agrivation than those perpetrated by the Fenians. There can be no doubt that, according to all law, human and divine, these convicts have justly forfeited their lives. But it is generally believed that the Royal clemency will be extended to spare them. The threats of the Fenian brawlers, which could never move a powerful government, have subsided. Roberts hoped to force us into hanging these people, by way of vindicating our courage; but it was not necessary to resort to sanguinary measures for that purpose. Two of the Sweetsburg culprits showed themselves thoroughly unrepentant, under the death-sentence; they were even defiant, in the face of the Court; but their conduct cannot provoke to a policy different from that which would otherwise have been pursued. It their lives be spared, it will be because there is every reason to believe that this course may safely be taken; that henceforth the order will be incapable of repeating the injury they wantonly inflicted on this Province last June.

The thirty-two Fenian prisoners remaining in gaol yet undisposed of, will be tried at the next Assizes for the County of York, commencing on 10th prox. Through Hon. J. H. Cameron, who is still to conduct the proceedings on behalf of the Crown, the prisoners received notice long since, that they must all be ready for trial on the first day of the forthcoming Assizes, in order that the Crown may not be hindered in getting through the business as rapidly as possible. The prisoners have been notified that no delay will be consented to by the Crown, unless some special cause is shown on affidavit. In order to expedite the proceedings, two Judges will conduct the Assizes, sitting in seperate Chambers. By one the usual Assize business will be conducted and before the other the Fenian prisoners will be tried.

The Detriot Board of Trade have appointed a committee to memorialize Congress on the injustice of allowing British built vessels to become nationalized and compete with the United States vessels in the carrying trade of the Lakes.

PARISIAN NEWSPAPERS.—A Paris letter says:—"By the way, there is something not a little droll in the way the Government handles the press here. The first thing you hear a paper has been ordered to stop its circulation, and if you go to its office you find a lot of morose politicians jabbering and gesticulating with all their might over the event. It is true they have always two warnings before the axe falls, yet it usually falls all of a sudden. Sometimes the paper is suspended for a month, sometimes for a year, sometimes altogether. These poor opposition editors have a hard time of it—pounced upon all of a sudden, without knowing, half of the time, what the matter is. Such a man as Giradin, though, thakes the misfortune coolly and with sublime dignity; indeed, one would never be tempted to laugh at his expense."

Montreal papers report a railway collision between a freight train with two engines and an express train—the engine of the latter running right on top of that of the freight train, and crushing an engine driver named Newbole into a shapeless mass.

Major Cleary, of the 100th regiment, who was cashiered by sentence of the Court which assembled in Montreal to try him for having absented himself without leave while stationed at Malta, has since been allowed by the Duke of Cambridge, commander-in-chief, to retire on half pay, in consideration of his distinguished services during the Indian mutiny.

☞ In consequence of the Scenery not being quite prepared, the Charlottetown Amateur Dramatic Club have postponed their Entertainments until Wednesday and Thursday evenings, February the 6th and 7th.

Ladies and gentlemen wishing to obtain a good picture would do well to call at W. P. Mr. S., having had an extensive practice in Nova Scotia, flatters himself that he is capable of satisfying the taste of all, even the most fastidious.

PORCELAIN PICTURES

ARE now taken at our Gallery, the only place in the Colony where they are taken. These are the Portraits that of late have caused such excitement all over Europe and America; and no wonder, for they are truly wonderful specimens of art, and are destined to supersede every other style of Portraiture. For beauty of tint, and harmony of light and shade, there is nothing in the world to equal it. They are done on Porcelain, and are indestructible, rivalling gems of the first water.

I respectfully invite all who can appreciate to see specimens now on view at my studio.
