

"Covers Prince Edward Island Like The Dew"

VOL. LXXVI, NO. 268

Published at Second Class Mail by the Post Office at Charlottetown, Canada, Friday, October 11, 1963.

SEVEN CENTS

14 PAGES

ISLAND AIR CADET COMMITTEE MEETS

The president of the Air Cadet League of Canada, Ivan B. Quinn (centre) was the chief speaker at the annual meeting of the P.E.I. Committee...

Labor Minister Shocked By U.S. Backing Of SIU

Ottawa (CP)—Labor Minister MacEachen said Thursday night that he is "absolutely shocked" that the AFL-CIO in the United States is backing the Seafarers' International Union of Canada as a free trade union.

Butter Sale Is Reported To Britain

Ottawa (CP)—Canada has sold about $300,000 pounds of butter to the United Kingdom in the first major export sale since 1959, informants said Thursday.

Controversial Scientist Gets Second Peace Prize

OSLO, Norway (AP)—A Nobel Peace Prize was given Thursday to scientist Linus Carl Pauling, a U.S. foe of nuclear war who has been a target of controversy in his own land.

Records Are Broken

KENTVILLE, N.S. (CP)—Temperatures dropped to record lows in the apple-rich Annapolis Valley early Thursday after causing alarm for the unharvested portion of Nova Scotia's crop.

Low Temperatures Cause Concern For Apple Crop

KENTVILLE, N.S. (CP)—Temperatures dropped to record lows in the apple-rich Annapolis Valley early Thursday after causing alarm for the unharvested portion of Nova Scotia's crop.

Queens MP Asks Questions On P.E.I. National Park

By FARMER TISSINGTON
Capital Bureau, The Guardian
OTTAWA — The reasons why there have been two acting superintendents for the Prince Edward Island national park in the past few months was raised in the Commons Thursday by Health Minister Arthur Laing.

American To Step Down, Asks Successor Be Named

Solution Of Jail Problem Linked With Ottawa

By DON MACLEOD
Prospects for an early solution to the province's jail problem are tied up with arrangements that may be made with federal authorities, Attorney General Alban Farrer said last night.

Trusteeship Bill Provides Stiff Penalties

OTTAWA (CP)—Any person convicted of obstructing or hindering government trusteeship over the three unions in Canada will be liable to fines of $10,000 and jail terms of two years, the government disclosed Thursday night in its proposed trusteeship legislation.

Quake Suspected Behind Italian Avalanche, Flood

BELLUNO, Italy (AP)—Thronged of relief workers failed to recover the dead and search survivors of the Vaiont reservoir disaster, which Italian estimated killed 3,000 people.

60 Canadians Named Centennial Advisers

By RONALD LEBEL
OTTAWA (CP)—Sixty Canadians representing various segments of the population were named Thursday to the advisory body that will help prepare the 1967 centennial of Confederation.

Records Are Broken

KENTVILLE, N.S. (CP)—Temperatures dropped to record lows in the apple-rich Annapolis Valley early Thursday after causing alarm for the unharvested portion of Nova Scotia's crop.

Low Temperatures Cause Concern For Apple Crop

KENTVILLE, N.S. (CP)—Temperatures dropped to record lows in the apple-rich Annapolis Valley early Thursday after causing alarm for the unharvested portion of Nova Scotia's crop.

Plowing Trophy Presented

Stanley Willis, (right) of Cornwall, P.E.I. accepted silver plow trophy from H.W. Cook making him Canadian plow champion. With the award goes the right to represent Canada in the world contest next year in Vienna, Austria.

Delegates Shocked By News

Burglars Have Rough Time

COOKSVILLE, Ont. (CP)—Even the best of burglars are having a rough time of it these days.

Special Meeting Called By Mayor

Moving swiftly on the heels of newspaper stories on jail conditions, Mayor A. W. Gaudet is today invoking the seldom used powers of Chief Magistrate of the city to call a special meeting to inquire into the matter.

INSIDE TODAY

- Announcement, notices 13
- Births, deaths 13
- Classified 12
- Comics 11
- Editorials 4
- Sports 8
- Finance, markets 13
- Rural, churches 7
- Kings, Queens, City 2
- Prince County 3
- Summerside 2
- Women 4

Queens MP Asks Questions On P.E.I. National Park

By FARMER TISSINGTON
Capital Bureau, The Guardian
OTTAWA — The reasons why there have been two acting superintendents for the Prince Edward Island national park in the past few months was raised in the Commons Thursday by Health Minister Arthur Laing.

Records Are Broken

KENTVILLE, N.S. (CP)—Temperatures dropped to record lows in the apple-rich Annapolis Valley early Thursday after causing alarm for the unharvested portion of Nova Scotia's crop.

Low Temperatures Cause Concern For Apple Crop

KENTVILLE, N.S. (CP)—Temperatures dropped to record lows in the apple-rich Annapolis Valley early Thursday after causing alarm for the unharvested portion of Nova Scotia's crop.

Plowing Trophy Presented

Stanley Willis, (right) of Cornwall, P.E.I. accepted silver plow trophy from H.W. Cook making him Canadian plow champion. With the award goes the right to represent Canada in the world contest next year in Vienna, Austria.

Delegates Shocked By News

LONDON (CP)—Ailing Harold Macmillan is stepping down as Britain's prime minister.