Here We Are Again!

McLEOD & McKENZIE,
STAR MERCHANT TAILORS,
The Original and Peerless Artists of Our Day.

THE ABOVE HAS BEEN A SETTLED FACT FOR YEARS, and to keep before the public what is so well known to every good dresser in this Province, may seem superfluous. But as a good dinner tends to give a quietus to the disturbing influences within the inner man, so a thorough knowledge of our capabilities will give a quietus to anyone who may have had the good fortune of being dressed by us. The sun rises and sets, and it appears to the ordinary judgment that the sun revolves around the earth instead of the earth revolving around the sun; so we, through the immense strides we have taken in our art, would appear to the uneducated to be moving around our many friends, instead of they moving around us; like the sun imparts its warm rays to revive drooping nature, so we are the benefactors of our people, by aiming high and attaining to a STYLE and FINISH in our garments, which cannot but commend us as the MERCHANT TAILORING PHILANTHROPISTS of our day.

Are you anxious to test the foregoing? Come in, then, and see our line of Goods, which are superior, in every sense of the word, and we will fit you out with a Suit which will doubtless draw the loving remark from your best girl that she has "the best dressed young man in town." Call early, if you must have it before 1st July.

Local and Other Items.

COMMENDABLE.—A home for aged females is being erected at Yarmouth, N. S.

TO KEEP the beard from turning gray, and thus prevent the appearance of age, use Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers, the best dye made.

THE REGATTA.—The local oarsmen are hard at work practicing for the races on Wednesday next. The time made in the trial heats is very good.

HE FOUND OUT.—"Reduce your gas bills seventy-five per cent. Secret for $1." read an advertisement which a Brooklyn man answered. He received this terse reply by return mail: "Burn kerosene."

THE CHICKEN ESCAPED.—Dave Williams, a prosperous Independence, La., farmer, accidentally killed his 18 year old wife a few days ago. He fired his gun at a chicken in the yard, when his wife inadvertently got in front of the muzzle.

NOTICE.—Agents of Life, Marine and Fire Insurance Company Associations are requested to pay their annual license fee at once, according to 51 Vic., cap. 12, sec. 73, otherwise summons will be issued.—ROBERT VAN DERBEEK, City Collector. 31—ju21

LORNE HOTEL.—Railway return tickets at one first-class fare will be issued on Wednesday, the 26th inst., from Charlottetown to Bedford Station, by morning train, to parties going to the Lorne Hotel sale. Teams will be at Bedford Station, on arrival of train, to convey passengers to and from the sale at small fares.—ju21

I. O. O. F.—The Joint Degree Staff met at Oddfellows Hall last evening. The following are officers until 31st December, 1889: Benj. Brenner, Degree Master; Pope Clarke, Deputy Degree Master; W. G. Gillespie, Drill Instructor; Theo. L. Chappelle, Secretary. Thursday evening will be regular night of meeting.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—A young man named Arthur Panbram was killed in his father's saw mill at Chenerville, Que., on Thursday afternoon. He was working near a circular saw when a log struck him on the legs, causing him to fall on the saw, which severed his head from his body. The deceased leaves a wife and child to mourn their loss.

MORE RELICS FOUND.—A few days ago some laborers, while working at the widening of St. John Street, Quebec, found a lot of copper coins bearing the date 1600 and the likeness of Henry IV., King of France. A cannon ball and old style bayonet also were found. They will be kept as relics of the mighty conflict for supremacy between the French and English at the birth of this country.

INFORMATION FOR SKATERS.—It is said that Mr. John Forbes, of Halifax, the inventor of the Acme skate, has produced a new skate which is described "as absolutely perfect in its instantaneous adaptability, without any preliminary adjustment, to fit any boot the skater may chance to wear." Mr. Forbes also makes a very important change in the runner of the new skate, which adapts it alike for speed and for figure skating.

FATHER DAMIEN'S SUCCESSOR.—Father Callaghan, of Castle Garden, New York, who some time ago sent to the leper settlement at Molokai several cases of clothing, received a letter from Father Wendelin, the successor of Father Damien, thanking him for the gift. Father Wendelin says that he has not as yet experienced any indications of the dread malady, but that the disease has stricken down his assistant, Father Conroy. The five Sisters of Mercy sent to the settlement from Syracuse are reported as doing well.

A NEW DEVICE.—The people of Biddeford, Me., are just now very much interested in a new device of the rumblers, brought to light by a recent seizure. The objects of curiosity are two tin cans, crescent shaped and made to fit closely to the side of a human body. They are about fourteen inches high and not over an inch wide at the widest parts. Each is provided with a mouthpiece and a stopper. This beats the bottle tied to the wire of a hoopskirt at once time a favorite device of some Lewiston female law-breakers.

