VARIETIES.

"WYTCHMEN, TELL US OF THE NIGHT."—The watchmen of Copenhagen still keep up the ancient custom of singing a coral at the hours. The following is the stanza for nine o'clock:

"The day glides by, and sable night appears;
For Jesus's sake, OG od, our sins forgive.
Preserve the Royal Family;
And guard the people, which this land contains,
From danger of the enemy!"

STRANGE COMPANY.—The Exeter News Letters states that a gentleman residing in that town, owns a cow which he dares not send out to pasture or in the streets, such is her malicious disposition and perfect hatred of the human species, and especially of women and children. The owner of the cow also has a cat upon his premises, and although the gentlest treatment in all the blandishment of the dairy have been proffered it, no person has been able to lay hands on it or even to lure it in the house. Strange as it may seem, these two wild animals have the best understanding between themselves, and appear to be perfectly happy in each other's company. While few persons dare approach the head of the cow, the cat sleeps in her manger, or upon the cow's back, eating with the cow from one pail, end receivsing the kindest treatment from her.

THE LAST PROPOSITION.—A gentleman in Iowa proposes to keep cities free from thunder storms "for so much per year." To most people this offer will be looked upon as preposterous and yet it is not.—We have no doubt whatever that au outlay of $10,000 would keep New York as insulated as a glass table with sealing wax legs. What a gentlemaa in Iowa proposes to do for us has already been done for the growers of the south of France. By means of a well arranged system of lightning rods, a whole district hasbeen rendered inaccessible to those destructive hail storms which so frequently follow in the train of thunder showers. What has been done in France can be done elsewhere. If we can teach lightning to wait, we can teach it to believe itself.—Lowell Courier.

NOVEL WAY OF HOLDING A HORSE.—A gentleman travelling through Germany, thus describes a novel method of fastening a horse which he saw put in practice by a German blacksmith:—

"As soon as breakfast was over, I generally enjoyed the luxury of riding about town, and in passing the shop of a blacksmith, the manner in which he tackled and shod a vicious horse amused me. On the outside of the wall of the house, rings were firmly fixed to one of which the patient's head was fastened close to the ground; the hind foot to be shod stretched out to the utmost extent of the leg, was then secured by the other ring about five feet high, by a cord which passed through a cloven hitch, fixed to the root of the poor creature's tail.—The hind foot was consequently very much higher than the head; indeed, it was quite exalted, and pulled so heavily at the tail, that the animal seemed to be quite anxious to keep his other foot on terra firma. With one foot in the heavens, it did not suit him to kick; with his nose pointing to the infernal regions, he could not conveniently rcar; and as a heavy band was constantly pulling at his tail, the horse at last gave up the point and quickly submitted to be shod."

THE REASON WHY BRUDDER DICKSON LEFT THE CHURCH—Mr. Dickson, a colored barber in one of our New England towns was shaving one of his customers, a respectable citizen, one morning, when a conversation occured between them respecting Mr. Dickson's former connection with a colored church in that place.

"I believe you are connected with the church in Elm Street, Mr. Dickson," said the customer.

"No sah, not at all."

"What, are you not a member of the African church?"

"Not dis year, sah."

"Why did you leave their communion. Mr. Dickson? if I may be permitted to ask."

"Why, I tell you sah," said Mr. Dickson, strapping a concave razor on the palm of his hand. "It was jess like dis—I jined that church in good faif. I gib ten dollars towards de stated preachin' of de gospill, de fust year, and de church people all call me Brudder Dickson. De second year my business not good, and I only gib five dollars. Dat year de church people call me Mister Dickson. De razo' hurt you sah?"

"No, razo' goes tolbul well"

"Well sah, de third year I feel berry poor—sickness in my family—and I did'nt gib nuffin for preachin'. Well, sah, arter dat dey call me ole niggar Dichson, an'I leff 'em."

A late writer says that the people of a Central America are so primitive, that shirts and pantaloons are considered innovations.

There is no greater obsticle in the way of success in life than trusting for something to turn up instead of going steadily to work and turning up something.

FUBBS, while recently engaged in splitting wood, struck a false blow, causing the stick to fly up. It stuck him on the jaw and knocked out a front tooth. "Ah, said Bill, meeting him soon after, "you have had a dental operation performed, I see." "Yes." replied the sufferer, "acci-dental!" And by such a pun he revenged himself upon fate.

"Pray, Miss C,," said a gentleman the other evening, "why are ladies so fond of officers?"

"How stupid!" replied she; "is it not natural that a lady should like a good offer, sir?"

CHERRY PECTORAL,
For the rapid Cure of
COUGHS. COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

Among the numerous discoveries Science has made in this generation to facilitate the business of life—increase its enjoyment, and even prolong the term of human existence, none can be named of more real value to mankind, than this contribution of Chemistry to the Healing Art. A vast trial of its virtues throughout this broad country, has proven beyond a doubt, that no medicine or combination of medicines yet known, can so surely control and cure the numerous varieties of pulmonary disease which have hitherto swept from our midst thousands and thousands every year. Indeed, there is now abundant reason to believe a Remedy has at length been found which can be relied on, to cure the most dangerous affections of the lungs. Our space here will not permit us to publish any proportion of the cures effected by its use, but we would present the following:—and refer further enquiry to my American Almanac, which the agent below named, will always be pleased to furnish free, wherein are full particulars, and indisputable proof of these statements.

Office of Transportation, Laurens R. R., S. C., Aug. 4, 1853.

