

The Guardian, Charlotteville, Wed. Jan. 9, 1968. 5

Short Course In Navigation To Have At Least 14 Attend

Fourteen applications for a short course in navigation, beginning last Monday, were received yesterday. It was learned from the school principal that the two-partners Vocational School.

Mrs. Jamieson, Surgeon, Dies

MONTEAGUE — The death after a long illness of Mrs. James Jamieson of Surgeon occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Roche, St. Mary's Road Monday evening.

Large Congregation Present At Week Of Prayer Service

A congregation that filled every seat in the Kirk of St. James last night made reverent observance of the universal week of prayer in a moving service of worship conducted by the minister, Rev. T.H.B. Somers, assisted by Rev. Louis Elias, rector of St. Paul's Anglican Church, who read the lessons, and Rev. Ross Howard, Protestant chaplain of the hospital, who preached the sermon.

520 Replies Are Received

About 520 replies have been received by the provincial travel bureau to questionnaires sent out last month to tourists who visited the province last summer.

Food Plants Plan Brief

Two frozen food plants in the province, P. E. I. Frosted Foods Limited, Sherwood and Seaman Bros. (Canada) Limited, New Annan, have prepared a joint brief outlining wage for men in the province.

Berry Output Was Lower

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics figures show that in 1962, strawberry and blueberry production in the province was considerably lower than in 1961.

Expropriation Plan Approved

The Crown Building Corporation was given approval yesterday by the provincial government to expropriate properties on the site of the proposed government office building over the West Kent School area.

Ferry Traffic Shows Increase

Northeastbound Ferries Limited announced yesterday an increase of 11,491 in 1962 of their passenger service on the route between the island and the mainland.

Sonic Boom Startles City

A jet plane breaking the sound barrier over Charlotteville caused a loud explosion, and gave many citizens a short-lived scare about 11:25 yesterday morning.

Lions Club Father-Son Banquet Set

Charlotteville Lions Club will hold its annual father and son banquet tonight at the Charlotteville Hotel with 'Bucko' Trainor as guest speaker.

Ch'town Man Takes Course

It was learned last night that Guyanese architect, Deris Doyle, 33 Weymouth Street, Charlotteville, is leaving today for Halifax where he will attend a course in the occupational craft school, under the sponsorship of the E.E. Rehabilitation Council.

PROVINCIAL

(Continued from page 1) nized that the economy of the province is suffering, noting that the second largest source of income to residents is the tourism industry.

While all welcome the available jobs to the unemployed, the sick and the disabled, it is pointed out that it is so dependent on welfare, it was declared.

Insurance Returns to Capital

ELIZABETHVILLE, The Congo (AP) — Investment President Moise Tshombe of Katanga province returned to his home on Tuesday with a sharp hint that the threat of a change of government, Katanga's mines and utilities.

War Criminals Release Pondered

BONN (Reuters) — A West German Red Cross spokesman said Tuesday the question of releasing Nazi war criminals, including Adolf Hitler, Albert Speer and Baldur von Schirach from Berlin's Spandau prison was being investigated.

PROMISE REBELS AID

JAKARTA (AP) — Indonesia promised Tuesday to give serious consideration to any rebel request for arms and to renew the revolt against British rule in northern Borneo. The rebels whose revolt was crushed last month, sought independence from the British and the neighboring colonies of Sarawak and Sabah.

Fish, Game Ass'n Elects Officers

A WIDE range of topics was discussed at last night's annual meeting of the Queens Fish and Game Association, held in the Charlotteville YMCA. Here some of the top officers are shown going over the agenda prior to getting the

Research Div. To Add Staff

Earl Riggs, Charlotteville, was re-elected president of the Queens County branch, P.E.I. Fish and Game Association at the annual meeting in the YMCA last evening.

December Was Normal

Weatherwise, December was a normal month, with only small variations from the 30-year average, it was learned yesterday from Warren Burns, weather observer at the Experimental Farm.

Grand Tracadie H&S Has Meeting

Members of the Grand Tracadie Home and School Association held their regular monthly meeting recently at the school. Reports from various committees were heard, also a report from the semi-annual meeting which had been held at Morell.

Pair Fined For Fighting

David Martin and Terrance MacPherson, both of Charlottetown, charged with fighting in the street, were each fined $25 and costs of 10 days by Magistrate A. J. Haslam yesterday in city court.

