Kings, John Mullally, Souris, in the federal election, April 8.

In his opening remarks, he thanked the mayor for his welcome and said that he had already listened to many addresses in this campaign, but he had been very impressed with Mr. Mullally's, which he said was an excellent portrayal of Liberal policies.

BAD MANAGEMENT

Bad management, he continued, had brought about the past three months but throughout the whole term of the present government has brought about down; six budgets with six deficits, unemployment, agricultural distress, insularity in the country, balance of payments promises, these are the legacies of incompetents, legacy of lack of decision, lack of leadership, and now the party is asking for support on April 8.