J. C. AYER. Dear Sir,—My little son four years old has just recovered from a severe attack of malignant Scarlet Fever, his throat was rotten, and every person that visited him, pronounced him a dead child. Having used your CHERRY PECTORAL in California, in the winter of 1850, for a severe attack of Bronchitis, with entire succes, I was induced to try it on my little boy. I gave him a tea-spoon-ful every three hours, commencing in the morning, and by ten o'clock at night, I found a decided change for the better, and after three days use he was able to eat or drink without pain.

Its use in the above named disease will save many a child from a premature grave, and relieve the anxiety of many a fond parent.—For all affections of the Throat and Lungs, I believe it the best medicine extant. A feeling of the deepest gratitude, prompts me in addressing you these lines,—but for your important discovery, my little boy would now have been in another world.

I am yours, with great respect,
J. D. POWELL, Supt. Trans., L. R.R.

Rock Hill, (Somerset Co.,) N. J., July 21, 1852.

Dr. J. C AYER,—Since your medicine has become known here, it has a greater demand than any other cough remedy we have ever sold. It is spoken of in terms of unmeasured praise by those who have used it, and I know of some cases where the best they can say of it, is not too much for the good it has done. I take pleasure in selling it, because I know that I am giving my customers the worth of their money, and I feel gratified in seeing the benefit it confers.

Please send me a further supply, and believe me

Yours, with respect,
JOHN C. WHITLOCK.

Almost any number of certificates can be sent you, if you wish it.

Windsor, C. W., June 26, 1852.

J. C. AYER. Sir; This may certify that I have used your CHERRY PECTORAL for upwards of one year; and it is my sincere belief that I should have been in my grave ere this time if I had not. It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs, and I do not overstate my convictions when I tell you it is a priceless remedy.

Yours very respectfully,
D. A. McCULLIN, Attorney at Law.

Wilksbarre, Pa., September 28, 1850.

DR. J. C. AYER, My dear Sir,—Your medicine is much approved of by those who have used it here, and its composition is such as to insure and maintain its reputation. Invariably recommend it for pulmonary affections, as do many of our principal physicians.

I am your friend,
CHAS. STREATER, M. D.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF LOSS OF HEALTH, DISORDERED STOMACH, INDIGESTION AND DETERMINATION OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. John Lloyd, of Erw wen, near Harlech, Merionethshire.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—I avail myself of the first opportunity of informing you, that, for a very long period, I was afflicted with a dangerous giddiness and frequent swimmings in the head, attended by loss of appetite, disordered stomach, and generally impaired health. Every means had failed to give me any permanent relief, and at length it became so alarming, that I was really afraid of going about without an attendant. In this melancholy condition, I waited personally upon Mr. Hughes, Chemist, Harlech, for the purpose of consulting him as to what I had better do; he kindly recommended your Pills, I tried them without delay, and after taking them for a short time I am happy to bear testimony to their wonderful efficacy. I am now restored to perfect health, and enabled to resume my usual duties. You are at liberty to publish this letter in any way you may think proper.

I am, Sir, your obedient Servant'

MIRACULOUS CURE OF DROPSY.

Extract of a Letter from Edward Rowley, Esq., of India Walk, Tobago, dated April 8th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I deem it a duty I owe to you and the public at large to inform you of a most miraculous recovery from that dreadful disease, DROPSY, and which, under God, was effected by your invaluable Pills. I was tapped five times within eight months, and skilfully treated by two medical practitioners, but could not get cured, until I had recourse to your remedy, and notwithstanding all I had undergone, this miraculous medicine cured me in the course of six weeks. (Signed) EDWARD ROWLEY.

A DANGEROUS LIVER COMPLAINT AND SPASM IN THE STOMACH EFFECTUALLY CURED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Bostock, Druggist, of Ashton under Lyne, dated July 31, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I have much pleasure in banding to you a testimonial of the efficacy of your Medicines. A person in this neighbourhood, with whom I am well acquainted, was affected, for a long time with violent spasmodic pains in the stomach and liver, arising from frequent colds, smells of paint, and the effects of a stooping position, which he was obliged to assume in his business. The spasms were of an alarming character, and frequently left him in a weak and debilitated condition. At length he heard of the salutary effects of your invaluable Pills, and was induced to give them a trial. The first dose gave him considerable relief, and by following them up in accordance with your directions, they have acted so wonderfully in cleansing the liver and stomach, and strengthening the digestive organs, that he has been restored to the enjoyment of good health.

I remain, dear Sir, yours faithfully,
(Signed) WILLIAM BOSTOCK.

INFALLIBLE CURE OF A STOMACH COMPLAINT, WITH INDIGESTION AND VIOLENT HEAD-ACHES.

Extract of a Letter from S. Gowen, Chemist, of Clifton, Near Bristol, dated July 14th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I am requested by a Lady named Thomas, just arrived from the West Indies, to acquaint you, that, for a period of eight years herself and family suffered from continual bad health, arising from disorders of the Liver and Stomach, Indigestion, loss of Appetite, violent Head-aches, pains in the side weakness and general debility, for which she consulted the most eminent men in the colony, but without any beneficial result; at last, she had recourse to your invaluable Pills, which in a very short time effected so great a change for the better, that she continued them, and the whole family were restored to health and strength. Further she desires me to say, that she has witnessed their extraordinary virtues in those complaints incidental to children, particularly in cases of Measles and Scarlatina, having effected positive cures of these diseases with no other remedy.

(Signed) S. GOWEN.

These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacious in the following complaints.

Ague	Dropsy	Inflammation
