

ROSES & THORNS

It seems that the students here at U.P.E.I. are finally beginning to get involved. During first semester I continuously complained because the students here were not supporting their classes, organizations, athletic teams, and Student Union. Well, I hope I can now stop complaining. Although all of the events held in the Barn since Christmas have not been huge successes, there have been no failures. The athletic teams are also getting needed support lately; the huge success of banner-noisemaker day at the Forum and the use of the FanVans to Halifax last weekend are evidence of this. Just a note to anyone who may not be aware of it- all U.P.E.I. students get into all Panther games free of charge, all you have to do is show your student card. This is one way we can make use of the Athletic Fee that each of us pays.

My congratulations to all of you who are getting involved in things second semester. I might remind you, and everyone else on campus that Winter Carnival is next week and by the looks of things it is going to be one heck of a week. Go for it!

BOUQUET of THORNS

Those professors who will undoubtedly be giving tests during Winter Carnival. There are always a few who do it and give them all a bad name.

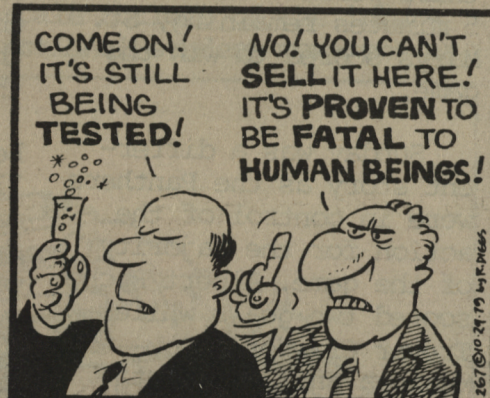

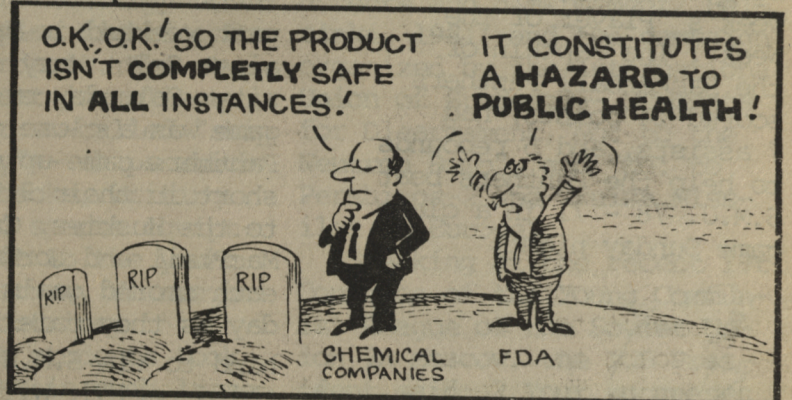

BOUQUET of ROSES

The thirty or so people who took time out to support the hockey Panthers in Halifax last weekend. All reports indicate that a good time was had by all.
