MOUNTIES READY
 OTTAWA, July 4—(CP)—Canada's Mounties are ready to crack down at once in a roundup of potentially subversive Communist Canadians if war comes, officials said today. Commissioner S. T. Wood of the R. C. M. P. said today the work of keeping an eye on the potentially dangerous elements of the population has been carried out and kept up to date as a matter of routine.

CAIRO, Egypt, July 2—(AP)—The Arab news agency Ana reported Saturday that French troops fired on anti-French demonstrators in Tunis, killing and wounding a large number. The incident is said to have occurred late Thursday, but reports did not reach Cairo until Saturday.

With The Kids On The Playgrounds

The inclement weather that has been the disappointment of sportsmen, vacationers and the like for the past two weeks in the Maritimes, failed to dampen the spirits of the scores of children who were on hand for their big event of the year—the playgrounds opening day. Swarms of children gathered at all three playgrounds on Monday, July 3rd, with each an everyone anxious to hold the coveted title of being first on a slide, a tilt, or a swing. The weatherman did not leave them long to their pleasures, however, and a downpour of rain, which continued for the remainder of the day forced the supervisors to close down at noon much to the dissatisfaction of the children. However they have been rewarded since by two fine days and upwards of 400 youngsters have taken part in the fun at one time or another. Yesterday morning saw at least 100 children engaged in various activities on each square, making a grand total of 300.

Many citizens are of the opinion that the project of playgrounds should be abolished. There are a couple of questions that such citizens could probably ask themselves, and which would possibly relieve them of their doubt as to the necessity and worthiness of the continuation of Charlottetown playgrounds. Is Charlottetown a better community today for having had playgrounds during the summer months for the past years? The answer is "yes" and the reason is that Charlottetown has escaped almost entirely the delinquency and vandalism, which has been so prevalent in many other cities of the same size during the same period. This tribute cannot all be claimed by the playgrounds, but they have the honor of a rightful share. Another question might run like this: What would those numerous children do if there were no playgrounds? The answer is simple. Ask any automobile driver, or anybody who through the courtesy of the playgrounds is now able to sit back and enjoy the beauty of an upright bed of tulips. Please give the playgrounds your support.

All boys six years of age and over are cordially invited to participate in a hike to Inkerman on Friday, July 7th. If you happen to be a ravenous eater and require beefsteak, etc., to enable you to make the return trip, arrangements will be made to cook it on an open fire, but if a light lunch will sustain you until you return home, so much the better. A large group of boys is expected for this the first hike of the year, so anyone bothered with rheumatism, lumbago or other rainy weather ills better contact his doctor or dig into the household medicine cabinet, and get the aches out of the joints before 9.30 A.M. on Friday. Come one, come all, but come on time. Ball games, treasure hunts, and maybe swimming will be the order of the day.

Tuesday, July 11th promises to be the big day for the girls from all squares. They are invited to be on hand at 9.30 A.M. with lunches prepared, and ready for an outing to Inkerman. Miss Lois Smith, supervisor on King Square, will be in charge of the group. The age limit will be the same as for the boys—6 years and over.

Are you interested in playing softball? Are you a boy? Are you under 13 years of age and over six years? If you are able to answer all three of the above questions in the affirmative, then you are eligible to join one of the ball teams which will be chosen at Connaught Square on Monday morning at 10.00 and at Hillsborough Square on Tuesday morning at 10.00.

There is a possibility that an outdoor concert may be held some time in August on one of the squares. This concert would be of an amateur nature, and all the participants would be children who had taken an active part in our

Farm News From Scotland

In the face of strong competition, a Canadian team from Ontario won third place (with 1,263 1-2 points) in the international beef cattle judging contest at the Royal Highland and Agricultural Society's show at Paisley. Winners were a team of three Scottish young farmers.

Teams represented England, Wales, Eire, and Ulster, as well as Canada and Scotland, in the first competition of its kind to be held at a Highland show.

Three classes of Aberdeen-Angus, two of Shorthorn, and one of Herefords were judged. Oral reasons were given on classes of Aberdeen-Angus and Shorthorn bulls, and Hereford cattle.