CAVANAGH FUNERAL

The funeral for Simon J. Cavanagh was held Tuesday morning from the Charlotteville Funeral Home to St. Ann's Church, Jan. 8, from 9 to 10 o'clock. High Mass was celebrated by his pastor, Rev. Charles McCarroll. Deacon and subdeacon were Rev. James Smith and Rev. George McCormack. Rev. Wilfred Keefe was master of ceremonies. Rev. Leonard McKenna was present in the sanctuary. Interment was in the Charlotville cemetery where service was conducted by Father McCarroll. Pallbearers were Michael Murphy, William Gagnier, William Nolan, Charles MacDougall, Vernon MacKinnon and Alton Newman.

CAVANAGH FUNERAL

The funeral for Simon J. Cavanagh was held Tuesday morning from the Charlotteville Funeral Home to St. Ann's Church, Jan. 8, from 9 to 10 o'clock. High Mass was celebrated by his pastor, Rev. Charles McCarroll. Deacon and subdeacon were Rev. James Smith and Rev. George McCormack. Rev. Wilfred Keefe was master of ceremonies. Rev. Leonard McKenna was present in the sanctuary. Interment was in the Charlotville cemetery where service was conducted by Father McCarroll. Pallbearers were Michael Murphy, William Gagnier, William Nolan, Charles MacDougall, Vernon MacKinnon and Alton Newman.

CAVANAGH FUNERAL

The funeral for Simon J. Cavanagh was held Tuesday morning from the Charlotteville Funeral Home to St. Ann's Church, Jan. 8, from 9 to 10 o'clock. High Mass was celebrated by his pastor, Rev. Charles McCarroll. Deacon and subdeacon were Rev. James Smith and Rev. George McCormack. Rev. Wilfred Keefe was master of ceremonies. Rev. Leonard McKenna was present in the sanctuary. Interment was in the Charlotville cemetery where service was conducted by Father McCarroll. Pallbearers were Michael Murphy, William Gagnier, William Nolan, Charles MacDougall, Vernon MacKinnon and Alton Newman.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

By RALPH CAMERON The taxes now received by the city on all federal government-owned buildings here, and in the relief from sales taxes on many items purchased for municipal use.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

In the same manner, Fire Inspector Louis Ranshan obtained information on the latest fire prevention methods while attending the gathering of members of the National Fire Prevention Association at Philadelphia, and Fire Chief H. Jewell kept pace with matters of Maritime concern during a meeting of the Maritime Fire Chiefs Association, of which he is a longtime member of the executive.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

Modern assessing methods were also under review at the annual meeting of civic assessors, held at Niagara Falls during which City Assessor Ernest Sellar was a guest speaker. At the same time all information available to police forces here was discussed at the convention of the National Chiefs of Police held in Victoria, B.C., and attended by Police Chief Charles MacArthur.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

Another example of actual return to the city stems from attendance at the Maritime Chiefs of Police convention by Deputy Chief Stems Webster in 1962. As a result of his invitation, the chiefs will hold their 1964 convention in this city for the first time they have ever been here. A vast fund of knowledge on other Canadian centres are proceeding with planning for the future was gained by Mayor Gaudet and Councillor Walter

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

Examples of this are seen in the brief it was pointed out that an immediate problem confronting anyone attempting a scientific study of wage conditions in this province. This is the lack of reliable information. Statistics released by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, in 1962, the strawberry harvest was a mounted to 1,400,000 quarts, compared to 1,900,000 quarts in 1961. Blueberries in 1962 amounted to 238,000 pounds compared to 451,000 pounds in 1961.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

In reference to the impact a minimum wage increase on business, the brief pointed out that this is a difficult thing to determine. The experience in other provinces could be of some assistance in determining the effect.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

It was admitted that in some places a very few small businesses are unable to absorb the majority of firms were able to continue operation and in some instances, they have closed.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

It is believed that the property to be expropriated are those in the area of 107 Bedford Street, and the estate of the late S. Duffy at 91 and 95 Rochford Street. Other properties on the site, recently purchased by the corporation, will be advertised for sale by tender.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

It was also under review at the annual meeting of civic assessors, held at Niagara Falls during which City Assessor Ernest Sellar was a guest speaker. At the same time all information available to police forces here was discussed at the convention of the National Chiefs of Police held in Victoria, B.C., and attended by Police Chief Charles MacArthur.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

Modern assessing methods were also under review at the annual meeting of civic assessors, held at Niagara Falls during which City Assessor Ernest Sellar was a guest speaker. At the same time all information available to police forces here was discussed at the convention of the National Chiefs of Police held in Victoria, B.C., and attended by Police Chief Charles MacArthur.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