AT HIS OLD TRICKS.—John L. Sullivan is on another big drunk, and many people think that he will not be able to come to time with Kilrain next month. It appears that on Friday evening last, while "punching the bag," his trainer, Muldoon, the wrestler, offered a suggestion which Sullivan did not take kindly to, but which Muldoon insisted upon his accepting. Sullivan got vexed at his trainer's persistency, and, after cursing him roundly, left in disgust, and going to the nearest hotel, began imbibing freely. At latest accounts Sullivan was still on the spree, and protesting that he would not go back to Muldoon's place if he never met Kilrain. [The foregoing is the story told in the despatches. The New York Sun says it is not true; that the story has been put in circulation for the purpose of influencing betting, which is 100 to 50 in favor of Sullivan.]

MRS. SCOTT-SIDDONS.—The name of Siddons will be identified with the dramatic stage so long as Shakespeare and the drama live, and the lady who now bears the honored and historic name is worthy of it. Mrs. Scott-Siddons has a world-wide reputation as a dramatic reader, and proved herself to be worthy her high reputation as an artist. The audience last evening was delighted. It is the effect which her readings produce that lends the charm. The sleep-walking scene from "Macbeth" was magnificent in its rendering; "The Revenge" of Tennyson, bold and patriotic, and Scott's "Death of Constance" pathetic and sweet. Mrs. Siddons is at the head of her chosen profession; her voice is bell-like and sweet in its intonation, her manner graceful, and her reading the perfection of histrionic culture. One learns something from the entertainment, and all who were present last night appreciated it.—The Gazette, Montreal. At the Lycum Wednesday, 26th inst.

N. B. and P. E. I. Conference.

CONFERENCE SAYINGS AND DOINGS.

(Special Correspondence of The Examiner.)

St. JOHN, N. B., June 19.

Yesterday there was a march upon the city, from all sides, of ministerial and lay delegates to the annual Methodist Conference that has convened in St. John. The great Centenary Church has been ensnathed in an old-fashioned mantle of fog for two whole weeks, but the bright countenances of the gathered ecclesiastical host seems to have driven the damp shadows back into their mother bay. To-day the streets have the full complement of clerical dresses, which, by the way, among the Methodist Ministers, are varied, ranging all the way from the exact style of the cathedral priest to the long white duster and calico umbrella—a favorite equipment of some brethren.

The lay delegates are a good-looking body of men in general, some of them rather verdant, but all benignant in expression, and eager to learn the methods of church procedure and work.

Everyone expects a good time, St. John being proverbial for the hospitality of its people. There are also many things to be seen by those visiting the city for the first time, while every night interesting public meetings are to be held.

Conference opened at 9 a. m., in the Centenary Church.

Devotional exercises, lasting for half an hour, were led by the retiring President, Rev. C. H. Pauley, A. M.

The roll was then called, most of the ministerial members of Conference being present, with a good sprinkling of lay members.

The election of President was the next business, and was carried on with much interest and expectation. At the first ballot there was no election, Rev. Prof. Burwash taking the lead. Upon a second voting, the Rev. H. P. Cowperthwaite was elected.

The retiring President welcomed the incoming officer, hoping that he would receive during the year a like measure of the blessing of God and the favor of his brethren, as he himself had enjoyed during the past year.

The President-elect then spoke a few appropriate words, saying he was resting upon the promises and trusting in the Blood which cleanses from all sin. He hoped no mistake had been made, but believed, if there had, the over-ruling providence of God was able in that case also to glorify the name of God.

Rev. T. Marshall was elected Secretary of Conference.

The Secretary then read a letter from Bishop Andrews, M. E., of New York, introducing the Revs. Dr. Lowry and W. Ready, two ministers of the American Church, to the Conference. These brethren were assigned a place within the circle of the Conference, and each of them delivered very edifying addresses, containing many words of encouragement and comfort.

Rev. Mr. Keefer, of Ontario, was also introduced, and delivered a short address, referring to the defeat of the Scott Act throughout the provinces as a clearance of the ground for prohibition. Mr. Keefer appears at present to be engaged upon the side of the anti-Jesuit party, and in the course of his remarks appealed to sentiments of loyalty and Protestantism, such as are universally held throughout Methodism, but which many among us do not seem to be touched by the Quebec Jesuit Act.

A purely ministerial session was held on Wednesday afternoon and was devoted to matters especially interesting to the ministerial members of Conference.

The Conference Mission meeting was held in the Centenary Church to-night. It was of the usual attractive character. Among the speakers were William Heard, Esq., of Charlottetown, and Mr. Miller, of New Castle, both able speakers among the laymen present.

Three Rivers Dairyman's Association.

The meeting of this Association was held last evening at New Perth, Robert Dewar, Esq., in the chair.

Resolved, That in view of Prof. Saunders' expected visit to King's County, the use of the Hall at Montague Bridge be secured for Thursday evening, the 11th prox, doors to be open at 6 o'clock, p.m.; that the committee of management make all necessary arrangements; and that this resolution be forwarded to the local papers for publication.

Odds and Ends.

There is one thing that the invincible western cyclone has never yet succeeded in lifting, and that is a mortgage.—Burlington Free Press.

"My dear young friend," exclaimed the good man, solemnly, "do you attend church regularly?" "Yes sir; but I didn't go to-day. She is visiting friends out of town, you know."—Minneapolis Tribune.

