S. James Kirk Congregational

A large and happy gathering of Kirk folk assembled Friday evening in the Kirk Hall of St. James Church to mark another milestone in the life of that historic congregation, and to enjoy in good fellowship the delicious supper served by the ladies of the Kirk Auxiliary under the leadership of the Centric Group, convened by Mrs. Ira L. Clark.

The long tables were tastefully decorated with spring flowers, sprigs of ivy and snow white candles and presented a beautiful setting for the festivities of the evening.

The boys and girls of the parish were served first and entertained in the upper hall by a committee of the Kirk under the leadership of Mr. Donald K. Martin.

The chairman of the Board of Trustees, Mr. Frank W. Curtis, presided at the head table and, after greeting and welcoming the guests, called upon His Honour the Lieutenant Governor, who spoke in hearty appreciation of the splendid spirit of the congregation and the advances it had made in recent years. He paid singular tribute to the leadership and scholarly gifts of the Minister, the Rev. T. H. B. Somers.

One-Act Comedy By I.C.F. Players

The one act comedy farce, "Kitty Kitty Kitty" presented by members of the Irwin Christian Fellowship Group, Thursday night kept the audience in a state of hilarity for more than forty five minutes.

The play was under the direction of David Murphy and was presented for the benefit of members of the Group only.

Ivan Darrach in the role of William, a scheming uncle who tries to force his niece, Jane (Gaye Lancaster), to marry a man against her will, showed natural stage ability which kept the audience in an uproar with his unpredictable antics.

Mrs. Lancaster gave a splendid portrayal of a young girl who tries to force her scheming uncle and her tears of broken heartedness at being separated from her true love seemed quite genuine.

Roy Purvis with remarkable versatility doubled in the part of Jane's lover and the factious Kitty. His ability to deceive his fiancée while playing the part of a girl produced one of the highlights of the performance.

Isobel Donald in the role of Kitty, a girl from the bright lights of New York, found herself an unexpected success when she was caught up in a fast moving series of events which saw Uncle William simultaneously trying to marry off his niece and is hard-to-marry old maid sister. Believing that this usefulness had become quickly to deceive his fiancée while playing the part of a girl produced one of the highlights of the performance.

Miss Donald gave a realistic portrayal of girl thoroughly confused with the strange situation. Her aggressiveness in demanding William's attention and her willingness to become a part of what seemed a non-sensical affair gained for her the admiration of her audience.

Frank Gosbee playing the part of Benjamin Moore, an aging bachelor promised the hand of Jane. His ability to involve in the confused chain of events caused by Uncle William's scheming. Mr. Gosbee's acting added greatly to the over all hilarious scene.

John Gamble played to perfection the role of the cagey hotel clerk who gives the scheming uncle the impression he is working on his behalf while he is actually trying to complicate matters for him.

"Kitty Kitty Kitty" was to have been presented to the public last month but a chain of circumstances beyond the control of players or director made this impossible. Mr. Murphy hopes to bring this delightful comedy before a Charlottetown audience early next Fall.

Death Of Former P. E. Island Man

Word has been received from Bridgewater, Mass. U.S.A. of the death of John Geddie MacCallum on March 7th last. He was a resident of Bridgewater for over 45 years, and was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Duncan MacCallum of Harrington, P.E.I.

He had been a faithful employee of the Henry Perkins Co. of that city for many years. In addition to his widow the former Barbara Ryan, he is survived by two sons, Austin of Bridgewater and Scott of Taunton. A daughter Hazel (Mrs. C. H. Raray) by a former marriage predeceased him in 1918. Four grand children also survive one of whom is Mrs. Lloyd Gillespie of Winsloe, and two great grandsons, Marvyn and Wayne Gillespie.

Funeral services were conducted on Saturday, March 11th, with Rev. John MacCallum officiating. Burial was in Mt. Prospect Cemetery.

City And Town Youthful Y's Groups Gather

Groups of teen-agers from eight aggregations identified in part by names of ancient Greek origin and a smattering of ultra-modern brevities, met yesterday morning at the Y.M.C.A. in the first of a series of shop-talks and social events which will continue today and conclude with church attendance on Sunday.

The gathering, which brought more than a hundred young folk of both sexes to the conference, was sponsored by the Tri-U-H-Y of Charlottetown under the chairmanship of their president, Hugh MacLean and was highlighted by a banquet in the Y.M.C.A. last evening. Brief addresses were given on World Service by Gordon Maxwell Charles Ballum and Earl Taylor. A rousing sing-song was conducted by Peter Whiteness with piano music by John Fielding.

The group of 45 from Summerside are members of the three organizations, Gamma, Beta, and Alpha, all of which contribute largely to the activities of the younger set in that area. The city group is composed of members of Kappa-Phi, Gamma-Phi, Tri-U-H-Y, Beta-Tau and Sigma-Phi.

VARIED TALENTS Last night the activities were of an entertaining and social nature which gave ample scope for the many and varied talents among the members. A special feature which was greatly enjoyed was presented by Duke Nielsen who gave a startling exhibition of sleight-of-hand and flame swallowing.

Another feature which was well received and brought forth much applause was the jitterbug dancing.

on the role of the cagey hotel clerk who gives the scheming uncle the impression he is working on his behalf while he is actually trying to complicate matters for him.

"Kitty Kitty Kitty" was to have been presented to the public last month but a chain of circumstances beyond the control of players or director made this impossible. Mr. Murphy hopes to bring this delightful comedy before a Charlottetown audience early next Fall.
