A RARE CHANGE

TO PROCURE A VERY VALUABLE FARM at North River, Franklin Point, directly opposite, and only a mile and a-half from Charlottetown.

I have decided to sell my Farm of one hundred acres—eighty acres clear and a very high state of cultivation, balance covered with hard and soft wood. Grand situation for general farming and stock-raising, and commanding a beautiful view of the North River, Harbor's Mouth and the City.

There is a good, comfortable Dwelling House, 32x38, and Kitchen, 18x29.

Also—Large, convenient and well-built Barn, Granary and other outbuildings, and a never-failing Well of Water.

The House and Barnyard are nicely sheltered. Being near the city, so convenient to shipping and the best of mussel mud, it has advantages very seldom attainable.

Ottawa Correspondence.

The attendance of members during the first few days of the session was very small, but now the House is filling up rapidly, although some prominent faces are still absent. Sir John looks as lively as ever, and is as sprightly as the youngest man in the House. Opposite him sits Hon. Alexander Mackenzie, pained and pale. He insists, however, in regularly attending the afternoon sessions. The other day he made a false step and fell in the corridor, but did not injure himself. Independent as ever, he indignantly rejects all offers of assistance from any of his friends, and with tottering steps makes his own way to and from the Chamber.

"La Grippe" has been monarch of all she surveys ever since she arrived in Ottawa, about three weeks ago. No respecter of persons, she has prostrated high and low, rich and poor, from Lady Stanley to your humble servant. I am not going to describe the vile complaint, as probably the majority of your readers will have an opportunity of studying it for themselves. Many of the clergymen and not a few physicians have been laid up with it. I am sorry that I cannot say that it is abating.

Most of the business transacted in Parliament thus far has been of a routine character, and the sessions each day have been short. The notices of motions and questions to be asked are numerous, and embrace every conceivable subject. The first bill was read on Wednesday last by Mr. Dalton McCarthy, who brought in a bill to amend the Northwest Territories Act, by abolishing the official use of the French language. Mr. McCarthy supported his measure in a speech of some length, in which he disclaimed all hostility to the French people, and declared that his sole object was to foster the building up of a Canadian nationality. Mr. McCarthy was followed by Mr. La Riviere, M. P., for Provencher, Manitoba, who made a vigorous speech in French, in the course of which he was loudly applauded by the House. Mr. La Riviere is a fluent speaker in both languages, and we shall doubtless hear from him frequently upon this question before it is decided. He is inclined to be corpulent, but has a fine, intellectual face, and is as clever as he looks. (I was mistaken for him several times last year.) After a few words from Messrs. Chapleau and Laurier, the further discussion of this measure was postponed until its second reading, which will take place in a few days. The Senate has adjourned till February 4th. Senator Montgomery has been unwell, but nothing serious the matter. Senator Prowse left for Chicago on Monday evening. Senator Howlan looks twenty years younger than he did last session. I don't think he ever enjoyed better health. Our members of the Commons here are Welsh, Perry, Robertson and McIntyre. I asked the Comptroller yesterday if he had the grippe. He indignantly replied, "No; there's nothing like Hickey's Twist's tobacco to keep off the grippe."

Mr. Colton, after occupying his seat for a week has been forced to retire in consequence of his appeal having been dismissed by the Supreme Court. A new election for unfortunate Halliday will be brought on immediately, and the return of Dr. Montague is confidently expected. The Dr., who was formerly a Baptist minister, is an acknowledged orator, and an acquisition to the Government benches.

Mr. Perry has answered to the order papers. In answer to an enquiry as to whether the Local Government of the Island had drawn any money from capital at Ottawa since 14th January, 1889, he was informed that they had not. He also wishes to know if the Government have appointed an Inspector of Fisheries for the Island in the place of Col. Hunter Duvar, who is, in the date of his appointment and the amount of his salary. Another piece of information he desires is whether a post office has been established at or near Palmer Road Chapel, as promised by the P. M. G. If so, when, and who is postmaster.

Mr. Welsh has applied for a copy of the government engineer's report of surveys of the harbor of Piquette and Wood Islands, and also a copy of a report of survey of New London harbor and breakwater.

The Jesuits' estates question will again be brought before the House by Colonel O'Brien, who has asked for copies of the reports of the Crown Law Officers on the bill, and all other correspondence relating thereto.

I understand that a bill to incorporate the Orange institutions will also be submitted to this session.

The irrepressible McMullen has the order paper littered with notices of motion, but he was badly sat on in the House yesterday afternoon. He wanted to know the salary, sessional allowance, traveling expenses, cab hire and all other sums drawn by every Minister of the Crown, High Commissioner or other Foreign Plenipotentiary from 1st July, 1867, to 30th June, 1889.

To this Mr. Taylor (Government whip) offered an amendment that the return include the amounts expended by each member of Parliament for traveling expenses to and from Ottawa, and for board and lodging while there, stating specifically the disposition by each member of his sessional allowance. Also whether he travelled on a railway pass, etc. Mr. Taylor's amendment brought down the House, and had the effect of Mr. Laurier requesting his faithful follower, McMullen, to withdraw his motion, which he did with a very bad grace.

