Preparation for Christ's Coming ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Mark 13:1—14:9.

As Christ and His disciples came out of the temple on Tuesday of Holy Week one of the disciples admired the temple's beauty. Christ commented that the stones would not be left standing — Mark 13:1-2.

When they had climbed to the top of the Mount of Olives, opposite the temple, Peter, James, John and Andrew drew Him aside and asked Him privately what He had meant and when it would happen.—Mark 13:3-4.

In a famous discourse He told them that after the Gospel was preached to all nations there would come a time of great tribulation, after which Christ would return in His glory and the elect be gathered.—Mark 13:5-27.

The previous Saturday evening, when He dined with Simon the leper, Mary of Bethany anointed Christ with a costly jar of ointment. Christ praised her for it.—Mark 14:1-9.

MEMORY VERSE: — "Take heed, watch; for you do not know when the time will come". — Mark 13:33.

Mount Of Olivet Prophecy Recalled On Holy Tuesday

(Editor's note: The following material relating to tomorrow's Sunday School Lesson is based on copyrighted outlines prepared by the Division of Education, National Council of Churches in the U.S. and is used by permission.)

By N. SPEER JONES

The so-called Olivet Discourse comprises the major part of today's lesson. This is the name given to the prophecies given by Christ on Tuesday of Holy Week as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the famous hill just opposite Jerusalem to the east. On the other side of the crest of this hill was Bethany.

Present for this discourse were only four of Christ's disciples — Peter, James, John and Andrew. It was precipitated by a remark made by one of his disciples as they all emerged from Jerusalem's temple, where Christ had just commended the poor woman for her donation to the treasury. One of the disciples remarked about the beauty of the stones and architecture of the temple, which was indeed the most magnificent on the eastern shore of the Mediterranean.

Jesus replied gloomily that not one of those beautiful stones would be left standing, it was the four disciples' request for illumination of that statement which led to the Olivet Discourse.

Christ's prophecy regarding the temple was fulfilled just 40 years later, in 70 A.D., when the temple and fortifications of Jerusalem were leveled by the Roman general Titus in the Jewish War.

The events which Jesus predicts can be divided into three parts or phases—those occurring before the great tribulation (Mark 13:5-13), those during the tribulation (Mark 13:14-23) and those after the tribulation (Mark 13:24-27).

In the first, "rumors" of war means talk of war — and when has there been more than at the current time?

The great tribulation itself, which is to come, will include great desecration of religion — of the temple. This will be the worst period of tribulation since the beginning of man's history.

After this great tribulation, three events will occur. First there will be great disturbances in the heavens, far greater than anything man could produce with his space experiments. Secondly, Christ will return in power and glory. Thirdly, angels will be sent to gather God's elect.

Christ's prediction that all these things shall be accomplished before "this generation" shall pass away, has caused some difference of opinion among scholars. Generally it is held that this means the generation or nation or people of Israel, not any temporal period.

Over and over, in Matthew's account of his discourse, Christ exhorts His followers to watch constantly for the hour of His return. Mark is not repetitive in his recording of this exhoration, but does record it once. It does not mean that we are to try to ascertain the particular time of this return in advance, but rather that we should be eternally vigilant in our duties as Christians, so we will not be caught unaware, or spiritually asleep. Then we shall need no fear of the Lord's arrival.

The last event recorded in our lesson is one which chronologically took place several days earlier, the anointing of Jesus by Mary of Bethany on Saturday evening before Holy Week. On no other deed does Jesus ever bestow such praise.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

What's Inside?

WHAT MAGIC INGREDIENTS DO THESE BOTTLES CONTAIN? Do they hold harmful, injurious poisons? Or are they filled with healing medicines and vitamins? Will they inflict pain, or will they cure disease?

But what does it matter? If the contents are bad, we can pour them out.

But the minds of children is an entirely different matter. A small human being can be filled with selfishness and hate, or he can be filled with sincerity and love. Unfortunately, evil is more quickly dispelled from a glass bottle than from the soul of a child. For in the human mind bad thoughts can grow, and as time goes on, it is more difficult to replace them with truth and love.

That is why it is so important to instill within our children a sense of right and wrong at an early age. Of course, by example, "you" can be a tremendous influence. But you need the help of your church—the wisdom of Christ's teachings. With them, you can fill your heart with the essential ingredients for a happy and fruitful life.
