

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

OCTOBER 30, 1883.

Editorial Notes.

John Brigh's feeble health will prevent him from coming out to America as a public character.

All Halloween—a time for harmless fun and frolic—not for offensive "jokes" and petty thievery.

The Toronto Mail says: No panic is at hand. This country is soundly prosperous.

The Marquis of Lorne and Princess Louise sailed from Quebec for England, on the 27th inst., on the Allan Steamship "Sardinian."

At first sight of the long columns of figures in last evening's Patriot one is reminded of the extended account for stationery which may be found in our Provincial archives to wit: "The Government of P. E. Island to David Laird, Dr." etc., etc.

The brig Maxelton, Capt. Bartlett, put in here on Wednesday evening, in consequence of her mainmast being damaged by fire.

Sundry penalties and disabilities have at various times been imposed upon bachelors, but none of them seems more hard than the disadvantage at which unmarried naval officers are placed in the American navy.

them in the name of their Protestant principles to vote against the Conservative candidate, who was described as the willing tool of the "Blues" of Quebec and of the Roman Catholic Church.

New Post Offices.

An office called Wellington Station has been established at that place, and Mr. F. J. Arseneault appointed Postmaster.

An office has also been sanctioned at Brown's Creek, Lot 59, and Mr. William Taylor, who was recommended in the application from the inhabitants, has been appointed Postmaster.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

All Halloween.

Sir,—To-morrow will be All Halloween, and I beg, through you, to direct the attention of the Stipendiary Magistrate to the necessity of providing for the safety of the property of citizens.

Notes from Souris.

The brig Maxelton, Capt. Bartlett, put in here on Wednesday evening, in consequence of her mainmast being damaged by fire.

The schooner Harriet Torry, Capt. Lord, came into port Saturday night with 120 barrels of mackerel.

Shipping continues dull owing chiefly to the unmerchantable size of potatoes.

The sch. Welcome, which drowned nine men last August, is being refitted and repaired.

The American fishing sch. M. L. Wetherell, called here Thursday evening for a seine boat.

Mr. Berrie, of St. Margaret's, N. S., is paying a visit to his esteemed son-in-law, the Rev. J. J. Coulter.

The schooner Lorraine is receiving a first class painting.

Mr. John Tierney has returned home, after an absence of two years, from Colorado.

Meat canning preparations are the order of the day. Owing to the large quantities of stock canned last year only a nominal amount will be preserved this fall.

Souris, Oct. 29, 1883.

Sundry penalties and disabilities have at various times been imposed upon bachelors, but none of them seems more hard than the disadvantage at which unmarried naval officers are placed in the American navy.

As insurances are effected in this Association at actual cost, with a small fixed charge for office commission, there cannot possibly be a more equitable and cheap system of life insurance.

No delay no heavy premiums, no enormous profits at the expense of the insured!

This company having made the deposit of $50,000 at Ottawa, as required by law, offers this further guarantee as to the prompt payment of its obligations.

Every policy in this Association for $1,000 is secured by the obligations of its members representing upwards of $2,000,000 and rapidly increasing.
