TWILIGHT.

Dear I love the quiet evening hour, While dying day still lingers in the western sky,
When weary labor rests, and aching care Glides from the impassioned heart an many a fleeting sigh.

How sweet at eve to wind my pensive way O'er vernal meads where spring's young flowerets bloom,
Or through o'er-arching groves where twilight grey.

In silence weirdly woos the forest's gloom.
Quiet and peaceful as a lingering twilight dream,

Could but my life steal gently, calmly on, Through shadowy silence as a wandering woodland stream,
'Mong glades of verdure hidden from the scorching sun?

Could I but find that balmly, sea-girt isle, Where bloomed the charmed lotus in the days of yore;
How sweet to watch the varying twilight smile, Forever round that melancholy wave-washed shore.

E'en now among the wandering clouds of night Faintly the twinkling stars of eve their light illumine, Then fade as dying gleams of mild-eyed hope Before the shade of disappointment's sullen frown.

And now the night her mantle broad and dark, With angry fringe of storm-cloud from the distant sea,
In folds of surging mists, where pent-up thunders lurk, Rolls on in solemn gloom and dismal majesty,

Fiercely the storm breaks o'er, the lightnings flash, The thunder bellowing loud rolls o'er the welkin wide,
Down to the thirsty earth the hurrying rain-clouds rush,
And roaring tempests o'er the crashing forests ride.

This grand nobility of action let thy spirit move
Now in the roar and turmoil of the raging storm:
Forget thy dream of idle languor and of weary love,
Of twinkling stars at eve and fading twilight calm.

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

Evening Session.

FRIDAY, May 23.

Mr SHAW moved the House into Committee on the second reading of the Bill for the protection of Game and fur-bearing animals. Mr. Underhay was called to the Chair of the Committee, and after some time spent therein, progress was reported and the House adjourned for one hour.

Hon. Mr. SULLIVAN moved the House in Committee on the second reading of the Act respecting certain departments of the Public Service. The Bill authorizes the amalgamation of the offices of Provincial Secretary and Treasurer, and Commissioner of Public Lands; the offices of Assistant Provincial Secretary, and Assistant Provincial Treasurer; and the office of Clerk of the Executive Council and Provincial Auditor. The Bill also contemplates the reduction of the salaries of the various officials. The measure was intended to effect two objects—to render the Civil Service more efficient, and to reduce the expenditure. The amount of work to be performed by the Provincial Secretary and Treasurer was not very great, and the business of the Land Office will be getting less every year, and in a short time it must to a great extent, be performed in the Treasury.
That was the proper place to receive money payments. It is not contemplated to amal-gamate the two offices at present, but so soon as the Government are satisfied that this can be effected without injury to the Public Service, they can enforce that portion of the Act which provides for the said amalgamation, by passing an Order in Council.

Mr. Yeo did not know that he had great reason to find fault with the Bill, as far as it went. They were first led to believe that the amalgamation of the office of Provincial Secretary and Treasurer, and that of the Commissioner of Public Lands, would take place at once; but it now appeared that the amalgamation was not likely to take place for a long time to come. He did not blame the Government for not amalgamating these offices at once; but he did blame them for taking up time in discussing a matter that they had no intention of carrying out. He thought that the public interests would be better served by merging the offices of Clerk of the Executive Council, Assistant Provincial Secretary, and Assistant Provincial Treasurer, into one, and leave the Provincial Auditor independent of every other office; and, if the duties of that officer be light, let him be paid accordingly. The audit of accounts by such an officer would be more correct than from the Clerk of the Executive Council, who is almost bound to carry out the wishes of the Government.

House went into Committee on the Bill, Mr. Shaw in the Chair.
Mr. Yeo moved an amendment to the clause amalgamating the offices of Clerk of the Executive Council and Provincial Auditor. Amendment lost on party division.

The motion gave rise to some discussion, which was participated in by Messrs. Yeo, DeBlois, Richards, Farquharson, Ferguson, Campbell, McMillan, and Prowse.

A rambling debate originated on the clause fixing the salaries of School Inspectors. Messrs. Prowse, Farquharson, Yeo, McMillan, Campbell, Lefurgey, and Richards were the speakers.

The Speaker resumed the chair, and the Chairman reported the Bill agreed to without amendment.

Upon motion of Mr. Shaw, the Bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time on Monday.

Mr. A. C. McDONALD, from the Committee on Public Accounts, presented the report of said Committee, which was received, read, ordered to be committed to a Committee of the Whole House on Monday.

Mr. YEO asked for a statement showing what reduction, if any, has been made in the salaries of officials since the beginning of the year.

Hon. Mr. SULLIVAN replied that such a statement was being prepared, and would be laid upon the table of the House on Monday.

Mr. GAVIN asked why a new line of road ordered to be opened some years ago, between Horse Head and Palmer Road was not opened, and if it were the intention of the Government to open it.

Hon. Mr. FERGUSON could not answer the first question, but, in reply to the last, he said that the matter would be considered by the Government.

Mr. CAMERON asked what action the Government had taken with respect to a petition of certain inhabitants of Lot 65, praying for the construction of a wharf at McArthur's landing, West River.

Hon. Mr. FERGUSON said that the matter was under the consideration of the Government.

The Speaker read a communication from the Lieut.-Governor, desiring the House, at its rising to-day, to adjourn till Monday.

Hon. Mr. SULLIVAN moved the House into Committee of the whole on a resolution to consider the expediency of introducing a Bill to amalgamate the Prince of Wales College and Provincial Normal School.
Resolutions reported agreed to.

Hon. Mr. SULLIVAN moved certain resolutions upon which it was proposed to found said Bill. In addition to the main features of the amalgamation scheme, it is proposed to give two additional Scholarships to Queen's County. Two will be for the County and two for the City and Royalty.
The latter will not receive any endowment from Government, but will be exempt from the payment of College fees. The endowment of the other six scholarships is raised to $80. It used to be £20, old currency.
While the Attorney General calculates upon upon saving $3,500 by the amalgamation, he contends that the efficiency of both institutions will be increased.

These resolutions gave rise to much debate, into which a good deal of irrelevant matter was dragged, the speakers being Messrs. Richards, Farquharson, Yeo, Shaw, McMillan, Cameron, Prowse, Lefurgey, Montgomery, and Ferguson. The Opposition objected to giving the Principal of the Amalgamated Institution a seat at the Board of Education, also to placing the Normal School under the Supervision of the Collegiate Department.

After a prolonged struggle the resolutions were reported agreed to, and Messrs.
Sullivan, Prowse and McLeod were appointed a Committee to bring in a Bill in conformity therewith.

Hon. Mr. SULLIVAN, from said Committee, introduced a Bill to amalgamate the Prince of Wales College and Provincial Normal School, which was received, read a first time, and ordered to be read a second time on Monday.

At 1.30 a. m. on Saturday, the House adjourned till Monday.

Probable Visit to England.

Looking at the results of the legislation of last season, it is impossible to resist the conclusion that a visit to England will be necessary on the part of some of the Ministers during the coming summer. Indeed, it is highly probable that Sir John Macdonald, Dr. Tupper, and Mr. Tilley will visit England at an early day. The Premier will visit England—he will not be accompanied by Mr. Huntington—with peculiar pleasure, to receive the honors due to his long service in the cause of the Empire, and to his success in Canada. Dr.
Tupper will no doubt succeed in enlisting the cordial aid of the British Government in his Pacific railway scheme. And Mr.
Tilley will find it necessary to make provisions in relation to the finances of the country.
