"I stare? What are eyes for if not to stare with?" replied Pincher. He didn't blink. He couldn't have blinked if he had wanted to. "It isn't polite," said Teeter mildly.

"Why should I be polite. Nobody is polite to me," retorted the Crab, sidling off to one side to examine something he hoped might be good to eat.

"You haven't changed a bit," declared Teeter.

"The same to you," retorted Pincher.

"What were you throwing out that sand for?" asked Teeter.

"Really it isn't any of your business, but if you must know I was cleaning house," replied Pincher and scuttled back to his doorway. Perhaps he thought Teeter might peep inside.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. REUBEN DICKIESON

—There passed from this life to his eternal home on Saturday morning, Nov. 11, 1950, one of the oldest and highly respected citizens of Kensington in the person of Mr. Reuben Dickieson. He was born in Wilmot, P.E.I. on Dec. 2, 1885, a son of the late Daniel and Katherine (Ramsay) Dickieson.

Of a family of nine, remains one sister, Mrs. Annie Bath, California, also surviving is a nephew, Mr. Ralph Jennings of Washington, D.C., to whom he was greatly attached, who visited him two years ago and came to attend the funeral, and a niece in Vancouver, B.C., Mrs. Vins (Orr) Wilson, who spent some time here last September, and has since passed away on January 10. He was a man of deeply religious nature and was frequently visited by his pastor, the Rev. James A. McGowan. During his illness of nearly a year, he was cared for by Mrs. Janie Wadman, who did all in her power to make his sick bed comfortable and pleasant. He will be missed in the home where friends were always welcome.

Deceased was thrice married, first to Miss Mary Coulson, Long River, who lived scarcely a year; second to Miss Nellie Clark, Wilmot, and last to Mrs. Elizabeth Currie, Alberton, who passed away eight years ago.

He spent most of his life farming on P. E. Island, with the exception of a few years in North Dakota.

His funeral was held from the United Church, Kensington, on Tuesday, Nov. 14 at 2 p.m. The service was conducted by his pastor, the Rev. James A. McGowan, assisted by the Rev. L. M. Murray. Mr. McGowan took his text from St. John 11, verse 4. The hymns sung were: "The Lord's My Shepherd," "O God of Bethel," and "I To the Hills Will Lift Mine Eyes."

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Alexander Hiltz, Isaac Walker, Perry Cann, Horace Heckbert, George MacNeill and John W. Thompson.

The funeral was under the direction of Mr. Joseph L. Davison.

3 Way Shave
A PRODUCT OF NOXZEMA

Here's how you use it—no matter how you shave. If you shave with a brush and lather, just apply 3-Way Shave first—then lather right over it. You'll notice a tremendous difference, both during your shave and afterwards. Shaving will be quick, smooth, painless—no smarting, burning. If you're a brushless shaver, just wash your face first, leave wet and use 3-Way Shave exactly like your present brushless shave cream. Notice how much faster, how much more comfortable it is! And how grand your face feels when you've finished!
