*Mr. and Mrs. Sam McLeod, Ugg, were visitors to the City by train on Monday.

The many friends of Mrs. Freeman Sorrie, Milltown Cross, are sorry to hear that she is in the hospital. All join in wishing her a speedy recovery.

*Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Bruce and family, South Lake, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Darrah, Port Hill.

Her many friends regret to learn that Mrs. Edgar Dennis, Charlottetown, (Joyce Robertson, Kingsboro), is a patient in the P. E. Island Hospital, and wish her a speedy recovery.

Montague Airman Home From France

A Prince Edward Islander, Flight Sergeant J. W. (Bill) Butler, of Montague, P.E.I., has returned to Canada after spending a year at Metz, France, at the RCAF's Air Division Headquarters.

During his stay in France, he has toured Germany and England, visited his birthplace at Ashby, Leicester.

Flt. Sgt. Butler is looking forward to Christmas at home this year with his wife and three children, Patsy, 12, Ronnie, 11, and Nina 2. His new station in Canada will be RCAF Station Clinton, Ont.

LOWER MONTAGUE W.I.

On December 7th the Lower Montague Women's Institute held a delightful banquet in the rain-prow room of the Bison Restaurant. Following the banquet the regular monthly meeting was held with the president, Mrs. Horace Hewitt, presiding. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved following which a brief resume of the financial report was given for the benefit of those members who were not present at the annual meeting.

The committee appointed to look into the matter of purchasing a property for a hall reported that a suitable site was available and the members gave approval for the purchase of this property. It was decided that Christmas treats will be given to the children as usual and three members gave vocal thanks for visits and treats received when they were sick.

The president conveyed the Fraser and Rev. A. C. Fraser. Interment was in Orwell Head Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs: Daniel MacDonald, Alex MacLeod, Herby Carver, Raymond Nicholson, Alex R. MacLeod, D. J. Gillis.

Scramble For Ottawa Coaching Job Narrows

OTTAWA (CP)—A scramble for the job as coach of Ottawa Rough Riders in the Interprovincial Rugby Football Union appears to have been narrowed to three Americans.

The three prospective coaches invited by a committee of the Big four club's executive for interview are Joe Bach, Lou Zarza and Cliff Speagle.

Bach, until recently coach of Pittsburgh Steelers in the United States National Football League, already has talked to members of the executive.

Zarza, of Wayne University, Detroit, is another would-be newcomer to Canadian football. He is expected today or Friday for an interview.

Speagle, of the members to Mrs. Clay, owner of the Bison Restaurant, and the meeting closed with the Queen. Mrs. Austin Ross was pianist for the evening.

Montague School Students Council

Eleven members were present at the regular meeting of the Montague High School Students Council held in the grade 12 classroom on Dec. 1.

The president, Donald MacDonald opened the meeting and the secretary read the minutes of the last meeting which were approved as read.

The new officers elected in the recent election, made necessary by the changes undergone in the grade 11 class are, grade 11 (a) William MacIntyre and Mildred Murphy and in the grade 11 (b) Stanley Bruce and Katie Herring. The president in a brief address welcomed the new members to the council.

After some discussion the secretary was instructed to inquire at Birk's Jewellers about the possibilities of a design for the proposed graduation ring, the inscription to include the school initials and the date of graduation. The committee appointed to look into the matter of repairs to the school's basement reported that the repairs would be started at the first of the new year. The dance committee reported that it would not be possible to hold a dance in the Beaver Club before Christmas because all of the dates have already been spoken for.

It was decided that the sports committee should be elected from members of the council and those elected were Anna Prosper, Carl Reynolds, Walter MacEwen and Heather Jamieson.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

GULLS FAIR GAME NOW

DOUGLAS, Isle of Man. (CP)—Today, for the first time in 87 years, it is legal for residents of the Isle of Man to shoot away sea-gulls or hunt for their eggs. A new law, effective Wednesday, revoked the ban because it was found radar could replace gulls in pinpointing herring shoals for fishermen.

JOBLESS RISE DOWN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government announced Wednesday unemployment in the United States increased 152,000 in November, a smaller than usual increase in a month when colder weather curtails outdoor activity. The jobless total was estimated at 2,993,000.
