Messrs. Pius McCarthy and Russel MacIntyre have returned to their homes in Mt. Stewart after a visit to several of the industrial centres of Nova Scotia.

A large crowd attended the ever popular bingo held in the St. Francis Hall on Monday night. Mr. Francis MacDonald won the 98 lb. bag of flour while Mrs. John McKeeney held the lucky ticket for the door prize.

The many friends of Mr. John F. MacMillan of Canavoy will be pleased to learn that his condition has so far improved as to permit of his discharge from the Charlottetown Hospital and his return to his home. All join in the hope that Mr. MacMillan's condition will continue to improve until once again he enjoys his full measure of health.

Miss Jacqueline Cuminsky of Charlottetown has returned to her home after a pleasant holiday at Mt. Stewart where she was the guest of relatives.

The dance held in St. Andrew's Parish Hall, Mt. Stewart, and sponsored by the C. Y. O. of the parish afforded the usual pleasant entertainment for the large crowd in attendance. Music was supplied by MacKinnon's Orchestra.

Mrs. Ivan Leard of Mt. Stewart left recently for Marathon, Ontario where she will join her husband and at which centre they will in the future reside. Mrs. Leard, one of the most popular ladies of Mt. Stewart, took a keen and active interest in all community activities. Her place will be a difficult one to fill. It is the sincere wish of all however that Mr. and Mrs. Leard will be thoroughly contented in the home of their choice and that they may enjoy many, many years of happy wedded life.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Birt of Mt. Stewart were visitors to Charlottetown during the week.

Legion Branch Meeting Held At Montague

The regular meeting of the Montague branch Canadian Legion was held last night at the Legion Hall with the president, J. S. DesRoches, presiding. There were twenty-one members present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, and the correspondence was discussed.

The Red Cross swimming and water safety program for the coming year was discussed and some plans were made which will be further discussed at later meetings.

It was moved and seconded that a donation be made to the Boy Scout financial campaign. Considerable discussion took place regarding the sponsoring the school hockey and sports for the winter season. This program has been undertaken by the Legion for the past number of years, providing equipment, and a coach for each team. Their interest and time has been rewarded by a more active interest on the part of the youngsters in organized hockey and sports. The Legion has given every effort to develop sporting for the children of the community through financial assistance, equipment and personnel, and plan to continue this program through the coming year.

The secretary reported that all baseball equipment used during the past summer had been turned in.

The president welcomed several former members, stating that a growing membership was a healthy sign in any organization.

Following the meeting a social period was enjoyed and a delicious lunch was served.

Scottish Concert Enjoyed By Audience In Montague

The Scots Theatre, Montague, was filled to capacity Wednesday evening for the annual Scottish concert sponsored by the choir of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. Each number on the program was superbly rendered and deserving of the hearty applause of the large, appreciative audience.

Mr. W. R. Snaw, Charlottetown, presided as master of ceremonies and Mrs. A. F. Campbell, Mrs. D. M. MacDonald and Miss Eleanor Minchin were piano accompanists.

The Brooklyn trio, Messrs. Willard Bruce, John Bears and Malcolm Munro, received hearty applause for their rendition of "The Gathering of the Clans", "Afton Waters", and "Will Ye No Come Back Again". A group of songs by eight bonnie lassies included "Speed Bonnie Boat", "Bonnie Laddie, Highland Laddie", "Whistle And 'Il Come To You, My Lad". The lassies were Joanne Waterworth, Shirley Stewart, Pauline Nicholson, Marjorie Gillis, Mabel MacLean, Carol Boehner, Elaine Poole and Heather Jamieson.

During intermission excellent Scottish music was played by Mrs. James MacBeath, piano, and Mr. John Webster, violin. A duet, "The Crooked Babbee", by Messrs. John Bears and Willard Bruce (in costume), was sung, followed by a group of girls dancing the Highland Fling. This group included Heather Fraser, Evelyn Fraser, Gwen Clark, Norma Llewellyn, Diane MacLeod and Judy MacDonald.

An entertainment of outstanding talent was brought to a close with the singing of Auld Lang Syne, and God Save The Queen. A reception for the performers and their friends was held in the church hall and a delicious lunch was served.

RED CROSS MEETING—The Ivy Red Cross members held their regular meeting at Whim Road School on Friday afternoon, January 21. The President opened the meetings in the usual manner. Following the reading of the minutes of the last meeting by the secretary, it was agreed that the money derived from the Christmas concert be used to buy a science kit for the school. It was reported that the trustees of the school had agreed to supply a cabinet for the kit. The Red Cross news letter was read and roll call answered. At the next roll call articles are to be made and auctioned. The committee reported and the following new committees were appointed: sick, Brian MacBeth and Kenny MacDonald; water, Johnny Clarey and Bob Stewart; police, David Moore and David MacCann; health, Cameron Munro and Norman Clarey. It was decided that at the next meeting there would be a debate "resolved that women are better drivers than men".
