FEBRUARY 17, 1885.

Our Indians.

SIR JOHN MACDONALD has submitted a full and elaborate report about the Indians of Canada. He has evidently taken pains to obtain all the information he could about these interesting subjects of his particular department.

In Prince Edward Island, Sir John says:—

"The condition of Indian matters is not as satisfactory as we would wish. The two reserves, viz., on Lennox Island and in Township 39, fail to attract to them all the Indians in the Province. In fact, as many reside off the reserves as upon them.

The Department has held out inducements to the non-residents to remove to the reserves, offering to assist them in building houses, and in the cultivation of land; but little effect has attended these efforts. In the case of some of the non-resident Indians—for instance, those at Rocky Point—it is perhaps better that they should remain where they are, as they are doing tolerably well, from an industrial point of view, and occupy comfortable houses.

The school is reported to be efficiently conducted, and the progress of the pupils who attend regularly to be good; but the attendance is very small when compared with the number of children on Lennox Island of an age to attend school.

This is a specimen. It is from the Pioneer. There is not the slightest ground for the delicate insinuation, that Dr McIntyre's illness has something to do with Conservative organization in King's County. The movement was contemplated long before Dr. McIntyre was taken ill, and we feel sure that those who advertised the meeting at George town, knew nothing whatever about Dr. McIntyre's illness when the advertisement was inserted.

We have great pleasure in directing the attention of our readers, especially young farmers' sons and farmers' daughters, to the essay of Mr. James D. Dewar, printed in this day's issue, entitled: "Farming the Most Honorable and Profitable Pursuit." It is well written, and may, therefore, be easily read. The reading of it will make those young people who are inclined to fret over farm work think twice before they try to better their condition by coming to live in the towns, and setting up as shopkeepers, etc.

Four miles of thin ice and a strong northeast wind prevented the couriers yesterday from crossing the Straits. Had there been a powerful tugboat at Cape Traverse, this difficulty would have been overcome and the mails would have been forwarded to and from the Island.

Mrs Jarley and Her Waxworks.

This inimitable lady and her accomplished husband entertained a large audience of our citizens last evening in the Atheronum. The figures were all that we ventured to predict. They were exceedingly life-like and amusing in a high degree,—though, as the good lady proprietress had occasion more than once to remark, they had "got knocked about considerable while coming over in their boats."

Struck by a Train.

MR. DIXON'S NARROW ESCAPE AT ROYALTY JUNCTION.

Mr. William Dixon, a farmer who resides a short distance from Royalty Junction had, last evening, a miraculous escape from death. He was driving towards home with a load of wood, and track just as he was crossing the railway, Tignish freight train, in charge of Conductor McKie, came rushing along.

Dynamite Legislation Necessary.

Anti-dynamite legislation cannot proceed too quickly. Recently in New York threats were used in connection with dry-goods employers that if they discharge certain clerks their stores would be destroyed by dynamite, and within a few days' war has been carried into this new field of operations.

English Land Owners in the United States

There is at this moment a bill before Congress, presented by the Committee on Public Lands, that has for its object the placing of restrictions on the ownership of land by aliens. The bill is undoubtedly directed against the English capitalist, and when the investment of his millions is interfered with by legislation in the United States there is little doubt of a large portion of his capital finding its way to the newly opened up Canadian North-West.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

"The Church in Council."

SIR,—The address of the Rev. Gregory McDonald, on the above subject, was no doubt extremely edifying to the members and friends of the "Catholic Literary Union."

Whether, however, the report of it which appeared in the DAILY EXAMINER will be as interesting to your readers who do not belong to the Rev. gentleman's denomination, is another matter, though some of the statements therein contained will at least be new to them.

How he accomplished such a feat, in view of the fact that for many years after the Christian Church was established, the Bishops of Rome neither claimed nor exercised power over other Bishops—was unfortunately not stated in your report. Even at the Council of Chalcedon, to which the lecturer referred, held A. D., 451, the Bishop of New Rome (Constantinople) was on precisely the same equality with the Bishop of Old Rome; and it was not till A. D., 606, that the Emperor Phocas conferred on the latter the title of "Universal Bishop."

The idea of claiming that the early General Councils of the Christian Church belong exclusively to the Roman Catholic body is preposterous. All Roman Catholic General Councils must be called by the Pope and presided over by him; but the Council of Nice was neither called by the Bishop of Rome, nor presided over by him. He was not even present at it.

THE VIOLIN.

MR. VINNICOMBE is now prepared to take a limited number of pupils for Violin Instruction by "Dancla's" conservatory method, which is so complete that each pupil is enabled to form a part of one harmonized body, thereby making the tuition a pleasure instead of the old class drudgery.
