

THE DAILY EXAMINER, JUNE 28, 1881.

The Law providing for the Custody of Lunatics.

We deprecate discussion of the outrage at the Asylum until after the trial shall have taken place.

It is provided in the first place, that the financial and general management of the Hospital shall be vested in five trustees, three of whom may be members of the Government.

In the second place, it is provided that there shall be a Medical Superintendent who shall devote his whole time to the welfare of the Institution; who shall appoint and engage all the other officers of the Hospital necessary to promote the object of the Institution.

It is provided that "Under the direction of the Medical Superintendent the Supervisor shall have general oversight of the buildings, grounds and farm, and shall see that they are at all times kept in perfect order, and that all persons employed about the same perform their duties faithfully."

How extremely modest the Grit organs have been since the Elicton and Colchester elections resulted so disastrously to their cause.

The night watchman—in which capacity John McCloskey was acting during the affray—goes to the Superintendent at nine o'clock every evening for directions, and then begins to perform his duty, which is to pass regularly through and around the Asylum, or such parts as he may be directed, for the purpose of observing all occurrences, attending to the fires during the night and morning, and guarding against danger therefrom.

The night watchman—in which capacity John McCloskey was acting during the affray—goes to the Superintendent at nine o'clock every evening for directions, and then begins to perform his duty, which is to pass regularly through and around the Asylum, or such parts as he may be directed, for the purpose of observing all occurrences, attending to the fires during the night and morning, and guarding against danger therefrom.

By the rules for the guidance of attendants it is provided that no male attendant, servant or patient shall be allowed to enter the female wards, nor any female to enter the male wards, except in discharge of duty or with adequate authority; and under no circumstances will an attendant be excused for striking a blow or laying violent hands upon a patient, unless in the clearest case of self-defence, or to prevent his committing serious injury to himself and others.

Throughout the discussion relative of the abuse of a patient by some of the male attendants of the Hospital the Patriot has shown that its object is purely a political one. Such names as "McCloskey" and "Creighton" being borne by some of the accused, an excellent opportunity was afforded our unscrupulous contemporary to impress the public with the belief that these appointments were made at the instance of the Government.

The general election itself was not a more decisive test of public feeling than the test applied on Saturday in Nova Scotia. Nor was the result of the general elections more to be rejoiced in than the result of the elections in Pictou and Colchester.

The latest development of the Patriot's policy is to be found in its demand for the dismissal of Mr. Mulligan, the Supervisor of the Hospital. The assigned reason for the demand is that Mr. Mulligan is not fitted by previous experience for the duties of that office.

son for the demand is that Mr. Mulligan is not fitted by previous experience for the duties of that office. On the question of efficiency we think that Dr. Blanchard is likely to be as good a judge as the editor of the Patriot.

"Shortly after the death of Mr. Martin, Mr. P. S. Mulligan was appointed Supervisor, and has proved the wisdom of the selection by his conduct since. He fills the requirements of the office admirably, and a better selection could hardly have been made."

When the Patriot admits that Mr. Mulligan "may be a capital steward, may know how to buy to advantage, may be a skillful accountant and may be a judicious and economical caterer," it virtually seconds Dr. Blanchard's words of approbation. The duties of steward, accountant and caterer are really those that appertain to the office of Supervisor.

If the Patriot means that an additional attendant shall be appointed for the Asylum as a sort of lieutenant to Doctor Blanchard, his suggestion of last evening may be worthy of consideration. Certainly no expense should be spared to provide the Hospital with a thoroughly efficient staff of nurses.

A Change of Tune.

How extremely modest the Grit organs have been since the Elicton and Colchester elections resulted so disastrously to their cause. Had they not boasted so much their discomfiture would be less galling. But they yelled defiance and shouted victory, and now they are solemn and sad.

Poor Consolation.

The Grit newspapers, determined to find consolation for their afflicted party amid the Pictou and Colchester elections, claim that there is a Grit gain in Pictou since 1878 of 106 votes. The truth is that Doull's majority over Carmichael in 1878 was 248, while McDougall's majority on Saturday was 208, showing a Grit gain of 40.

Nova Scotia Elections.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

Toronto Globe (Grit).

While we have to express our regret that the contest in these two counties has resulted in the return of the Ministerial candidates by such large majorities, we cannot say that we feel any surprise, except in so far as the representations of our Liberal friends on the ground had led us to expect a different result.

Toronto Mail (Liberal-Conservative).

The general election itself was not a more decisive test of public feeling than the test applied on Saturday in Nova Scotia. Nor was the result of the general elections more to be rejoiced in than the result of the elections in Pictou and Colchester. Elsewhere we have touched on the local aspects and meaning of these elections; but the whole Dominion has taken an unusual interest in them, and curiosity as to the result has been very keen.

Montreal Gazette (Liberal-Conservative).

An increased majority in Colchester, and an only slightly decreased majority in Pictou, are events which are in the highest degree satisfactory. It is an open secret that the Opposition felt confident that they could carry the latter county, and run the new Minister a very close race in the former. They have been undecided. The elections in Carleton and East Northumberland had turned their heads, an accidental triumph being for them so novel an experience. They have time now for reflection. As Pictou and Colchester have gone so we believe the country at large will go when the general elections are held.

Montreal Witness (Reformer).

Judging from these elections, there does not seem to be any great Liberal reaction in Nova Scotia at least. When the Hon. Edward Blake was in Montreal recently, he declared that the feeling in the Maritime Provinces was all that could be desired by the Liberal party. The results of these elections seem to indicate that he was misinformed. At any rate, they attest that there is a wide field for the labor which the leader of the Opposition intends to enter upon within the next few months in the Lower Provinces.

Notes from Sturgeon.

Planting operations were brought to a close here about the 10th inst. The St. George Cultivators are used to a great extent here, and they are pronounced by competent judges to be the best agricultural implements now in use on the Island.

A few days ago, I visited Messrs. Prowse & Clow's lobster factory, Murray Harbor North, and I believe it is as fine a factory as there is on the Island. Mr. Clow informed me that the number employed is one hundred. There were twenty boats fishing the day of my visit, and there were 15,000 lobsters landed in the forenoon.

Mr. Campbell, Supt. Public Works, paid us a visit a few days ago. He intends to put some very extensive repairs upon Sturgeon and Lewellyn Bridges, and no doubt they are very much in need of it.

The Local Government are held in the highest estimation here for the efficient manner in which they have conducted the affairs of the Island the past few years.

Sharp eyes are beginning to discover typographical errors in the revised New Testament.

In the fifty-cent edition (English), in spite of the fifteen proof-readers, I, Corinthians iii, 5, has the word "Lord" at the wrong end of the line, so that it reads: "Ministers through whom we lord believed; and each as ye care to him," instead of "Ministers through whom ye believed, and each as the Lord gave to him."

A curious order has recently been issued by the French Ministry of Marine. This is neither more nor less than that sailors will be henceforth allowed to wear beards. The order says that mustaches must not be worn without beards, and that the beard must not be more than six centimetres in length, and must be well kept.

A Womanly Woman.

Yes, God has made me a woman, And I am content to be Just what He meant, not reaching out For other things, since He Who knows me best, and loves me most has ordered this for me.

A woman to live my life out In quiet, womanly ways, Bearing the fire of battle, Seeing, as through a haze, The crowding, struggling world of men fight through their busy days.
