GOOD HAUL

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP)—There's nothing like an honest fisherman, says Angelo Lombardo of Windsor. Most exaggerate catches but when he received a wallet Wednesday containing $360 lost in Trail, B.C., two weeks ago, he decided not to exaggerate a catch. A British Columbia fisherman hauled out his wallet and had it sent to him here.

ELDER DECKER ELDER FOGG
LATTER DAY SAINTS

Two Mormon Missionaries, Elder Wayne R. Decker and Elder J. Wayne Fagg, will be making calls on the people of Prince Edward Island explaining about their church. The Mormon Church officially named the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is centered in Salt Lake City, Utah.

In recent years the church has experienced rapid growth in eastern Canada. In consequence, or church growth in Nova Scotia, ground has been broken for a new church in Halifax. Elder Decker and Elder Fagg are two of several thousand young men acting as full time missionaries teaching the gospel in all parts of the earth.

Mormonism has contributed much to the world cultural as well as spiritually. The famed tabernacle choir that broadcasts every Sunday from Temple Sq. in Salt Lake City, has pleased audiences for more than 25 years. Utah as a state has always been noted for its high academic standing. The mormon church has emphasized education since its organization in 1830. In view of this fact, one of the largest and fastest growing universities in the Western United States is Brigham Young University.

Rebels Free Another Yank

By BOB CLARK
GUANTANAMO, Cuba (AP) — Cuban rebels freed another American civilian hostage Tuesday, leaving 33 North Americans still in insurgent hands.

Released was Raymond Elmore, 53, of Haynesville, La., assistant manager of the Ermita Sugar Mill near Guantanamo. He was seized June 28.

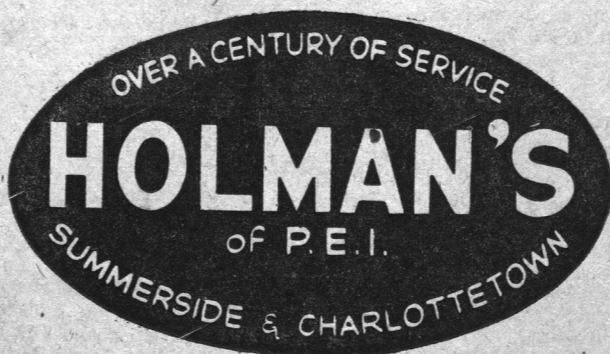

Elmore was brought out by helicopter to the U.S. naval base here with U.S. Vice-Consul Robert Wiecha. The official had been in the hills a week urging the rebels to turn loose all their captives. U.S. Embassy spokesmen said Wiecha had flown out to report on his mission.

Still held are 30 U.S. servicemen, two American civilians and one Canadian—sugar mill manager Richard Sargent of Toronto. There still was no word of when any of the abducted sailors and marines would be returned.
