Strange But True

By F. H. MacArthur

For the first time in their lives Ontario's 36,000 Indians can now purchase and drink booze in the licensed beverages rooms of that province. Yet strange but true, they are not allowed to purchase beer or wine in liquor control board stores, or in the stores of wine producers.

A New Year's card mailed in 1911 from Paterson, N.J., to Pequannock, N. J. — a distance of five miles recently reached its destination after traveling about the country for 43 years.

The much traveled card was addressed to Mrs. John Deming and signed "Ella".

Mrs. Deming moved to El Paso, Texas, four years ago. Her son-in-law, Joseph Farrel, got the card recently at the Patterson address. He said Ella was an aunt, now dead.

Did you know that in Canada now, more than 15 1-2 million persons pay income tax whereas before the war only 3 1-2 million persons toed the income tax line.

A few persons got a rebate when they purchased some of the millions of pounds of "surplus" pork which the government bought from various packing houses for 57 cents per pounds and later sold it to the public at 26 cents per 12 ounce can.

The new bank notes of this country will have a new look, be a little shorter, and as brightly hued as the rainbow, but with all their overhauling they won't be worth any more to you and me than the old ones. And as for being a bit shorter — well, they have always been short with most of us.

Mrs. Bessie Fowler, blind for the past 20 years, is one of three women members of the Lion's Club International because of "her outstanding community service."

Always accompanying her is her 7-year-old seeing-eye dog Doberman pinscher.

Mrs. Fowler was honored by the Lions for teaching braille, and raising money to provide expensive guide, dogs to those who live in darkness.

Thus far Mrs. Fowler has been able to raise funds for the purchase of 400 seeing-eye dogs for her blind fellow beings.

The intelligence of these dogs is amazing. Take Mrs. Fowler's own dog for example. A bell boy has only to take the dog to a room once and he will go back there on command. After she has paid a second visit to a person she has but to pronounce the person's name and her faithful dog will lead her straight to his home.

He escorts his mistress to the elevator, sees that she does not walk into puddles, and butts a path with his nose through crowds on the street.

This valuable dog is all business when in harness, but once relieved of his duties he is ready for a fight or a frolic.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Mrs. Annie Noonan, Summerside, P. E. I., who passed away 1 year ago, December 28th, 1953.

She is gone, but not forgotten.

Lovingly Remembered by Brother Jack and Family.

In loving memory of our dear Mother, Mrs. J. Stewart, who passed away December 21st, 1954.

This is a a day of remembrance
With many sad regrets
A day we shall always remember
When some of the world forgets.

Always Remembered by the Family.

In loving memory of my dear Husband,

VERNON PARSONS

who passed away

December 29th, 1942.

Since you're gone first and I remain
To walk the road alone
I live in memory's garden dear
With happy days we've known.

I hear your voice; I see your smile
Though blindly I may grope
The memory of your helping hand
Still buoys me up with hope.

We've known so much of happiness
We've had our cup of joy,
And memory is one gift of God
That death can not destroy.
Lovingly Remembered by his Wife.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Robert MacLeod, who departed this life December 29th.

Nothing can ever take away
The love a heart holds dear
Fond memories linger every day
Remembrance keeps him dear.
He sleeps in God's beautiful garden
Sheltered from sorrow and pain
And when life's journey is ended
We shall meet our loved one again.

Sadly Missed, Lovingly Remembered by his Wife and Family.
