The Weather.

VENNOR AGAIN PREDICTS.
In a letter to the Ottawa Free Press Vennor has the following:—

"As I long ago forecast, the winter is about to set in unusually early, and very severely; the forests are already as bare of leaves as in midwinter, and almost one month earlier than for the last three or four years. The rivers are very high for the season, and the swamps are overflowing. Bears have been more numerous than for many years, and crowd into the settlements in search of food wherewith to fatten speedily for the rapidly approaching cold. Each cold relapse of the weather is increasing in severity, and the winds return more constantly to easterly and northeasterly points. I expect to see good sleighing and severe cold in November, instead of the bare ground and absence of frost, as experienced for the last two years. In December we may expect a tempestuous month, with heavy blockades of snow, as in the 'Olden Time.' Then will come a lull or break in the weather. This term I cannot attempt to locate definitely, but it will be in proximity to midwinter. During this period the snows will melt rapidly, and will probably cause extensive floods in many parts of the country. This term will be much more prolonged than our usual midwinter thaw. Later again, a second edition of the winter will set in with more snow and severe cold, and the rivers and all waters will remain ice-locked up to an unusually late period. The rains now falling will remain until the temperature is conducive to snow, when precipitation in this form will continue through much of November."

Nine murders for love is not a bad record for the United States in one month. The latest comes from Hillsboro' N. C. A young man by the name of Ned Lyons died very suddenly, and the suspicions of foul play were so strong that scientific analysis of the stomach is going on. There is reason to believe that Lyons was poisoned by a young girl who was very much enamoured of him, and who made every effort to get him to make love to her. Lyons took no notice of the girl's advances, and soon afterward the jealous girl, a few days before his death, visited the home of Lyons and, it is said, carried him a piece of cake, of which he ate heartily, and died the following day. It is believed that the cake contained a large amount of arsenic. The girl is now in jail.

M. JOLY is a true statesman of the Mc Kenzie-Cartwright-Mowatt school. He went into office with loud protestations of economy, promising that one of his first steps in the direction of retrenchment should be the abolition of what he considered the costly and unnecessary District Magistrates. Have they gone? Not a bit of it; but in the very last number of the local Official Gazette is a proclamation appointing one in the County of Gaspe.

In reply to a note addressed to him by the editor of the "Agricultural World," asking him whether he had ever been in America, Mr. Gladstone writes:—"Sir, I regret to reply—never. Your obedient servant, W. E. Gladstone."

Do not forget to remit your subscriptions for the WEEKLY EXAMINER—only one dollar.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

FREDERICTON, Nov. 1.
Voting yea or nay to the application of the provisions of 'The Canada Temperance Act' to this city took place yesterday.
The polling resulted in the passage of the Bill by exactly a two to one vote, 404 votes having been cast for and 202 against.
The Temperance people are jubilant, and the Act will be enforced on the 1st day of May next.

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.
There is no prospect now of opposition to Hon. John O'Connor in Russell.
Sir John is at present occupying the Privy Council office, the office of Interior being without room. It is understood, however, that he will take the room formerly occupied by Laurier.

LT. Col. Littleton, Military Secretary to the Marquis of Lorne, arrived from Quebec. The comptroller arrives next week, when the requisite horses, etc., will be purchased for the new Governor General.
The City Council are making great preparations for the reception of the Marquis of Lorne.
The witnesses for the defence have been called up in the Jacques Cartier case.
NEW YORK, Oct. 31.
A meeting will be held here to-day to consider the propriety of holding a World's Fair in 1889, the centennial of Washington's inauguration.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 31.
A hundred tramps boarded a train on the Mississippi Central Railroad at Como yesterday, beat the conductor and at last accounts were running the train.
Burglars entered a house in Camden, N. J., last evening during the absence of the owners—two brothers. When they returned they were bound and held as prisoners and the burglars carried off nearly $16,000 worth of property.

LONDON, Oct. 31.
The Times financial article remarks that the total working capital of cotton mills at Oldham operated on limited liability system is £4,600,000. Of this sum but little more than a million pounds has returned any interest for a year, and considerably over half the capital is borrowed.
LIVERPOOL, Oct. 31.
The Marquis and Marchioness of Lorne will receive a congratulatory address from the Corporation of Liverpool on their arrival there to embark, 14th November, for Canada.

LONDON, Oct. 31.
The Telegraph says the machinations which threaten the fulfillment of European settlement are closely watched and will be thwarted by the resolute vigilance of the Beaconsfield Government. With the loyal support of France and Austria and the approval of Germany, the Treaty of Berlin will be sustained to the letter.
LONDON, Oct. 31.
A Vienna correspondent says: "I hear in well-informed circles that Andrassy contemplates the dissolution of the Reichstag to-day, immediately after the appointment of members of delegations, but this measure would be of such gravity that I believe the Government will not adopt it unless compelled to do so."
A Vienna despatch says it appears the Powers are becoming aware of the danger of the Bulgarian insurrectionary movement, which was evidently carefully organized months beforehand, and have opened confidential exchange of ideas on the subject.
There is reason to believe that the British Ambassador at Constantinople will shortly visit England to confer with the Government on many important points of the Eastern Question.

PARIS, Oct. 31.
It is rumored that the closing of the Exhibition will be deferred until November 25th.
LONDON, Oct. 31.
The Cabinet were in Council two and a quarter hours yesterday.
The Post announces, in semi-official form, that it has been decided to send an ultimatum to the Ameer before proceeding to extreme measures. It is not probable, however, that he will avail himself of this last chance. Relative to the general aspect of affairs, it is not unlikely that Beaconsfield, at the Lord Mayor's banquet on Nov. 9th, may be able to speak of the future with satisfaction and confidence.
All the morning journals agree that the Government has decided to give the Ameer a last chance.
The Standard believes that the Cabinet yesterday decided to request from all concerned a strict and liberal observance of the Treaty of Berlin, and adds that it is impossible to believe that the appeal, which it will be England's duty to make to her co-signatories, will be attended to.
A despatch from Simla states that England's ultimatum will summon the Ameer to give guarantees for future good understanding. It is not thought the ultimatum will cause any delay, as the answer of the Ameer must be received within a fortnight or three weeks, and the preparations of the army will meanwhile be relaxed.
A Bombay despatch says intelligence received justifies the confidence of the English people in the loyalty of the Indian Princes. Offers are coming from all directions. The native troops are eager to advance on Afghanistan and the tone of the Vernacular press is all that could be desired.
