There's More To The Brier Than Just Curling--Receptions, Meetings, Parades

MEMBERS OF the local curling clubs and the Dominion Curling Association turned out nearly six hundred strong for a church parade to Trinity Church last evening. The parade was headed by the Pipes and Drums of the 1st Battalion Black Watch from Camp Gagetown and the Band of the P.E.I. Regiment also participated.

FOUR-TIME Canadian Champion and rated the skip to beat in the 1964 Brier, Ernie Richardson of Saskatchewan is shown above attending the Royal Bank of Canada reception at PWC's Montgomery Hall Saturday night, and surrounded by Charlottetown lady curlers left, Mrs. Chris Gallant and Mrs. Willam Boyles. Ernie warms up for the 36th annual Brier at 10.30 this morning when he practices at the Charlottetown Curling Club. Brier play begins at 3 p.m. at the Forum.

THE SITE for the Brier in 1965 will be Saskatoon, Sask., which was confirmed yesterday at the meeting of the Dominion Curling Association. Here the mayor of Saskatoon expresses his city's pleasure in being able to play host to the national event next year. The Brier alternates each year between Eastern and Western Canada.

Curlers' Church Parade Is Large

By A. C. HOLMAN

Two bands and nearly 600 curlers took part in a church parade held last evening in conjunction with the Canadian Curling Championships being played in Charlottetown this week.

The Pipes and Drums of the 1st Battalion Black Watch from Camp Gagetown, N.B., headed the parade followed by the car carrying Hon. Errick F. Willis, Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba, the vice-president of the Royal Caledonian Club of Scotland. Then came the curlers, hundreds of them.

The band of the Prince Edward Island Regiment brought up the rear of the parade, which assembled in front of the Charlottetown Hotel.

It proceeded to Trinity Church via Kent, Queen, Grafton and Prince Street and was viewed by hundreds of local residents

The service was conducted by Rev. John G. E. Ball with D. R. MacLennan, 1964 Brier chaplain.

A tribute to the late Rev. Dr. George Young was made by Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell also a Brier trustee. The sermon was given by Rev. D. R. MacLennan, 1964 Brier chaplain.

Following the service the curlers paraded back to the Charlottetown Hotel where coffee was served and a sing-song led by John Evans.

BLACK WATCH

The Pipes and Drums of the Black Watch were led by Drum Major W. MacKay and Pipe Major W. Magennis. They were turned out in their black feathered bonnets, red tunics and the pipers wore kilts and plaids of the Royal Stewart tartan, while the drummers' kilts were the Black Watch tartan.

"This parade is the biggest church parade I've seen and I've been following the Brier since 1946", said R. H. Geary of Montreal who is one of the Brier directors.

Curlers' Parade Today To Have Floats, Bands

By MIKE DUFFY

Two bands, 11 floats, and 200 marching curlers from the Belvedere and Charlottetown Curling Clubs will make up the major part of the official Brier opening parade, this afternoon.

The parade will form up at the Charlottetown Hotel at 1:45 p.m. and will move off to the Forum at 2 o'clock.

Leading the parade will be a car carrying Premier Walter Shaw and Mayor A. Walthen Gaudet, and this will be followed by cars containing officials of the Dominion Curling Association and the local Brier committee.

The first band in the parade will be the 1st Battalion Black Watch Band from Camp Gagetown, N.B. This will be followed by the Prince of Wales College majorettes, accompanied by 20 local curlers.

The first of the floats will be the Town of Summerside's, and it will be followed by the curling team representing British Columbia.

Local curlers will march with floats sponsored by local firms. Among the other floats in the parade are ones sponsored by the lady curlers, the float sponsored by the Charlottetown Board of Trade, the float sponsored by the P.E.I. Curling Association, the floats sponsored by M. F. Schurman Co. Ltd., Holman's of P.E.I., Lucky Dollar Stores, Kays' Brothers, Clover Farm Stores, Montague fire department and the City of Charlottetown.

The other band in the parade will be that of the Prince Edward Island Regiment, and Nancy's Majorettes will be the other majorette group.

PARADE ROUTE

City Police described the parade route as from the Charlottetown Hotel, south on Pownal to Richmond, east on Richmond to Queen, north on Queen to Grafton, east on Grafton to Great George, north on Great George to Kent, east on Kent to Cumberland, north on Cumberland to Fitzroy, to the Forum.

Geo'town Lions Club To Aid Kensington Club In Show

GEORGETOWN — A regular meeting of the Georgetown Lions Club was held in the Council Chambers Tuesday night, with King Howard S. MacLeon presiding. The Lions' prayer was read by the tail twister, Charles Mair. The secretary, J. W. Lavers, called the roll of members and read the minutes of the last board of directors meeting. Eighteen answered roll call.

The club had as guests, Wolf Marold of the Souris club and John King, George MacIsaac, Dessie O'Hanley, Elmer Curran and B. J. O'Hanley of the St. Peters Lions Club.

The financial report was presented by the treasurer, Frank Parker. Correspondence was read from the department of national revenue; from the Georgetown Catholic Women's League, thanking the members of the Lions Club for their assistance in helping in transporting the necessary tables to and from the school on charter night.

A letter was also read from the Kensington Lions Club regarding a Maritime Variety Show that is to be sponsored by the Kensington Club and held in the Kensington High School auditorium, May 8 and 9. The Kensington Club is inviting Lions club to assist by the providing of one act, 16 years of age or under. The Kensington club hope to take its 38-piece brass band to the Lions International convention in New York in 1965.

The local club will make every effort to provide an act for this event. It was decided to hold hockey pools to raise funds for service work.

Dr. Marold gave some information relating to Lions work and program. He also congratulated the local club on its fine effort to date.

Fire Destroys Parked Car

MONTAGUE — Fire on Saturday completely destroyed a small English car owned by Mr. and Mrs. Orville MacDonald, Montague. Cause of the fire was not known and was not discovered by the owners until after it had burned.

The MacDonalds live near Victoria Cross and the car was at the end of their lane. The loss was covered by insurance.

34 ESCAPE

men on the wreck used the line to pull a 20-man rubber raft from the Athabaskan.

They jumped into the raft and were pulled back to the navy ship.

BOW GOES DOWN

Meanwhile, the bow section of the tanker, which had drifted 38 miles from the stern, was reported sunk.

Another destroyer escort, the Crescent, was standing by the stern section. The navy said it was waiting word from the owners whether to sink the stern by gunfire.

Nationality of the Amphialos' crew was not immediately known here but they were believed to be Greek. One report said the captain had survived the wreck.

The ship, built at Norfolk, Va., in 1949 as the Bulkstar, was on her first trip to this port.
