

Local and Other Items.

H. PEICK WEBBER will shortly begin his annual tour through the provinces with a dramatic company.

A full attendance of members of the Catholic Literary Union is expected at the adjourned meeting to-night.

The judge presiding at the Cork Assizes, on the 24th inst., remarked that the great decrease in crime, and publicly congratulated the people and the police.

The St. Paul's Sunday School Picnic came off yesterday afternoon at Warblington, North River Road, and was a very enjoyable affair for both children and adults.

Mrs. Dodge, wife of Henry J. Dodge, of the Chicago Inter-Ocean, referred to in these columns a short time ago, arrived here in the steamer Carroll last evening.

LEGAL.—A Mrs. Lewis, of Moncton, assaulted a Mrs. Babang for selling her husband a stick of candy. The matter will be settled by the Stipendiary Magistrate.

SCOTT ACT FINE.—The first Scott Act fine in Moncton was paid on the 23rd inst. to constable Burgess and handed over to inspector Grant. Mr. M. B. Keith was the payer.

EXCURSION.—Those who desire a pleasant sail on the water had better avail themselves of the opportunity offered to-morrow evening. Steamer Southport will leave Prince Street Wharf at 7.30, returning at 9.30. Tickets 15 cents.

FOUND DROWNED.—The body of an unknown man was picked up on Monday in the Pettaquidiac river at Moncton. The remains are supposed to be those of Thomas White, who attended the railway track and has been missing for about ten days.

MASTER JOHN W. PORTER arrived in the steamer Carroll last evening on a visit to his grand parents in this city. Master Porter is a healthy youth of eleven years and weighs 185 pounds. He is quite interesting in conversation, and altogether a good specimen of humanity.

WHAT A COW DID.—At Swanee, Georgia, on the 27th inst., on the Richmond & Danville railroad, a train ran over a cow, throwing one car from the track. In the car were 15 negro train hands and six bars of iron. The car turned on its side, and the iron fell upon the negroes, killing seven and wounding three more.

THERE are 268 candidates for the examination for autumn to the Prince of Wales College and Normal School, to be held on the 3rd and 4th of August next. This is the largest number ever enrolled for examination. His Honor Judge Young kindly offers a prize to the candidate who makes the highest number of marks.

DROWNED.—Says the Windsor, N.S. Courier: A boy by the name of Ryan was drowned at Horton Bluff on Thursday. His body has not been recovered. He appears to have remained standing on a ledge of rocks until completely surrounded by water, or made no attempt to escape. He was not a very bright lad, and it is thought he became bewildered as the waters closed around him.

CAPE TORMENTINE BRANCH.—A correspondent of the St. John Sun says: The subsidy has put new life into the P. E. Island and Cape Tormentine R.R., and it is confidently expected now that through trains will be running to the Cape by Christmas. A regular passenger car will be put on to run to Bayfield in a few days. The prospects of the Marine R.R. do not evoke very much enthusiasm just yet.

DAY after day the evidence accumulates that the "Myrtle Navy" is the people's favorite tobacco. The demand keeps increasing, and from every new circle of consumers who have been induced to try it, the evidence is emphatic in its favor. Its genuine qualities always hold the friend they have once made. These qualities will be kept up to their full standard by the manufacturers of it. It is to these qualities and the reasonableness of the price that they attribute their marked success. To the quality they will adhere to at all costs, also to the price if that be possible.

THE FIRE AT GEORGETOWN.—Regarding the fire at McDonald Bros. Store, Georgetown, a correspondent writes: "No people could do more, men, women and children, worked like Trojans, and doing everything possible to save the building. The members of the Bar, Messrs. Davies, Hodgson, Peters, Morson and Weeks, worked admirably. Mr. Davies stood in smoke and water for two hours working, and only left when he was completely exhausted and wet to the skin. The strangers, too, from different parts of the country, took off their coats, went to work with energy, and contributed largely towards the saving of the building and the greatest portion of its contents."