Behring Sea is described by the New York Tribune as a "land-locked sea." The lock in this case has a keyhole a thousand miles wide.—Toronto Globe.

The hard turmoil of the pitiless sea Turns the pebble to beauteous gem; They who escape the agony Miss also the diadem.—M. J. Savage.

There are nettles everywhere: But smooth green grasses are more common still. The blue of heaven is larger than the cloud. Elizabeth Barrett Browning.

The benefits of vacation season may be greatly enhanced, if, at the same time, the blood is being cleansed and vitalized by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A good appetite, fresh vigor, and buoyant spirits attend the use of this wonderful medicine.

Telegraphic Tips.

LONDON, June 19.—A despatch from Belgrade to the Daily News says: "Serbian regents have rejected Russian proposals for a military convention on Austria's demand, and have decided not to allow the king to visit Paris, fearing his absence might engender trouble."

PORT HAWKESBURY, C. B., June 19.—The sailing schooner Helen M. Crosby, Capt. Isaac Reynolds, is high line of the North American mackerel fleet this season to date. The schooner is owned and sailed from this port.

BELFAST, June 19.—The mayor of this city has sent £500 by cable to the Johnstown sufferers as an instalment on the amount to be raised by the citizens of Belfast.

MILWAUKEE, June 19.—A mortgage covering every dollar worth of property owned by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway Co., except lands, was filed with the Secretary of State Timin. The mortgage favors the United States Trust Co., of New York, for $150,000,000. The mortgage was executed for the purpose of carrying out a funding scheme of the company. The plan is to make the Trust Company the sole creditors to secure a lower rate of interest.

KINGSTON, Ont., June 19.—The Anglican Synod to-day took up the Jesuits' question and passed resolutions denouncing all clerical aggressions, but declined to censure the Government or condemn the so-called Roman Catholic aggressiveness.

WINNIPEG, June 19.—Burke is reported to have made a clean breast of his connection with the Cronin case to the Winnipeg chief of police. He has been extremely nervous since his capture, and has now broken down entirely. The chief refuses to tell anything about the confession until he has consulted with the Chicago detective, who is now on the way here to take charge of the prisoner. It is known positively that Burke has offered to return without being extradited if allowed to turn state's evidence. He was brought before the magistrate yesterday morning and remanded till Saturday.

DUBLIN, June 19.—Nine families were evicted at Youghal to-day. Among the tenants dispossessed was an aged woman named Sweeney, to whom the last sacrament was being administered when the evictors arrived. Mrs. Sweeney was subsequently reinstated.

BERLIN, June 19.—Torrential rains, accompanied by thunder, have swept Hesse, South Westphalia, Nassau and Thuringia. The storm extended east to Saxony and south to Bavaria. Serious damage was done to corn, hay and fruit crops. Several persons and a large number of cattle perished.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., June 19.—Dr. Duncan, surgeon of the Pacific mail steamship Colon, is sick at 173 Hancock Street, supposedly with yellow fever, taken on the last voyage from Aspinwall. He rode from Brooklyn bridge to his house in a street car.

They Were Sent to London.

DR. CRONIN'S CLOTHES ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THE ATLANTIC.

Dr. Cronin's blood-stained clothes are probably in London, Eng. They were shipped, it is claimed, from Chicago to London, and consigned to some unknown conspirator on the other side of the Atlantic. This remarkable statement was made to the Chicago police a few days ago by a man who claims to have full knowledge of what he is talking about. According to this unknown informant, Dr. Cronin's clothes were taken from his dead body and placed in a box which had been provided for the purpose. In this box were placed all the clothes worn by him at the time of his death, his watch and chain, and, in fact, every article of wearing apparel found on his person. This box was expressed to a man in New York city, and by him sent to London. It was first sent to New York as a precautionary measure, in the event of any question arising or an attempt being made to trace the clothes outside of Chicago. In a few weeks, at an opportune moment, Cronin's "body" was to have been found on the banks of the Thames River, England. The body which was to have been found would have been in an advanced state of decomposition. In every material particular this body would have corresponded exactly with that of P. H. Cronin, who suddenly disappeared from Chicago on the night of May 4, 1889, and who, several weeks after that, was interviewed in Paris. Upon his person papers were to be found which would have revealed the motive of his murder, and branded him as a British spy and Irish traitor. Such was to have been the denouement of the Cronin mystery.

A HEAVY SENTENCE.—In the Supreme Court at Digby, N. S., last week, a man named Graham was found guilty of placing obstructions on the railway track, and was sentenced to twelve years in the penitentiary.

"My father at about the age of fifty, lost all the hair from the top of his head. After one month's trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor, the hair began coming, and, in three months, he had a fine growth of hair of the natural color."—P. J. Cullen, Saratoga Springs, New York.

THE WORLD ALMANAC.—From the publication office of the New York World we have received a copy of "The World Almanac," which thoroughly deserves its title of "a bureau of information." It is replete with useful particulars relating to all subjects of interest connected with the United States, and is a most useful help to all who are often unable to find in books of reference the information which is contained in the "World Almanac."
