Doors open at 7.15. Concert begins at 8. Admission, 15 cents to all parts of Hall.

MEN'S MEETING.—The men's meeting in the Y. M. C. A. parlor yesterday afternoon was the most largely attended for some months. The hearty singing and the practical thoughts suggested in the secretary's address and the remarks of others made not only an enjoyable but a profitable hour to those present. May this newly awakened interest be sustained and, if possible, increased.

THE STANLEY, which left Georgetown on Friday morning at the usual hour, had not reached Pictou up to the time of going to press. Telephonic advices from Little Sands this forenoon are to the effect that she was sighted off Cape Bear, and it was thought she was coming back to Georgetown. His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Carvell were passengers on board.

Later—Just as we go to press, we learn that the Stanley is coming into Georgetown harbor.

LECTURE TO-NIGHT.—R. H. McDonald, Esq., of St. Eleanor, will deliver his excellent lecture, "Scraps of Island History from its first settlement till 1881," in the Division Room, Wright's Hall, to-night at 8 o'clock. The lecture is drawn up on lines entirely different to anything yet listened to in our city. The speaker comes well recommended, and anyone wishing to combine pleasure and instruction should not fail to be present. Only 10 cents admission fee charged.

INQUEST.—Yesterday afternoon an inquest was held in the City Courtroom in view of the body of Mrs. H. Gray Murphy, who died unexpectedly on Saturday evening, between seven and eight o'clock. Dr. Conroy was the coroner, and the jury was made up of Charles Hermans (foreman), Stephen T. Whitty, William Dillon, Michael Lennan and Daniel Macdonald. After hearing the evidence of Mr. Murphy, Mrs. Annie Johnson (the widow), and Mrs. Kelly and Taylor, the jury returned a verdict of death from hemorrhage.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—A correspondent at Georgetown informs us that Mrs. L. S. Leavelle, of that place, had a narrow escape from death by drowning a few days ago. Last week, it appears, she was engaged in the small fishery business at Georgetown, and had one of the regulation fishermen's houses on the ice. While moving the house from one fishing hole to the other, Mr. Leavelle in a moment of haste, stepped on the ice, and was about to fall, when he was saved by his quick mind in spreading out his arms and catching hold of the ice as he was going down, we should like to have his death to chronicle to-day.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Letter From Rev. Mr. Dutcher.

SIR,—The undersigned is hereby authorized to state that the case of trespass which occasioned some commotion of late in our neighborhood has been satisfactorily settled between all the parties concerned and harmony fully restored.

Will you kindly confer the favor of refusing the publication of any correspondence that may be sent you hereafter touching this question, and oblige yours truly, C. W. DUTCHER, Methodist Parsonage, Vernon River Bridge, Feb. 1, 1893.

Another Letter From Mr. Earle.

SIR,—I notice that some idiot has attempted to reply to my letter of Saturday last, but was not man enough to put his name to his laughable and silly letter. My letter contained a concise and a full explanation of facts, which he nor anyone else dares deny. He admits that the person appointed was asked by a member of the choir several times. I know that, and the same individual undertook to ask the choir their opinion and he got snubbed for his pains; and allow me to say also that through his interference one or two good singers left the choir. As to the last clause in his letter, no one but a musical ignoramus would doubt my ability to instruct any Charlottetown choir. S. N. EARLE.

It is explained that Claus Speckels is at the bottom of the "movement" in the Sandwich Islands. He was given, some years ago, so it is said, extensive sugar plantations on the islands. At present, with Cuban and Brazilian sugars coming free into the States, these plantations do not pay as well as formerly. But if he could get the islands annexed, he would then be entitled to the two cents per pound bounty given to growers of sugars in the United States. In order to get this, he has determined to overthrow the government of the country.

In his cable letter to the tribune, Mr. Edmund Yates says: According to present arrangement, the Queen will leave Windsor Castle for Italy on Wednesday, March 22, as Her Majesty and Princess Beatrice are particularly anxious to be in Florence on Palm Sunday. The Queen will travel from the Windsor to the Portsmouth dockyard on the 23rd, intending to dine and sleep on board the royal yacht Victoria and Albert, which will be moored in the harbor for the night. On Thursday, March 23, the Queen will cross the channel to Cherbourg, whence she will proceed by special train direct to Florence, travelling by the Mount Cenis route to Turin, and thence by rail to Genoa, Spezia and Pisa. The Queen will arrive in Florence on the evening of Saturday, March 25, and intends to reside for nearly four weeks at Villa Palmieri, near Fiesole. All being well, the Queen is to go to Venice four days, when she leaves Florence and will return home through Germany, it being her present intention to stay for a few days at Darmstadt with the Grand Duke of Hesse, in which case the Empress Frederick and other members of the Royal Family will meet her there.
