sustain a fractured arm while playing at school on Tuesday.

Mrs. Lester E. Profit, Rosebank, is a patient in the Community Hospital, O'Leary.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Leard, Victoria West, were visitors to Alberton on Thursday.

Miss Mary Gillis, Alberton, is recovering from an operation in the Charlottetown Hospital.

Among those attending the annual meeting of the Prince County Catholic Welfare Agency in Summerside Wednesday were Mrs. J. A. Noonan, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Rooney, Mrs. Joseph Callaghan and Mrs. Arthur McRae, all of Alberton.

Mrs. Percy Kinch, Downsview, Ont. paid a brief visit this week to her sister-in-law, Mrs. Keir Campbell, Alberton.

Break Reported In CNE Office

A break into the Canadian National Express office in O'Leary was discovered yesterday morning. Two pies, some doughnuts and a bologna were believed to be the only articles stolen. Entry was made by forcing a door leading to the office from the waiting room, which is open all night. Several months ago seventeen hundred dollars in silver was stolen in a similar manner.

Y. P. S. Has Guest Speaker

Mr. William Groenewoud was guest speaker at the Summerside Presbyterian Y.P.S. in the church parlour on Wednesday evening. Being a geologist with the Seismograph Survey Company he explained most interestingly how the layers of earth were determined in the survey for oil and how the drilling machines were used. The speaker also talked about the country of Holland, which is six times the size of

Missionary Society Met

The Foreign Missionary Society of the Church of the Nazarene, Summerside, was held recently at the home of Mrs. Leo Austin. Mrs. Nelson Muiridge presided over the meeting and conducted the devotional period, assisted by Mrs. Howard MacLeod, Mrs. Robert Gemmill, Mrs. Hanson Oliver and Mrs. Milton Mellish. Mrs. Edna Pierce was pianist.

It was reported that a medical box had been sent to Africa. Mrs. Alfred Brooks gave a talk on the Missionary magazine "The Other Sheep." A social half hour was held when refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Gemmill and Mrs. Melish.
