BEDTIME STORIES

Hooty & Mrs. Hooty Disagree

A sorry thing it is to see, When folks who should just won't agree.

—Old Mother Nature.

Hooty and Mrs. Hooty belong to the largest of the Owl species. They are called Horned Owls, which seems rather foolish, because they have no horns at all. They simply have two tufts of feathers that stand up like short horns or more like ears. Of all the feathered folk none is more feared by the smaller folk in fur and feathers than are these big Owls. They are the first of the feathered folk to nest. This year, they had used an old nest that had been built by Mr. and Mrs. Redtail the Hawks the year before. It was still

Control Of Warble Fly Would Save Cattlemen Loss

By JACK VAN DUSEN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP)—Canadian and United States agricultural scientists have joined forces in attempts to solve an old problem—how to control the warble fly. A solution would save cattlemen millions of dollars a year.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE

Here's how to work it: AXYDLBAAXR is LONGFELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
