

AIR SECURITY - NATIONAL SECURITY

RCAF Air Force Day

Saturday June 10

The Royal Canadian Air Force continues to serve Canada, in peace as it did in war. It serves proudly, aiding in Canada's development while building itself as a modern, compact Force, to be ready to defend Freedom should the need arise. Air Force Day, Saturday, June 10th, has been set aside for you, for you to see YOUR Air Force and obtain a better idea of what it is doing today. Visit your Summerside Air Force Station on Air Force Day, and you'll realize more than ever before what the Maple Leaf roundel of the RCAF means to every Canadian.