The Canadian team, Mr. Patrick O'Leary, Mr. Bruce Kirk, Mr. Bruce Wilmer, and Mr. David Pelletier, who had travelled 3,000 miles to the show, judged outstandingly. In July, these young men will take part in the judging at Oxford of the show of the Royal Agricultural Society of England.

Team results were 1. Scotland, 1,342 points out of a possible 1,620 (472 points oral and 870 judging); 2. England, 1,327 1-2 (467 1-2 and 860); 3. Ontario, 1,263 1-2 (433 1-2 and 830); 4. Wales, 1,131 1-2 (341 1-2 and 790); 5. Ulster, 1,042 1-2 (288 1-2 and 754); 6. Eire, 998 1-2 (288 1-2 and 710 judging).

Canadian Champion At Royal Highland Show

Overseas visitors to the Royal Highland and Agricultural Society of Scotland show held in Paisley arrived in a steady stream on the opening day. The first visitor to arrive was an Australian from New South Wales. Others came from Canada, the United States, Hawaii, Uruguay, India, South Africa, Singapore, Iceland, Assam, Tasmania, Turkey, Buenos Aires and Sweden.

In the Friesian class the reserve supreme honour went to Mr. Colin Telfer with a six-year-old cow which was also a female champion. She was bred at Woodstock, playground functions, on any of the three squares. It matters little whether you are a future Hollywood great, whether you play some musical instrument, recite or even have no greater talent than the ability to blow a 5c whistle. If you merely signify your willingness to participate, regardless of whether you show signs of any visible talents, you are welcome to register your name with the supervisor on your square, and state your preference for singing, reciting, etc. Please do this at your earliest convenience.

Until next week — good playing.

Ontario and came over in a shipment three years ago when Mr. Telfer bought her. She is after Dixie Lad Lancelot and has had several championships and special prizes this year, including the female championships at Ayr and East Kilbride.

A feature of the Shorthorn and Aberdeen-Angus entries is the magnificent collection of females, particularly heifers.

Shorthorns with an entry of 47, show a decrease in numbers of 12, but those forward are excellent representatives of the breed.

The supreme championship was won by Mrs. B. H. Linzee-Gordon, with a notable white four-year-old bull, Chapleton Crusader. A low-set bull, with a grand head and full of quality and breed character, the champion was bought at Perth as a yearling for 900 guineas. Reserve champion honours went to Mr. James Durne with Saltoun Red Ensign, a low-set fleshy bull, wide and deep. It was bought for 2,000 guineas at Perth as a yearling and has placed second in its class at both the Dundee and Inverness Highland shows.

The supreme champion in Aberdeen-Angus class was Chapel-on-Leader. Gravity, a three-year-old bull, which was bought for 650 guineas at Perth, and was champion at Duns show last year. With a deep body and fine legs, and full of breed character, it was brought out in the best of bloom.

LONDON, July 4—(Reuters)—The Yeomen of England came into their own today in all their 15th-century splendor when the King inspected the oldest royal body-guard. The King walked slowly along the ranks of the Yeomen of the Guard dressed in red, black and Gold Tudor regalia and carrying their ancient pike-like partisans and halberds.

WINSLOE NORTH W. M. S.

The regular meeting of Winsloe North W. M. S. met at the home of Mrs. James Cudmore on Wednesday, June 7th with Mrs. Cudmore in charge of devotional. Meeting opened with hymn 271, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say," Psalm 23 by Mrs. John MacInnis. Scripture reading Luke 2nd chapter verses 25-38 read responsively and prayer in unison followed by hymn 300.

It was decided to send for eight copies of "People Grow Older," for a play in the future. Mrs. Walter Roberts read portion of the Study book "Growing With The Years." Minutes of last meeting were read and adopted, report of community friendship showed five cards one letter and five boxes sent during the month.

A letter from Mrs. Nathan Irving was read by Mrs. Leonard Cudmore on some of the highlights on the work done in the year 1949. A letter was also read
