Freetown Notes

Miss Rene Arbing has returned home after spending the past two months visiting with relatives in O'Leary and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Edison Dammarell were visitors to Searletown on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Preston McDonald.

Many attended the auction sale on Friday afternoon at Mr. Leonard McCarville's. The weather was ideal, the bidding brisk and the large number of articles offered brought fair prices.

Miss Margaret Stetson and Miss Freda Stetson, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stetson of South Freetown, are among those taking the commercial course in Summerside High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. DeLong who spent the past two months visiting with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Simmons and other relatives in Freetown, have returned to their home in Taunton, Mass.

Mrs. Lawrence Gray left for her home in Vancouver, B.C. on Monday after visiting with relatives in Bedeque and Freetown for the past six weeks. Mrs. Gray was formerly mediate family the sisters are Mar- tha, Mrs. Walter Burns of Lower Freetown, and Annie in Vancouver, also several brothers in Freetown and Norborne.

Many from Freetown attended the School sports held in Bedeque Rink on Thursday evening. There were entries from nine schools and all the events were closely contested.

Upper Freetown School won with twenty seven points to its credit and the trophy was presented to Miss Florence Hughes who with Miss Thelma McPhee, both teachers in the Freetown School, had so successfully trained their contestants. Congratulations to the victors. Better luck next time to the vanquished.

Mr. P. A. Arseneault thanked everyone for their co-operation in the past and encouraged the parents to supervise the children's homework. He also stressed the necessity of providing books for the pupils. It was decided to purchase a "First Aid Kit" for the school. The meeting closed with "O Canada".

Tignish Shore

Her many friends will be sorry to learn that Mrs. Fred Gallant is undergoing treatment in the P. C. Hospital, Summerside.