Another example of actual return to the city stems from attendance at the Maritime Chiefs of Police convention by Deputy Chief Stems Webster in 1962. As a result of his invitation, the chiefs will hold their 1964 convention in this city for the first time they have ever been here. A vast fund of knowledge on other Canadian centres are proceeding with planning for the future was gained by Mayor Gaudet and Councillor Walter

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

Examples of this are seen in the brief it was pointed out that an immediate problem confronting anyone attempting a scientific study of wage conditions in this province. This is the lack of reliable information. Statistics released by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, in 1962, the strawberry harvest was a mounted to 1,400,000 quarts, compared to 1,900,000 quarts in 1961. Blueberries in 1962 amounted to 238,000 pounds compared to 451,000 pounds in 1961.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

In reference to the impact a minimum wage increase on business, the brief pointed out that this is a difficult thing to determine. The experience in other provinces could be of some assistance in determining the effect.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

It was admitted that in some places a very few small businesses are unable to absorb the majority of firms were able to continue operation and in some instances, they have closed.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

It is believed that the property to be expropriated are those in the area of 107 Bedford Street, and the estate of the late S. Duffy at 91 and 95 Rochford Street. Other properties on the site, recently purchased by the corporation, will be advertised for sale by tender.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

It was also under review at the annual meeting of civic assessors, held at Niagara Falls during which City Assessor Ernest Sellar was a guest speaker. At the same time all information available to police forces here was discussed at the convention of the National Chiefs of Police held in Victoria, B.C., and attended by Police Chief Charles MacArthur.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

Modern assessing methods were also under review at the annual meeting of civic assessors, held at Niagara Falls during which City Assessor Ernest Sellar was a guest speaker. At the same time all information available to police forces here was discussed at the convention of the National Chiefs of Police held in Victoria, B.C., and attended by Police Chief Charles MacArthur.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

Another example of actual return to the city stems from attendance at the Maritime Chiefs of Police convention by Deputy Chief Stems Webster in 1962. As a result of his invitation, the chiefs will hold their 1964 convention in this city for the first time they have ever been here. A vast fund of knowledge on other Canadian centres are proceeding with planning for the future was gained by Mayor Gaudet and Councillor Walter

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

Examples of this are seen in the brief it was pointed out that an immediate problem confronting anyone attempting a scientific study of wage conditions in this province. This is the lack of reliable information. Statistics released by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, in 1962, the strawberry harvest was a mounted to 1,400,000 quarts, compared to 1,900,000 quarts in 1961. Blueberries in 1962 amounted to 238,000 pounds compared to 451,000 pounds in 1961.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

In reference to the impact a minimum wage increase on business, the brief pointed out that this is a difficult thing to determine. The experience in other provinces could be of some assistance in determining the effect.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

It was admitted that in some places a very few small businesses are unable to absorb the majority of firms were able to continue operation and in some instances, they have closed.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

It is believed that the property to be expropriated are those in the area of 107 Bedford Street, and the estate of the late S. Duffy at 91 and 95 Rochford Street. Other properties on the site, recently purchased by the corporation, will be advertised for sale by tender.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

It was also under review at the annual meeting of civic assessors, held at Niagara Falls during which City Assessor Ernest Sellar was a guest speaker. At the same time all information available to police forces here was discussed at the convention of the National Chiefs of Police held in Victoria, B.C., and attended by Police Chief Charles MacArthur.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

Modern assessing methods were also under review at the annual meeting of civic assessors, held at Niagara Falls during which City Assessor Ernest Sellar was a guest speaker. At the same time all information available to police forces here was discussed at the convention of the National Chiefs of Police held in Victoria, B.C., and attended by Police Chief Charles MacArthur.

City Benefits By Sending Officials To Conventions

It was also under review at the annual meeting of civic assessors, held at Niagara Falls during which City Assessor Ernest Sellar was a guest speaker. At the same time all information available to police forces here was discussed at the convention of the National Chiefs of Police held in Victoria, B.C., and attended by Police Chief Charles MacArthur.

Pattersons for Watch Repairs 113 Kent St. Dial 4-6732

YOU'VE never seen a jail or a jail story like this one! We can't tell you it's name we can only tell you it's true. TODAY - THURSDAY SHOWS 8:30-7-9 What the streets don't teach them this jail does! Let Sophie, Erica, Candy and all most notorious women's prison! PIONEER Model 620 $212.50 with 14" attachments can be financed. Don't waste time with that old saw. See us also. Reconditioned Chain Saws all prices. We Service MURRAY WHITE Your Pioneer Sales and Service Dealer John J. off General St. Dial 4-7189