

Restoring Drowned Persons by Heat.

First—Know that a person recently drowned is not dead, and will not be for a long time. If not lively he is yet lifeless. Be not, then, alarmed nor unduly excited, but let faith, hope, and charity inspire confidence and a cool judgement to aid with deliberate haste in taking the drowned out of the water and restoring him.

Secondly—When he is taken out of the water turn his face down for a moment only, to allow any water in his nose or throat to run out; then place him, out of currents of air, upon his back, with his head very slightly raised. Do not roll him upon a barrel, nor do anything else to get the water out of his lungs, since there is none in them; nor out of his stomach, since what he has swallowed will not do any harm.

Thirdly—Quickly determine whether he must be carried to where heat is, or if it can better be brought to or produced near him. If the former, take him gently, quickly and as near as possible to the above said posture.

Fourthly—If there must be delay in applying heat, and dry prospectives can be had, take off the wet clothes and wrap the dry articles about him to prevent loss of heat, covering the head particularly. The warm underclothing of bystanders can be contributed. Several thicknesses of anything attainable is better than one.

Fifthly—As soon as heat is at hand apply it as ingenuously and circumstances suggest to be most likely to quickly and thoroughly warm the body. When that is accomplished theory and fact agree in assuring us that, if life yet persists, the heart will begin to beat, happily soon followed by breathing, both feebly and frequently at first, but more strongly and faster until they become natural, when consciousness will return. If the heart gives one beat, or the lungs one gasp, no more need to be done; keep the person warm and he will soon be all right.

This ex-Prince Imperial's Prayer.

The following is the translation of a prayer written by the late Prince and found among the papers in his desk—

My God: I give to thee my heart, but give to me faith. Without faith there is no strong prayer, and to pray is a longing of my soul. I pray, not that thou shouldst take away obstacles on my path, but that thou mayest permit me to overcome them. I pray, not that thou shouldst disarm my enemies but that thou shouldst aid me to conquer myself. Hear, O God, my prayer. Preserve to my affection those who are dear to me. Grant to them happy days. If thou only givest on this earth a certain sum of joy, take, O God, my share and bestow it on the most worthy, and may the most worthy be my friends. If thou seekest vengeance upon man, strike me. Misfortune is converted into happiness by the sweet thought that those whom we love are happy. Happiness is poisoned by the bitter thought; while I rejoice, those whom I love a thousand times better than myself, are suffering. For me, O God! no more happiness. Take it from my path. I can only find joy in forgetting the past. If I forget those who are no more, I shall be forgotten in my turn; and how sad the thought which makes one say, "Time effects all!" The only satisfaction I seek is that which lasts forever, that which is given by a tranquil conscience. O, my God! show me ever where my duty lies, and give me strength to accomplish it always. Arrived at the term of my life, I shall turn my looks fearfully to the past. Remembrance will not be for me a long remorse. Grant, O God, that my heart may be penetrated with the conviction that those whom I love and who are dead, shall see all my actions. My life shall be worthy of their witness, and my innermost thought shall never make them blush.

Men milliners are on the increase in New York, but no ladies have yet gone tailoring.

The last slave sold in the confederacy was in 1865, near Richmond, a negro man, who was bought for 900 head of cabbage. Cabbage was worth a dollar a head, consequently the negro footed up at $900.

Liver is King.

The liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with dyspepsia or liver complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the liver and stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

CATARRH.

Constitutional Catarrh Remedy CURES CATARRH.

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.—
DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your "Constitutional Catarrh Remedy" was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be "too good to be true."

I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long, I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite cured of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head.

A sense of duty to sufferers from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unsolicited, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper Yours truly,

W. TINDALL, Methodist Minister.
