Yanks Promised In Peru No More Strike Violence

LIMA, Peru (Reuters) — A United States mining executive who arrived here from New York was reported to have been assured there would be no repetition of Monday's strike violence in which some $4,000,000 in American mining property was destroyed.

Robert Koenig, president of the Cerro Corporation of New York, was understood to have been assured by military junta head Gen. Ricardo Pere Godoy there would be no more disturbances.

Earlier Tuesday the government claimed to have the mining area of Oroya under control after strikers from a Communist-led union Monday burned down about $4,000,000 worth of industrial plant.

Government officials confirmed the damage figure which included a destroyed warehouse valued at $2,500,000.

The government claim followed reports the strikers had taken over the mining centre. All mines were reported closed, making idle 13,000 men.

Some 4,000 striking members of the Communist-led Metallurgical Union were reported to have burned the coke plant, main warehouse, sampling plant and fuel supplies of the Cerro de Pasco Corporation.

Police and troops were camped on all roads around the area—about 140 miles east of here—to prevent further bloodshed after 17 persons were injured, several seriously, during a clash between strikers and police Monday.

The Cerro de Pasco Corporation is a subsidiary of the U.S. Cerro Corporation. It mines lead, inc, copper and silver.

N.Y. Newspaper Strike May Continue For Weeks

NEW YORK (AP) — Labor Secretary Wirtz said here the printers strike that has blacked out New York's nine major daily newspapers for 11 days could continue for six or eight weeks or even into March.

"You cannot dismiss that possibility," he told a press conference at city hall. "the possibility should be taken seriously—it's that serious. It is possible for it to go six or eight weeks or into March."

Wirtz met with Mayor Robert Wagner to discuss not only the newspaper strike but also a threatened Atlantic and Gulf port dock strike.

An 80-day aft-Hartley "cooling off" injunction against a dock strike expires Sunday.

Earlier, peace talks were resumed for the first time in a week between the AFL-CIO International ypographical Union and the publishers. But they got nowhere and were recessed until today.

"We haven't moved a millimetre as far as closing the gap is concerned," reported Bertram A. Powers, president of the ITU's striking Local 6.

REPORS NO PROGRESS

Federal mediator Stephen Schlossberg, who supervised negotiations, said there was "no progress whatsoever in the basic positions."

Wirtz canvassed the newspaper situation a week ago and found the printers union hopelessly deadlocked with the Publishers Association of New York over wages, hours and fringe benefits. Federal mediators had suspended negotiations Dec. 12 for lack of progress.

The 3,000-member IU went on strike Dec. 8 in a demand for an $18.45 weekly pay raise over two years. Base pay now averages $141 a week. he publishers offered an $8 package for the two years.

The strike made idle nearly 20,000 employees on the New York Times, Herald Tribune, Daily News, Mirror, Post, Journal-American and World-Telegram and The Sun, Long Island Star-Journal and Long Island Press. The latter is publishing, but only outside the city on Long Island.

The nine dailies normally circulated 5,500,000 copies a day.

Third Trawler Of Stern Series To Be Launched

BATHURST, N.B. (CP)—The Grand Monarch, third and largest steel stern trawler to be built in New Brunswick this year will be launched here Friday.

The vessel was built by Bathurst Marine Limited for the Bonavista Cold Storage Company of Newfoundland.

Mrs. H. A. Russell, wife of an official of the storage company will officiate at the launching.

The $500,000 vessel is similar to two others built at the shipyard this year for New Brunswick fishing interests. The keel was laid Sept. 8.

The 115-foot Grand Monarch has accommodation for 19 men and a cargo capacity of 7,400 cubic feet, sufficient to carry about 300,000 pounds of fresh fish.

She is powered by a diesel marine engine of 750 horsepower and has variable pitch propellers, hydraulic winch and steering mechanisms.

Her equipment includes radar, two electronic depth recorders a decca navigator, and two 30-kilowatt generators.

REPATRIATE CHINESE

HONG KONG (Reuters) — Communist China plans to send ships to India to repatriate Chinese victims of Indian 'cruel persecution' because of the Sino-Indian border conflict. The New China News Agency reported Tuesday. The Chinese foreign ministry protested against "stepped-up persecution" of Chinese nationals in India.

Opening lead—Jack of spades.

This hand occurred in the match between India and Chile during the World Olympiad played in Turin in 1960.

I am not sure I understand some of the bids, but there is no doubt that the final contract reached was a good one. The Indian South had three finesses to take and could make the slam if any one of three cards was well placed. Unfortunately, all three finesses, had they been attempted, would have failed, but South made the contract anyhow.

West led a spade and declarer took it with the ace and ran six club tricks. When he then cashed the queen of spades, this became the position:

Declarer now led the jack of hearts and West showed out, discarding a diamond. This was momentarily disconcerting to South, since if West had had either the king or queen of hearts, a twelfth trick would have become certain.

But it did not take South long to see that the contract was still sure to make, regardless of where the king of diamonds was located. He went up with the ace of hearts, cashed the king of spades, discarding a heart, and played the seven of spades, discarding his last heart.

West took the spade with the ten, but then, having only diamonds left, was forced to lead into declarer's A-Q.

West might have defeated the contract if he had kept a heart instead of the four of diamonds. Declarer might then have finessed the jack of hearts, in which case he would have gone down. But if South gauges the opponents' cards correctly, he cannot be defeated by any line of defense.

Yesterday's Answer

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
