NO MEDICINE in the world is in better repute or more widely known than Ayer's Sarsaparilla. As a safe and certain remedy for all manner of blood disorders, leading physicians and druggists everywhere recommend it in preference to any other.

MUCH injury is done by the use of irritaiing griping compounds taken as purgatives. In Ayer's Pills, the patient has a mild but effective cathartic, that can be confidently recommended alike for the most delicate patients as well as the most robust.

DANGEROUS.—A pedestrian caught his foot in a broken plank last evening on the side walk, North Side of Queen Square, and sprained his ankle. This morning another citizen met with a similar accident on Water Street. Are our city fathers waiting for a suit for damages before they repair these mantraps?

Blackburne, were fined $20 or 20 days and $2 or 8 days respectively for being drunk; and John Ring was fined $20 or 10 days for vagrancy. A Scott Act cass and a case of overloading a horse were both dismissed.

THE RIFLE.—The Interprovincial team who shot at St. John in June last, had a match on Saturday afternoon for a money prize made up among themselves. Sapper R. V. Longworth and Lieut. D. L. Hooper made the top scores, 90 points each. Sapper Longworth making 32 points at 600 yards, was awarded the prize. Capt. J. A. Longworth was third on the list, with 87 points, and Private Gay fourth, with 84.

SAD ACCIDENT.—A 15-year old Halifax lad named George Harris met with an accident while trying to explode a can of gun powder a few days ago, which will cost him the loss of both eyes. Harris first endeavored to ignite the powder with matches, but without success. He then placed the mouth of the flask near his mouth and blew a blaze from the match down into the can, causing the contents to explode. As a result of the explosion his face was terribly disfigured, and the sight of both eyes destroyed.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

The Maybrick Case.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.

A London special to the Herald says: No reliance is to be placed on a report in a report in circulation that the Home Secretary had decided to commute Mrs. Maybrick's sentence to imprisonment for life, and had he reached such a conclusion not more than two or three would be in in his confidence, and these, after the fashion of English officials, would be close-mouthed. To ask a judge here a question respecting crimmals tried by him would be considered a deadly insult, if not cause for sending the questioner to jail. The press is still filled with communications from people who claim Mrs. Maybrick is innocent. From morning till night she entreats to be permitted to write to the Queen, but has not been allowed to do so. She is but a wreck of her former self, and her food is the regular prison fare. On Friday her mail consisted of eleven hundred letters. None containing any reference to her case are given her.

Boulanger Wins Sympathy.

LONDON, Aug. 18.

Five hundred French residents of London visited Boulanger in a body to-day, and presented him with an address of sympathy and confidence. The General, in a speech, said he never used money belonging to France except when trying to secure her against her enemies. If he had been cited by a regularly-constituted court of assize, he and his colleagues would have taken the first boat for France to a fair trial. The French Government did not dare avail themselves of the ordinary courts, but formed a special tribunal composed of his political enemies, who virtually condemned him before they met. He only asked now faith from the French people, and the triumphs of the present rulers would soon be a thing of the past,

Another Victim.

ST. JOHN, Aug. 18.

A sailor employed on the steamer Lansdowne, on Saturday night, while attempting to board his vessel, fell over the wharf head first, his head striking the rail of the vessel, and is believed to have been killed instantly. He then fell between the wharf and vessel, and his body was recovered this morning. His name is Peter Brophy, at one time a soldier, and is said to have a brother in Halifax. He had been drinking heavily for the past few days.

Postoffice Robbery.

OTTAWA, Aug. 18.

The postoffice department has received word from Victoria, B. C., that a registered letter sent from Wellington to Victoria, containing $850, never reached its destination. There is no clue whatever to how or where it was missed. The amount was government money, and was addressed to postoffice authorities in Victoria.

Sharon-Hill Divorce Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.

In July the Supreme Court of California reversed the decision of the Superior Court in the Sharon-Hill divorce case, and remanded the case for a new trial. Mrs. Lemy applied for a rehearing before the Supreme Court to have the order for a new trial set aside, and the Supreme Court has now refused her application.

No One to Say Good Bye.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.
