

SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION SHORT COURSES

Sponsored by the Department of Education for School Trustees, Secretaries, Parents and all interested in Better Schools.

The purpose of the Course is to assist citizens in the management of the local school and the conduct of the annual school meeting; to discuss possible improvements in our schools and other matters relating to school administration.

The Courses will be held as follows:

- Murray River—Temperance Hall, Tuesday, Mar. 23
- Souris—St. Mary's Hall, Wednesday, March 24
- Mt. Stewart—St. Andrew's Hall, Thursday, Mar. 25
- Vernon River—CMA Hall, Friday, March 26
- Hunter River—Orange Hall, Tuesday, March 30
- Alberton, Women's Institute Hall, Wed., Mar. 31
- Kensington—King George Hall, Thursday, April 1

Each Course will consist of two sessions starting at 2:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. All are welcome. Competent instructors including the Director and Assistant Director of Education will be present at all meetings.

Barbara Brent's BUYS WHYS

MONTREAL, March 18th—Feet hurt? I have good news for you! It's Phenylum, the new medication in BLUE-JAY Corn Plasters. Phenylum gets right under your corn and helps push it out from underneath... the first really new medication for corns and calluses in over seventy years!

bothersome feet say it's the best news in years... and I'm sure you'll agree, once you've tried Blue-Jays with Phenylum. Ask for them at your favourite drug counter today.

Everybody's Happy... at our breakfast table now! I can give each one coffee—just the way it's wanted—strong, medium or mild. And I can do it so easily because of NEW INSTANT CHASE & SANBORN COFFEE.

Meatless But Marvellous!... that's what my family says about my Heins "meatless" meals. There's such a variety of them... and such a variety of ways to cook them... and they are so good.

Find Myself Humming Cheerily... as I go about my daily dusting, because of the tried and true help of that long-time favorite O-CEDAR "ALL PURPOSE" POLISH. Feel good—because I like the delicate fragrance of O-Cedar Polish—distilled from cedar needles. I like the way it leaves a thick film for lustre and beauty—preserves the finish of my furniture. Because it also contains solvents, O-Cedar Polish cuts and removes greasy dirt. All we homemakers need to do is... pour a few drops on a dampened cloth and apply with gentle, wiping strokes. Then polish with a clean, dry cloth. Ask for the special offer—a large economy size bottle of O-Cedar Polish and a velvety-soft dusting cloth only 76c. Regular value $1.00.

Don't Be Foolish! Why lie awake at night, tossing and turning because of stuffed-up nose or dry nostrils. You can ease your difficulties so soon with MENTHOLATUM... Send for your own FREE GENEROUS SAMPLE today... and see how, when you spread some generously inside each nostril, the medicated vapors will back... your breathing gets easier. Mentholum has a cooling effect on dry or stuffed nostrils... It's particularly good for children as it's so gentle. Write Barbara Brent, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal, and I'll send your sample to you.

thanked one and all for the gifts. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by several young ladies. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing to music generously furnished by Messrs. Bernard Dolron and Basil Perry.

NEW LONDON W. I.

The March meeting of New London Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Claude MacEwen on March 9.

Roll call was responded to by 19 members with a joke. One visitor was present. The school committee reported books and soap purchased and dustbane was needed. The sick committee made two calls. New sick committee are Mrs. Lorne Campbell, Mrs. Donald MacEwen and Mrs. Oscar MacKay.

Discussion on the quilt for convention took place and a committee of Mrs. Harold Mayhew, Mrs. Murray MacKay, and Mrs. Fred MacEwen were appointed to decide on pattern.

Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Leigh MacEwen when roll call will be answered by naming a "weed". The program will be based on agriculture and the committee will be Mrs. James St. Augustine's Convent Chapel, South Rustico, P. E. I., was the scene of a quiet, pretty wedding on Saturday morning, February 27 at 9 o'clock when Patricia Frances, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gallant, became the bride of Leading Seaman Edward James Banks, son of Mr. and the late Mrs. Hugh Banks, Toronto, Ont.

Reverend Father J. C. Peters officiated and sang the Nuptial Mass. During the Mass the "Ave Maria" was beautifully rendered by Miss Lorraine Blanchard.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attractively attired in a turquoise wool suit, with white hat and accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow roses.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Joan Gallant, who wore a grey wool suit with red hat and accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Leading Seaman Roy Chaisson, friend of the groom, acted as best man. Both were in naval uniform.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gallant chose a dress of navy crepe with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Following the Nuptial Mass, breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents to the immediate family and friends of the young couple. Among those present was Reverend Father Peters. The toast to the bride was proposed by Captain J. Kenny and responded to by the groom.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. A. E. Doucette, Mrs. Joseph H. Gallant and the Misses Anna Gallant and Margaret Hogen.

Mr. and Mrs. Banks will reside at 11 Water Street, Charlottetown, where the groom is stationed at HMCS Queen Charlotte. Prior to her marriage, the bride was employed on the staff of E.E. Mutch and Co., Charlottetown.

The many friends of this young couple join in wishing them many years of happy wedded life.

On Thursday evening, February 25, friends and relatives of the bride gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Gauthier, Rusticoville, to tender her a miscellaneous shower.

The bride-to-be was escorted to the seat of honour by Miss Margaret Hagen, and the heavily-laden basket was carried in by the Misses Edith and Faustina Pineau. Miss Edith Pineau opened the gifts while Miss Margaret Hagen read the accompanying cards. Patsy, in her usual pleasant way,

E. Cole and Mrs. Oscar MacKay. A splendid report on the A.C. W.W. meetings was given by Mrs. James E. Cole. The program for this meeting was on Education. Mrs. Eric MacEwen read a paper, "Education, Everybody's Business". Mrs. Ralph Cobb put on a geography contest, winner being Mrs. Eric MacEwen. A singing contest took place. Mrs. Harold Mayhew and Mrs. Morton Adams were decided as the best singers. A parcel post sale took place and a nice sum was realized. CHERRY VALLEY W. I. Cherry Valley Women's Institute meeting was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Sterling Ings, on March 8 with an attendance of 13 members. Roll call was answered with an Irish joke or a 10c fine. Correspondence was read which consisted of a letter from the Red Cross and several letters and cards of thanks from sick in district. It was decided to send $10 to Red Cross. School committee was re-appointed: Mrs. Wm. Hayden and Mrs. Malcolm Irving.

It was decided to have a Jam-boree the last part of April. Mrs. Gordon MacDonald invited members to her home for the April meeting, roll call to be answered with a flower slip, seeds, or bulbs. Capture of Fort Sumter by South Carolinians in 1861 signalled the start of the American Civil War,
