Rise and shine, Boxlor. Time to rouse yourself for another day of good times and fast living on the mean streets of funky town, Prince Edward Island.

As Boxlor prepares to chow down on some "madd AB's" it dawns on him that he might require some more substantial sustenance to fuel him in his magnificent escapades.

But where might one procure such hearty fare? Think Boxlor, think...

Nothing like Eddie's Lunch for some crazy stupid charred cow carcass action.

Despite his irritation with the deplorable absence of a 1-pound burger option, Boxlor settles on two lesser half-pound Master Burgers.

Success!

Gee Boxlor, you don't look so good.. That's because you've been DOUBLE CROSSED!!! That's right, those burgers of yours were spiked with ARSENIC. By none other than the NEW YORK KNICKERBOCKERS!

Yes, in but a few short moments the arsenic will have spread throughout your blood stream, shutting down your vital organs, killing you in a painful, leisurely fashion.

Dirty c**t knicks. You think you can f**k Boxlor in the a**? Nobody, but NOBODY f**ks Boxlor in the a**.
