

Would "extra" money make your summer vacation "extra" special? Then here's how to get it: make up a list of articles around your home which you no longer need. Outgrown children's playthings, for instance, or perhaps that old washing machine, an idle bike, sports equipment, or just about anything that others can use. Next, Dial 8506 and describe what you have to offer in a fast acting Guardian-Patriot Want Ad! P. E. I. folks are always on the lookout for second-hand articles in good condition. And because the Guardian - Patriot carries many of these in Want Ads they turn to its classified columns to fill their needs. If you have what they are after, they'll make quick contact and offer cash. So get busy now rounding up articles around the cellar and attic which you no longer need and offer them to thousands in these widely read columns. Here you'll reach many many local prospects

IN MEMORIAM

MacLEOD — In loving memory of a dear husband and father William D. MacLeod, who passed away August 2nd, 1954. This day we do remember A loving thought we give To one no longer with us But in our hearts still lives. Lovingly remembered by wife Annie, sons and daughters.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank Dr's Stewart and Lee nursing staff of the P. E. I. Hospital, clergy and all friends who sent mass cards, flowers and messages of sympathy, also those who helped in any way during the illness and death of my husband, Thomas Hughes. Mrs. Florence Hughes.

I wish to extend my sincere thanks to the sisters, nurses and doctors of the Charlottetown Hospital, to the clergy, who visited me, to my pastor Rev. Chas. McCarthy, to the teacher and classmates of Emyvale School, to my relatives and friends who sent me cards and treats, and a special "thank you" to Mr. Vincent McCloskey, who first discovered my accident and brought me to my parents. Warren Carragher.
