IN MEMORIAM

JAMES NELSON McGAUGHEY

—A deep gloom was cast over Summerside and vicinity on July 14th when it was learned that James N. McGaughey had, at an early age, passed away of a heart attack. Medical aid was summoned, and everything possible done, but to no avail, as God willed otherwise, and took his home where there is no suffering or pain.

His beloved pastor, Father LeClair, administered the last rites of the Holy Roman Catholic Church of which he was a faithful member, having served as altar boy and as a member of the choir in Seven Mile Bay for a number of years.

He was of a quiet and cheerful disposition, and was ever ready to lend a helping hand when needed.

Mr. McGaughey attended the eleven o'clock mass on Sunday with his sister, at whose wedding he had acted as groomsman the week before. At 11:30 that evening he retired, with no complaint of not feeling well, as he planned the following morning to go to Wellington to work for the C. N.R., with whom he had been employed for the past ten years, and was well liked by employers and employees alike.

He will be missed in the home, where he was devoted to his mother and sister. Since the death of his father twelve years ago, nothing was left undone for them that he could do.

He leaves to mourn, his heart broken mother, and sisters, Eunice, (Mrs. Peter Mulligan) Kinkora; Doris (Mrs. Haviland Rogers); Albert, Theresa (Mrs. Henry Gallant); Summerside; three little nephews and one niece, James Lowell; Charles and Darlene Rogers, whom he dearly loved.

The funeral, which was held on Wednesday morning, July 16th, at St. Joseph's, was largely attended. Solemn Mass of Requiem was celebrated by Rev. Kenneth MacMillan, and in the choir was his cousin, Mr. Arnold McGrath, Seven Mile Bay. The service at the grave was conducted by Father MacMillan and a beloved son, his brother and sister, who predeceased him, to await a glorious Resurrection when all will meet in heaven to part no more.

The pallbearers were his three brothers-in-law, Peter, Mulligan, Haviland Rogers, Henry Gallant, his cousin, Lorne McMurrer, and two close friends, Jack McKenna and Freeman Dockendorf.

"God only knows how we miss you, and the home is so lonesome without you, but some day in heaven we will understand."

The monthly and annual meeting of the Red Point Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Ray Bruce on November 4.

Red Point W. I. Annual Meeting

The election of officers took place and resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Charles Ching; vice-president, Mrs. Russell Garrett; secretary, Mrs. Major Young; directors, Mrs. A. Robertson, Mrs. William Ching, Mrs. Alvah Ching and Mrs. Hugh Campbell; auditors, Mrs. Nelson Stewart and Mrs. S. J. Robertson; Red Cross secretary, Mrs. A. Robertson; organist, Mrs. Alvah Ching.

A letter was read from Mrs. Cudmore, First Aid Director, asking if the Institute would like someone to speak on first aid and it was decided to ask for one to be present at the next meeting.

The school committee reported a kettle and other items needed for the school and it was moved and seconded to get them.

Auction goods were handed in and plans made to have an auction at the December meeting. The Red Cross secretary was asked to send for knitting and sewing. It was decided to get a new minute book. A letter regarding a baby contest was read from Miss Mildred Fraser, Summerside.

Correspondence was read and discussed. It was moved and seconded that Mrs. Major Young and Mrs. Charles Ching attend the meeting regarding the Souris exhibition in Souris the latter part of November, also one of the institute officers attend the meeting in Souris November 27 regarding Institute work.
