Freetown Boy Killed In Tractor Mishap Saturday

Arthur Wilton Gardiner, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Camden Gardiner of Freetown died Saturday afternoon at 5.15 as the result of being crushed under an overturned tractor which he had been driving on the highway. The Gardiner boy, along with a companion, Gerald David Lester, had apparently stasted out for a drive with the tractor and in turning on to the highway from a clay road the vehicle skidded and overturned, pinning the Gardiner boy beneath.

His companion escaped with bruises and cuts and was not hospitalized.

The fatality occurred near the Stewart Burns Corner, Freetown and was discovered by his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Baglole, who were driving along the highway. His parents were in Summerside at the time.

The victim was removed from beneath the vehicle and taken to the home of Stewart Burns nearby where he died within a short time.

He is survived by one sister, Carla, at home.

R. C. M. P. from the Summerside Detachment and Coroner Dr. W. E. Callaghan were summoned to the scene and a coroner's jury empanelled. The jury viewed the remains and were adjourned at the call of the coroner. Members were: Joseph Leslie Trainor (foreman), Vincent Gerald Carr, Emerald; Windson S. Campbell, St. Eleanors; Lloyd Eric Reeves, Elmer E. Stetson, Henry William Reeves and James Stewart Burns of Freetown.

Sons Of Temperance Elect Officers Of Grand Division

The annual session of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance of P. E. I. was held in the Cape Wolfe Hall with a public meeting in the evening. This was the 105th session since the Order was organized on P.E. I.

The afternoon session opened with the following officers on duty: Rev. W. H. Forsythe, Grand Worthy Porthy; Irma G. Stewart, Grand Worthy Associate; Norma MacIsaac, Grand Scribe; Frank Jardine, Grand Treasurer; Balfour Read, Grand Conductor; Colin Waugh, Grand Chaplain; Raeford Locke, Past Grand Worthy Patriarch. In the absence of the Grand Sentinel Kenneth Huestis, Allie MacNeill acted in his stead.

COMMITTEES

The following sessional committees were appointed: Credentials— Raeford Locke and Frank Jardine; Returns—Allie MacNeill and Colin Waugh; Courtesy and Resolutions—Eileen Hogg, M. Forsythe and Colin Waugh.

The Chaplain, after reading Judges Chap. 7, gave an address on drinking conditions throughout many countries of the world and the results therefrom.

The G. W. P. in his report predicted that the day would come when the Sons of Temperance would be in a more flourishing role than at the present time.

Frank Jardine in reporting for the delegation that attended the annual sessions of the National Division in Salem, Mass. in July, said that the National Division is a very sound financial condition and emphasized the need for the attendance of Island members at the National Division sessions.

He also noted the very strong gains in division membership in Newfoundland and in some of the Southern States.

Freetown U. C. W. M. S. Holds Annual Meeting

Mrs. Frank Cairns was elected President of Freetown United Church W.M.S. Auxiliary at the annual meeting held in the home of the 1957 President, Mrs. R.A. Profitt.

The meeting opened with the Christmas Worship Service 'Let the song go round the earth, Jesus the Christ is Lord', led by Mrs. Profitt, assisted by Mrs. E. Drummond, Mrs. E. Dammarell, Mrs. A. Rogers and Mrs. R. Schurman.

The Willing Workers Mission Band of Freetown has a membership of eight with an average attendance of five, so Miss Mary Rogers reported. She stated there were other children of Mission Band age which she and Mrs. Schurman, as leaders, were interested in reaching. A discussion followed as to how these children might be reached, and the W.M.S. Auxiliary decided to supply this group with ten copies of the 'World Friends' Magazine, to be distributed as the leaders felt best.

Mrs. E. Dammarell, speaking for the Associate Members reported twelve members and stated that two had withdrawn their membership and had joined the Affiliated W.A. Associate Members Mite Box offering amounted to $15.60.

TALENT FUND

In the treasurer's report, Mrs. A. Rogers reported that the Talent Fund receipts to date had reached the sum of $60.70. Much interest has been displayed in this fund. Several members donated a sum of $1.00 as a sinking fund for material, made something, sold it, and invested their returns in more materials. Members decided the venture had been worth while.

Mrs. Robert Schurman was appointed chairman for the election of officers, which were as follows: President, Mrs. Frank Cairns; Vice president, Mrs. Eldon Drummond; Treasurer, Mrs. Austin Rogers; Recording Secretary, and Corresponding Secretary Mrs. R. Louis Cairns; Christian Stewardship Secretary, Mrs. Hubert MacNeill, Christian Citizenship Secretary, Mrs. D. Drummond; Missionary Monthly Secretary, Mrs. A. Rogers, Press Secretary, Mrs. R.L.