Dr. Darby Bergin is the smallest member of the House, but he is one of the pluckiest. He has got into a snarl with Chief Engineer Page, of the Department of Railways and Canals, about the Cornwall Canal. Last session Mr. Page wrote a letter, in which he poked considerable fun at Dr. Bergin, and altogether it was a letter calculated to make a man mad. The doctor got his Irish up and does not mean to stand it, and has accordingly given notice of his intention to bring the matter before the House with a view of pronouncing Mr. Page's letter a scandalous, false and malicious libel upon a member, and a high contempt of the privileges and constitutional authority of Parliament.

The question of the right of the Dominion and Provincial Governments to appoint Queen's Counsel will also form the subject of consideration by Parliament.

Mr. Amyot wishes to know if the Government have any knowledge of a letter addressed by Bishop Grandin, of the Northwest Territories, to Cardinal Taschereau and the Bishops of Quebec, on alleged grievances suffered by the French Canadians and half-breeds of his diocese. The letter is very strongly worded, reflecting seriously upon the conduct of Government officials, and begging his brethren in the Episcopate to try and divert some of the French Canadian emigration from the United States to the Northwest.

The cost and expense of building, furnishing and running the Government Printing Bureau is also to be made the subject of enquiry, and it is not improbable that some important changes may be made in the management of this institution.

A return has been asked for the quantity of fresh beef, salt pork and bacon imported into Canada from the United States during the past 18 months, with a view of increasing the duty thereon.

From the Report of Indian Affairs we learn that the number of Indians on P. E. Island is 314, and that their general condition is satisfactory.

The Rev. John Read, of the First Methodist Church, Charlottetown, occupied the pulpit of one of the Ottawa churches last Sunday, and also delivered a lecture during the week. Mr. W. Leslie, a theological student of Montreal, and son of Deputy Sheriff Clay, of Summerside, has been preaching in Bank Street Church for several Sundays, during the illness of the regular pastor, Rev. Dr. Moore. Mr. Clay has taken Ottawa by storm, and his sermons are widely talked of. You know Rev. Mr. Herridge, of St. Andrew's, (son-in-law of Rev. Thomas Duncanson, formerly of Charlottetown), is par excellence the pulpit orator of Ottawa. I have heard good judges give their opinion, and they say Mr. Clay is equal the Herridge model, and bids fair to equal him ere long.

Dinner parties are in order now, and several take place every evening. The Finance Minister and Mrs. Foster give one this evening. Outside of "La Grippe," the great event of social life this session has been the ostracism of Mrs. Foster by the female powers that be. To the grand state dinner at Rideau Hall, on the first night of the session, Mr. Foster was invited without his wife—an omission intentionally made; and, strange to say, Mr. Foster accepted and attended the dinner. Manifestly his duty was to have returned the card of invitation to His Excellency's Aide-de-Camp; but he seems to have thought differently. Only two Cabinet Ministers' wives called on Mrs. Foster, viz., Lady Thompson and Mrs. Pupper. By the others she has been quietly ignored. Apropos of dinner parties, Mr. and Mrs. Welsh dined at Earncliffe last night. Mr. Welsh enjoyed the rare distinction of being the only member of the Opposition invited to dinner by Sir John Macdonald.

Notwithstanding the overwhelming Conservative majority in the Senate, Senator Haythorne has been chosen chairman of the committee on reporting debates. It is said that this is the first instance of the kind.

A deputation waited on the Minister of the Interior this week pressing for a land grant in aid of building a railroad from Winnipeg to the Pacific Slope.

Several petitions have been presented from districts in the Northwest Territories against the abolition of the official use of the French language. Some of the French members, it is said, intend addressing the House in French only this session, as a protest against the agitation led by Mr. McCarthy.

Senator Howlan left for Kingston this morning.

W. C. D.

DISEASE.

At Cherry Valley, on 31st January, Jane Dadd, in the 73rd year of her age.

At Blooming Point, Tracadie, on 29th of January, after about three months of intense suffering from gangrene in the foot, which he bore patiently, Mr. Ronald McDonald, an old and highly respected resident of that place, aged 87 years. The deceased was born at Scotchfort, where he resided for twenty-eight years, and removed to Tracadie in 1839, where he resided until his death. He was well and favorably known by all who came in contact with him for his hospitality, cheerfulness and amiable disposition. He leaves a sorrowing widow and seven sons to mourn their loss. May his soul rest in peace.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. Jan 7 90.

A Toronto shopkeeper named Lionel George Allen has been left a fortune of $300,000 by an uncle whom he had never seen and who died suddenly in London.

Mr. Morley, speaking at Liverpool a few days ago, paid an eloquent tribute to Mr. Parnell's statesmanship. He stated that if Mr. Goschen was so satisfied, as he pretended to be, with the argument on the Government's side on the Irish question, he, for his part, was equally satisfied with the results of the bye-elections. The Irish, he held, would be deserving only of contempt if they did not show their resentment against the present administration.
