IN MEMORIAM

MRS. CLAYTON SMITH

On Saturday morning, Aug. 16, 1958, as the new day ushered in, she passed peacefully away in her sleep at her home in Freetown, Orrie, beloved wife of Clayton Smith in her 57th year.

Her death came as a great shock to her family, relatives and friends, for although she had been in failing health, she was able to be about and help with the household duties and caring for her husband who was at the time.

She was the daughter of the late Frank Daye of Norboro and had lived in Freetown since her marriage May 30th, 1923. She will be greatly missed in her home where she was a devoted loving wife and mother and where everyone who came within its bounds were made welcome as she possessed a very kind and hospitable nature.

A kind and thoughtful neighbor and one who was always ready to give assistance where needed.

She died trusting in the merits of the risen Savior and so shall her memory live on in the hearts of those who knew her best.

The funeral which was held from her home on Monday afternoon, Aug. 1, under the direction of Joe Davison, Kensington was largely attended. The Service was conducted by her Pastor, Rev. Mr. Brown of Bedeque United Church and assisted by Rev. Alex McKay of Kensington. Both spoke words of comfort to the bereaved.

Hymns sung were: "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," and "The Lord My Shepherd," also a solo, "The Old Rugged Cross," a favorite of the deceased by Roscoe Walker of Kensington.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Fred Paynter, William Francis, Walter Campbell, Hubert MacEwen, Russel Reeves and George Reeves.

The flower-bearers were: Lee Campbell, Edgar Reeves, Horace Paynter, Everett Francis, Eric Campbell, Eric Daye and Foster Campbell.

Left to cherish her memory are her four sons, namely: Morris of Kelowna, Elmer and Lyman, Freetown and Gordon, Toronto, Ont. also two daughters Erma, Mrs. Denison Hogg, Hamilton, P. E. I. and Marjory, Mrs. Jas Inglis, Kensington. Also the following brothers and sisters, Gordon of Kensington, Harland and Howard, Norboro and sisters Viola, Mrs. Edward Adams, Margate, Ethel, Mrs. Crawford Sinclair Summerfield and Ruby, Mrs. Ernest Carter of New Brunswick.

Interment was in the People's Cemetery.

TRIPLET BIRTH

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The Ware family increased from five to seven Wednesday when Mrs. James Boyd Ware gave birth to triplets. The couple's other children, aged 13, 11 and 3, are girls. The triplets, two boys and a girl, are in incubators and reported to be doing well.