THE steamer Carroll, Capt. Brown, arrived from Boston on Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, with freight and the following passengers: Miss Florence J. Gray, Miss Emily Cowperthwaite, Miss Robina Bernard, Mr. C. Williams, Mr. Lamra, J. P. Hyde, G. R. Nazro, Wm. Nazro, Edward Nazro, Dr. A. S. Silver, J. McCochan, Edward Silver, Miss F. Hassam, P. E. Blanchard and wife, N. A. Sawyer and wife, Mrs. B. McDonald, Mrs. Binns, Mrs. Ida Binns, Miss L. D. Rose, Mr. M. McLeod, Susie Lewellen, E. Robinson, Jessie Sutherland, Mrs. Charles McLeod, Mrs. Thomas McLeod, Miss Mary McKenna, Miss Eva McLeod, Mrs. Dodge, Miss Isabella Gordon, Miss Chrissy Beaton, Miss Sarah McLellan, Mrs. Sinclair, Miss Katie Forbes, H. S. Kelly, John W. Porter, K. McLeod, Park Baldwin, John Fletcher, W. H. Austin, Mrs. A. Leeson, Lizzie Lawlor, Flora Campbell, Mary McDonald, Bell's McLeod.

A young man named Prenty was arraigned before the Stipendiary Magistrate this forenoon charged with assaulting Mr. George Irving, of Cape Traverse. It appears from the evidence taken that Irving and another countryman were proceeding to the Railway Station on Thursday last, when Prenty and a man named Brogan attacked them with stones. Irving received a severe wound in the side of the head from a stone thrown by Prenty. He thereupon discharged a revolver several times in the air and frightened off the assailants. Prenty and Irving were afterwards arrested—the former for the assault and the latter for discharging fire-arms. In giving his decision this forenoon the Stipendiary Magistrate stated that from the evidence received the assault was committed by Brogan and Prenty for the purpose of robbery, and that Irving being severely wounded, was in self defence justified in using the revolver. He therefore sentenced Prenty to two months imprisonment with hard labor, and ordered that Irving's revolver be confiscated and that he be set at liberty.

Bright's Insult to the Parnellites

LONDON, July 28.

In the Commons this evening Mr. Callon moved that Mr. Bright's speech at the recent banquet to Earl Spencer be considered "a treaty of privilege."

Bright said that if his words were censurable, he regretted using them. His opinion, nevertheless, remained unchanged. It was a fact that the Parnellites had assailed Earl Spencer and the Crown officer. If he had said otherwise he was a fool for making statements absolutely untrue and would have laughed him to scorn.

Sir Michael Hicks Beach said he thought that if Mr. Bright had spoken in Parliament the words he had used at the banquet he could have been called to order. But it was inadvisable to make these occasions causes for motion of breach of privilege.

In the debate which ensued, acrimonious remarks were made by several Irish members. Mr. Callon begged leave to withdraw his motion, the object of which he said had been attained.

Leave to withdraw was refused. The motion was then rejected by 154 to 231.

A Difficulty—How Met.

OTTAWA, July 29.

The fact has just been brought to light that when Lord Lansdowne visited the Roman Catholic University of Ottawa, a few weeks ago, an Irish American student was asked by Father Fubaret, the Superior, to read an address of welcome to Lord Lansdowne. This he declined to do, on the ground that the Governor General belonged to a class whom he described as oppressive to his race. The difficulty was ultimately got over by one McKinnon, a Scotch Catholic student of P. E. Island, reading the address.

Riel's Trial.

REGINA, July 29.

Riel's trial was resumed to-day. The counsel for the defence said they were ready to proceed with the trial.

Oiler opened the case for the Crown. He read a document from Riel to Major Crozier, demanding the surrender of Fort Carleton. He charged the prisoner with a disposition to further his own ends, rather than the interest of half breeds.

The speech was an able effort, and was characterized by clearness and firmness.

DIED.

At his father's residence, Cape Bear, June 15th, David, eldest son of David and Mary Calhoun, aged 23. The cause of his death was consumption. In his case there were evidences given that to depart this life was only to be absent from the body to be present with the Lord. For some time previous to his death, he was calm, trusting in Christ; and though he knew he must die, his peace was unmolested. To his bereaved parents and brother, he left as a precious legacy, the testimony that he was going a little before to await their approach to the other shore.

Departed this life, May 2nd, Mary Stewart, wife of Isaac Stewart, sen., aged 76. For some years she was a great sufferer, unable to leave her home, but although she was so afflicted, she bore testimony that Christ was her support, His grace was sufficient. She leaves an aged partner who has the sympathy of the community.
